H. WAYNE HUIZENGA

Owner/Chairman of the Board

NFL: Tenth Season

Dolphins: Tenth Season

Born: December 29, 1937

H. Wayne Huizenga began his active involvement in South Florida sports on March 7, 1990, when he purchased 15% of the Miami Dolphins and a 50% interest in Joe Robbie Stadium, now called Pro Player Stadium. That involvement was finalized on January 24, 1994, when he acquired the remaining 85% of the Dolphins and the additional 50% of the stadium, leaving him with 100% ownership of both the team and the stadium.

Mr. Huizenga is Chairman and Co-C.E.O. of AutoNation, Inc., the nation's largest automotive retailer. He is also Chairman of the Board of Republic Services, a non-hazardous solid waste collection company, Extended Stay America and Florida Panthers Holdings, Inc., a leisure-time, recreation, sports and entertainment company that owns the National Hockey League's Florida Panthers and resort properties.

He is also Chairman of Huizenga Holdings, Inc., and is the sole or majority owner of several service businesses. He has numerous real estate interests throughout Florida that include office buildings, warehouses, shopping centers and underdeveloped properties as well as the Marriott's Harbor Beach Resort Hotel. He was responsible for bringing major league baseball to South Florida in 1993, and under his direction the Florida Marlins won the World Series in 1997.

Previously, Mr. Huizenga was Vice Chairman of the Board of Viacom, Inc. and Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation.

In January, 1971, Mr. Huizenga co-founded Waste Management, Inc. (now WMX Technologies, Inc.) which today is the world's largest waste collection and disposal company. He served as President, Chief Operating Officer, Vice Chairman, and Director. Mr. Huizenga resigned from the company in May, 1984 to pursue other business interests.

Mr. Huizenga then directed Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation into a position of world leadership in the video rental industry, serving communities in all 50 states and 26 countries. In 1994, Blockbuster Entertainment Corporation was sold to Viacom for $8.5 billion.

Business and academic groups have honored Mr. Huizenga seven times as "Entrepreneur of the Year," including the 1995 award given by Success Magazine. He is a five-time recipient of Financial World Magazine's "CEO of the Year" and was named the 1993 "Business Leader of the Year" by Georgetown University's Business School.

Among his other awards are the Horatio Alger Award in 1992, and the Gordon Grand Fellow Award, the highest non-academic award that Yale University bestows. Mr. Huizenga also received the Fort Lauderdale Sun-Sentinel's 1989 Excalibur Award for Business leadership. He was inducted into the Video Hall of Fame in 1991 and named Time-Billboard Magazine's "Man of the Year" in 1990 for his contributions to the growth and development of the video retail industry. In 1996, he was inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame and the Greater Miami Sports Hall of Champions.

Mr. Huizenga's community involvement honors include the 1994 "Humanitarian of the Year" by the National Conference of Christians and Jews. In addition, he and his wife, Marti, were recognized as "Outstanding Philanthropists of the Year" by the Greater Broward/Fort Lauderdale chapter of the National Society of Fund Raising Executives. He was also honored by the Fort Lauderdale NAACP for his contributions to its programs. His effort to help build a homeless center in Ft. Lauderdale was recognized when he was awarded the Private Sector Award in 1999 by the National Alliance to End Homelessness. Mr. Huizenga sits as a board member of many civic organizations, including the Florida Council of 100, the Broward Economic Development Board, the Salvation Army of Broward County, the Boys and Girls Club of Broward County, and is the immediate past Chairman of the Florida Council on Economic Education.

Mr. Huizenga, 61, and wife Marti live in Fort Lauderdale. They have four children: Wayne, Jr., Ray, Scott, and Pam, and four grandchildren, Savannah, Wayne III, Shelby, and Chloe.

JIMMY JOHNSON

General Manager/Head Coach

Born: July 16, 1943
College: Arkansas
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season

Jimmy Johnson was named General Manager/Head Coach of the Miami Dolphins on January 11, 1996, signing a four-year contract. He became the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Johnson subsequently signed a one-year extension through the 2000 season on April 18, 1998.

In 1998, the Dolphins posted a 10-6 record and qualified for the NFL playoffs for the second straight year. They then defeated the Buffalo Bills 24-17 in an AFC First-Round Playoff game before being eliminated by the Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos in the AFC Divisional Playoffs. It marked the first time the Dolphins advanced to the Divisional round in the playoffs since the 1994 season, and it was the fifth time in Johnson's eight seasons as an NFL head coach that his team qualified for the playoffs. The Dolphins also have improved their record every year under Johnson (from 8-8 in 1996 to 9-7 in 1997 and 10-6 last year), and only two other teams in the league (the Atlanta Falcons and the New York Jets) have improved their record each of the last two seasons.

In addition, under Johnson's leadership, the Dolphin defense in 1998 gave up the fewest points in the NFL, the first time Miami's defense led the NFL in fewest points allowed since 1983. The Dolphins also finished with a positive turnover ratio (+8) for the third straight season under Johnson, a feat they failed to accomplish even once in the previous 11 years (1985-95) before his arrival. In fact, the Dolphins' +27 ratio over the past three seasons is the second best in the NFL, behind only the San Francisco 49ers' +34 turnover ratio.

In 1997, his second season in Miami, Johnson led the Dolphins into the playoffs with a 9-7 record. Johnson's Dolphins made the playoffs despite having 14 players undergo a total of 15 surgeries, while three other players suffered broken bones. In all, seven players were placed on Injured Reserve and the club's top five draft choices in 1997 all suffered significant injuries that limited or ended their availability for the season, and still Johnson guided Miami into postseason play.

In 1996, Johnson's first year as Head Coach of the Dolphins, it did not take him long to make an impact. He took over a team that was one of the oldest in the league, and with an infusion of rookies, laid the foundation for success in the future.

The average age of Johnson's 22 starters in his first season with the Dolphins was 25.7 years old, making the Dolphins the youngest team in the NFL. Johnson channelled the youthfulness into aggression on both sides of the football, as the Dolphins recorded their first positive turnover ratio (+12) since 1984. He established a commitment to run the ball, and that determination produced the Dolphins' first 1,000-yard rusher (Karim Abdul-Jabbar) since 1978. In addition, en route to an 8-8 season, the Dolphins finished strongly by winning their last two games and proved more than competitive in the AFC East, going 6-2 in the division with sweeps of the Buffalo Bills (for the first time since 1986) and the New York Jets.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Johnson spent the 1995 and 1994 seasons as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports and for HBO Sports. Before that, he built one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels. He is one of only three active coaches who has led a team to two Super Bowl titles (the other two are the Jets' Bill Parcells, who won a pair of championships with the Giants, and Mike Shanahan, who guided the Broncos to wins in the last two Super Bowls). In addition, Johnson became the first, and one of only two head coaches ever in football history, to win both a Super Bowl title and a national collegiate championship. He has developed and maintained winning programs everywhere he has been as a head coach.

Johnson served as Head Coach of the Dallas Cowboys from 1989 through 1993, and during that time, he became only the fourth man in NFL history to coach consecutive Super Bowl winners, winning Super Bowl XXVII in 1992, and following that with a victory in Super Bowl XXVIII in 1993. His 1992 Super Bowl win made Johnson the first coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title and a major college football championship (University of Miami - 1987).

In his five years in Dallas, Johnson led the Cowboys to two NFL championships, with their first title in 1992 coming just three years after the franchise produced a 1-15 mark in 1989. In all four years that followed Johnson's initial season with the Cowboys, he was named the NFL Coach of the Year by at least one national news media outlet. In addition, Johnson's post-season winning percentage of .727 (8-3) is the third best in NFL history among coaches with five or more post-season wins, behind only Vince Lombardi's mark of .900 (9-1), and Mike Shanahan's percentage of .875 (7-1).

Since the start of the 1990 season, Johnson's clubs in Dallas and Miami have compiled an overall record of 78-45 (.634), going 70-42 (.625) in the regular season and 8-3 in the play-offs. Even more impressive, starting on November 24, 1991, the Cowboys won 37 of their last 45 games overall (.822) under Johnson before he left the team on March 29, 1994. In addition, during those years, Johnson's teams played their best football at the end of the season when championships are decided, as the Cowboys posted a record of 20-4 (.833) in December and January from 1990-93, the best mark in the NFL for those two months in that time span. Overall in Dallas and Miami since 1989, Johnson has a mark of 26-16 (.619) in December and January. Johnson also has claimed at least one victory over 13 of the 14 NFC teams he has faced since 1990, and additionally he is 34-19 in his last 53 games against AFC opponents, including 11-3 in his last 14 contests versus the AFC while coaching the Cowboys.

In 1992, Johnson's first NFL championship team set a Cowboy club record for most regular season victories with 13 (13-3), while also establishing a new team standard for most overall wins (16). He did that with the NFL's youngest team that season, utilizing a roster that averaged 25.6 years of age per man. The Dallas defense was ranked No. 1 in the NFL, while the offense exploded for an average of 37 points per game in its last five contests.

In 1993, en route to a second straight Super Bowl win, Johnson's Cowboys were the only team in the league to be ranked in the top 11 in all six of the NFL's major statistical offensive and defensive categories, and established a new club record by surrendering an NFL-low six interceptions, while again fielding one of the youngest teams in the league.

During Johnson's tenure in Dallas, in addition to his coaching success, his ability to evaluate talent played a key role in his personnel decisions that rebuilt the Cowboys from the worst team in the league into Super Bowl champions. His five drafts produced 17 players who would eventually become starters on one or more of the three Cowboys' Super Bowl championship teams of the 1990s, and nine of those picks would go on to make the Pro Bowl (Troy Aikman, Daryl Johnston, Mark Stepnoski, Emmitt Smith, Russell Maryland, Erik Williams, Leon Lett, Darren Woodson, and Tony Tolbert). In addition to his draft success, Johnson engineered 55 trades of players and/or draft picks during that time and those trades, coupled with free agent signings, added seven other eventual Super Bowl starters, including three more Pro Bowl performers (Jay Novacek, Thomas Everett, and Charles Haley), to the Cowboy roster. In all, during his tenure in Dallas, Johnson brought in 24 players who started in either Super Bowl XXVII, Super Bowl XXVIII, or Super Bowl XXX, and 12 Pro Bowl performers to the Cowboy team he inherited in 1989.

Johnson has continued that same draft-day success with the Dolphins. Eight players that Johnson drafted in 1996 started at least one game for the Dolphins that season, with six of them earning full-time starting positions by the end of the year (Abdul-Jabbar and Stanley Pritchett on offense and Shane Burton, Daryl Gardener, Zach Thomas, and Shawn Wooden on defense). Five other starters were acquired by Johnson either by trades or as free agents. Johnson followed that same formula for success during the 1997 off-season, using the draft to add quality players to the team. He started draft-day in 1997 with ten selections, but by the time the draft was concluded he added a total of 14 draft picks to the roster through two trades. He used that draft to add three more starters to the team (Jason Taylor, Derrick Rodgers, and Sam Madison). Johnson again was active in 1998, turning seven draft choices into ten selections through four trades, including three on draft day, to add rookies Kenny Mixon, Lorenzo Bromell, John Avery, and Patrick Surtain. In 1999, he was able to transform five draft choices into eight selections through four draft-day trades.

Overall in his four drafts with Miami, Johnson has parlayed 30 original draft choices into a total of 44 picks through a series of 12 trades involving draft choices, including 11 on draft day. Since joining the Dolphins, Johnson has revamped the Dolphins to such an extent that only nine players remain on the roster he inherited in 1996.

Before moving to the NFL, Johnson achieved similar success in the college ranks. At the University of Miami (1984-88) Johnson led the Hurricanes to a 52-9 record, including a 44-4 mark over the final four seasons. His Hurricane teams also captured two Orange Bowl titles, a national championship in 1987 and two No. 2 finishes (1986, 1988). Only a combined five-point difference in two losses separated Miami from three straight 12-0 seasons from 1986-88.

During Johnson's reign, the Hurricanes were 21-9 against teams that were ranked in the Top 20, and 5-0 against preseason No. 1 clubs. They avoided upsets, putting together an unblemished 31-0 mark versus unranked teams. They won 36 straight regular season games from 1985-88, the fifth longest streak in NCAA history, and they won 20 consecutive road games from 1984-88.

Johnson had 14 of his Hurricane players go on to become first-round NFL draft choices, while also coaching Heisman Trophy winner Vinny Testaverde (1986) as well as nine players who would become Pro Bowl performers in the NFL (Eddie Brown, Jerome Brown, Brian Blades, Michael Irvin, Bennie Blades, Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland, Leon Searcy, Testaverde).

In recognition of his accomplishments with the Hurricanes, Johnson was inducted into the school's Sports Hall of Fame on March 30, 1996. He was also recognized for his achievements with the Hurricanes, as well as the Dolphins, when he was voted into the State of Florida Sports Hall of Fame on April 27, 1998.

In his first head coaching job, Johnson took over a losing program at Oklahoma State in 1979 and brought it to national prominence, compiling a 29-24-2 record in five seasons, including two bowl appearances. Johnson was named Big Eight Coach of the Year following his first season.

Before becoming a head coach, Johnson spent 14 years as an assistant coach in the collegiate ranks. He began his coaching career on the defensive line at Louisiana Tech in 1965. When an assistant's job fell through at Florida State in 1966, Johnson spent the year as an assistant coach at Picayune High School in Mississippi.

He resumed his college coaching career one year later in 1967 as Wichita State's defensive line coach. In 1968 he became a 25-year-old defensive coordinator when Johnny Majors, an Arkansas assistant when Johnson played there, brought him to Iowa State.

After two years at Iowa State, Johnson moved to Chuck Fairbanks' Oklahoma staff (1970-72) as defensive line coach. He returned to Arkansas in 1973 for a four-year tenure as his alma mater's defensive coordinator under his college coach, Frank Broyles.

In 1977, Johnson went to Pittsburgh as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator, directing one of college football's all-time great defenses for two years. Johnson's 14-year career as an assistant came to an end in 1979 when he took over the rebuilding mission at Oklahoma State.

Johnson also proved to be as successful in his two years in the broadcast booth as he was on the football field. While an analyst for FOX, Johnson was named as one of five finalists for the 1995 Sports Emmy Award for outstanding analysis, covering broadcasters from every sport who served as game color commentators or studio analysts.

A native Texan, James William Johnson was born on July 16, 1943 in Port Arthur, on Texas' Gulf Coast, where he earned all-state football honors at Jefferson High School as a two-way lineman.

Despite his relatively small size, Johnson became an All-Southwest Conference defensive lineman at Arkansas and helped lead the Razorbacks to the 1964 national championship. A three-year letterman, Johnson was named to Arkansas' All-Decade Team of the 1960s. He graduated from Arkansas with a degree in psychology. The State of Arkansas honored Johnson for his accomplishments on both the collegiate and professional levels by inducting him into the State's Hall of Fame on February 20, 1998. He was also honored for his accomplishments by his alma mater, being inducted into the University of Arkansas Hall of Fame on October 8, 1999.

In addition to Johnson's responsibilities with the Dolphins, he also is involved with charitable activities in South Florida. He serves as the Chairman of the Miami Dolphins Fishing Tournament, which benefits the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. He also heads the Jimmy Johnson "I Have a Dream" Foundation Golf Classic at Williams Island, which raises funds to encourage inner city children to remain in school by offering tutoring and other academic services.

Johnson and his wife Rhonda (married 7/17/99) reside in Miami, Florida. He has two sons, Brent, an attorney, and Chad, an account executive for Paine Webber.

JOHNSON'S NFL MILESTONES

Miami Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson built one of the most successful coaching records in football during his tenure with the Dallas Cowboys from 1989-93 and with the Dolphins starting in 1996. With the Cowboys, he guided the team to a pair of Super Bowl titles (SBs XXVII and XXVIII), with his first title coming just three seasons after the franchise produced a 1-15 mark in 1989. As the Dolphins head coach, he guided the club into the AFC Divisional Playoff round in just his third season with the team.

JOHNSON IN THE 1990s

Miami Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson has been one of the NFL's most successful head coaches during the 1990s. Thus far in the decade, Johnson is one of only two coaches (along with Denver's Mike Shanahan) to win a pair of Super Bowls (XXVII and XXVIII with Dallas) and his regular season winning percentage of .625 is the eighth best in the league during the 1990s (minimum 50 games coached).

In addition, during his tenure with the Cowboys, Johnson posted an overall record of 20-4 (.833) in December and January in the 1990s. Overall with the Cowboys and the Dolphins, Johnson has a mark of 26-12 (.684) in December and January this decade.

EDDIE J. JONES

President/Chief Operating Officer

College: Louisiana State

NFL: 32nd Season

Dolphins: 12th Season

Born: June 18, 1938

Eddie J. Jones, in his 32nd season in the NFL, was named as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Dolphins on January 16, 1996, after previously serving as the team's Executive Vice President and General Manager (1990-95) and as Vice President of Administration and Finance (1988-89). In his current capacity, Jones directs the business operation of the Dolphins and acts as the team's representative at all National Football League meetings.

During his tenure with the Dolphins, Jones has received numerous honors for his contributions to both the Dolphins organization and the South Florida community. Most recently, this past offseason, Jones, in a unanimous selection by the Dolphins players, was honored with a special courage award from the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation, which recognizes individuals in the NFL who display courage in the face of adversity.

Jones was president and chief operating officer of the New Orleans Saints from 1982-85. He currently serves on the NFL's Employee Benefits Committee and is a Trustee of the Bert Bell player pension plan.

A 1963 accounting graduate of LSU, Jones began his professional career as a CPA with Arthur Andersen & Co. He began his NFL career as business manager of the Saints in 1968.

An Air Force veteran, the Houston native and his wife, Marilyn, have three children, Wendy, Todd and Jeff, and one grandchild, Connor.

BRYAN J. WIEDMEIER

Vice President - Administration

College: Carroll

NFL: 19th Season

Dolphins: 19th Season

Born: October 19, 1959

Now in his 19th season with the Dolphins, Bryan Wiedmeier was named as the club's Vice President - Administration in March of 1995, after serving as Assistant General Manager (1990-94) and holding a variety of other positions with the team since 1981.

Wiedmeier works closely with Eddie Jones in managing the club's business affairs. Wiedmeier's duties include salary cap administration, player contract negotiations, operations and legal affairs. Wiedmeier served as project coordinator for the design and construction of the club's new training facility at Nova-Southeastern University.

Wiedmeier earned his J.D. degree from the University of Miami School of Law in 1989 and is a member of the Florida Bar. He received his B.A. degree in business from Carroll College in Montana where he was a captain and three year starter at center for the football team.

A resident of Miramar, he and his wife Mary K. have five children, Lauren, Victoria, John, Danielle, and Matthew.

JILL R. STRAFACI

Vice President - Finance

College: Florida
NFL: 11th Season
Dolphins: 11th Season
Born: September 4, 1957

Beginning her 11th season with the Dolphins, Jill Strafacci assumed her current role as Vice President - Finance in 1995 after serving as Treasurer since 1990. She originally joined the Dolphins as Assistant Chief Financial Officer in October, 1989. In her current position, she oversees the financial management of the club, working closely with Eddie Jones. Her duties include all financial operations of the team, human resources and administration of the club's employee benefit plans. Strafacci also was involved in the implementation of the Miami Dolphins Foundation, established in 1995.

Before joining the Dolphins, Strafacci, a CPA, was a tax specialist with Price Waterhouse in Miami for six years, specializing in the areas of professional sports and real estate. She also worked for an accounting firm in her native Sarasota.

Strafacci graduated from the University of Florida in 1980 (accounting/finance), where she was a four-year letter-winner on the Lady Gator golf team. She resides in Miami Beach with her husband, Frank, and their sons, Trent and Tyler.

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

The Miami Dolphins Foundation was established in 1995 as the fundraising arm of the Miami Dolphins Football Team. The Dolphins, through the foundation, have made a commitment to the betterment of South Florida youth through a direct focus on, but not limited to, educational, health, social and community service issues.

The Miami Dolphins Foundation contributes, whenever possible, to charitable groups that are compatible with the philosophy of the Foundation. Resources for contributions are procured through various fundraising events throughout the year.

Further information on the Miami Dolphins Foundation is available through the Miami Dolphins Community Relations Department or by calling (954) 452-7121.

DOLPHIN FACT

In the 1991 Pro Bowl, wide receiver Mark Clayton caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Jim Kelly. He joined tight end Ferrell Edmunds, who caught a five-yard scoring toss from Dave Krieg (Seattle) in the '89 game, and Hall of Fame wide receiver Paul Warfield, who caught a 32-yard TD pass from Dolphins teammate Bob Griese in the '74 contest, as the only Dolphins players to have scored a touchdown in the all-star game.

ASSISTANT COACHES

DAVE WANNSTEDT

Assistant Head Coach

College: Pittsburgh

NFL: 11th Season

Dolphins: First Season

Born: May 21, 1952

Dave Wannstedt is entering his first season with the Dolphins after being named the team's assistant head coach by General Manager/Head Coach Jimmy Johnson on January 14, 1999. Wannstedt comes to Miami after spending the last six years as head coach with the Chicago Bears. In 1999, Wannstedt rejoins Johnson, with whom he has worked for 13 of his 24 years in the coaching profession. Although this is Wannstedt's initial season with the Dolphins, it is the second time that he has been a member of Miami's staff. Before the start of the 1989 season, he was the club's linebackers coach for seven weeks prior to being tabbed by Johnson as defensive coordinator with the Dallas Cowboys.

The Cowboys job marked Wannstedt's first in the NFL. In Dallas, Wannstedt took over a defense that had ranked 20th in the NFL the year prior to his arrival. By 1992, the Cowboys led the league in total defense as they went on to capture the first of their two straight Super Bowl titles.

Wannstedt took over the head coaching position with the Bears in 1993, and in his second year, he led Chicago to a 9-7 record and the team's first playoff win since the 1990 season as they advanced to the Divisional round. In that 1994 playoff victory, the Bears defeated the NFC Central Division champion Minnesota Vikings at the Metrodome, the first road playoff win by Chicago since 1984. Wannstedt was named NFC Coach of the Year following the '94 season.

Wannstedt started his coaching career in 1975 as defensive line coach at the University of Pittsburgh. Johnson joined the Panthers' staff in 1977, and in 1979, Wannstedt followed Johnson to Oklahoma State, where Johnson had taken the head coaching position. Wannstedt served as defensive line coach with the Cowboys for the 1979-80 seasons before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 1981, a spot he held for two seasons. He moved on to USC in 1983 and was the Trojans' defensive line coach for the next three years. In 1986, Wannstedt took over as defensive coordinator at the University of Miami (Fla.), again under Johnson. In his three seasons in that post (1986-88), the Hurricanes' defense held opponents to a 2.2-yard average per carry, yielded an average of 10.9 points per game and averaged 48 sacks a season. At Miami, Wannstedt's defenses produced 11 players who were drafted by the NFL, including five in the first two rounds.

Wannstedt is a native of Pittsburgh, where he attended Baldwin High School. He went on to play at the University of Pittsburgh, and lettered three seasons (1971-73) with the Panthers as an offensive lineman. He was team captain his senior year of 1973, a club which featured future Heisman Trophy winning running back Tony Dorsett, then a freshman at Pitt. Following his collegiate career, Wannstedt was selected by Green Bay in the 15th round of the 1974 NFL Draft. He spent the '74 season on the Packers' injured reserve list with a neck injury.

Born May 21, 1952, Wannstedt and his wife, Jan, have two daughters, Keri (22) and Jami (18).

DOUG BLEVINS

Kicking

College: East Tennessee State

NFL: Third Season

Dolphins: Third Season

Born: August 3, 1963

Doug Blevins enters his third season with the Dolphins after being named kicking coach by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson on June 3, 1997. In his role, Blevins works with the Dolphins' placekickers.

In Blevins' first year with the Dolphins, kicker Olindo Mare converted 77.8% of his field goals, seventh best in the AFC. Mare's 28 field goals and 117 points were the most-ever by a Dolphins rookie or first-year player. His field goal total tied for the third-most in club history, while his point output tied for the fourth-most. Overall, in his two seasons with the Dolphins, Mare has connected on 50 of 63 field goals. That percentage of 79.4-percent is the highest in club history entering 1999 (minimum 50 attempts).

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Blevins served as kicking coordinator for the World League from 1995-97. He resumed his work with NFL Europe in 1999. Blevins also did consulting work with the New York Jets in 1994 and the New England Patriots in 1996.

A 1988 graduate of East Tennessee State University, Blevins started his coaching career as a student assistant in 1982 while at the University of Tennessee. He worked with the kickers for the Volunteers for two seasons before being named kicking coach at Emory & Henry College in Emory, Virginia, in 1984. He joined the staff at East Tennessee State in 1986, and served as a consultant with the kickers there through 1987, while also continuing his undergraduate work. From 1988-92, Blevins coached high school football in Virginia before starting his own kicking consulting company in 1993. He still owns the Davie, Fla., based company.

A native of Abingdon, Virginia, Blevins and his wife, Nenita, have a son, Roman Douglas (3/4/98). The family resides in Davie. Blevins was born August 3, 1963, in Abingdon, Va.

PAUL BOUDREAU

Offensive Line

College: Boston College
NFL: 13th Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: December 30, 1949

Paul Boudreau, a veteran of 12 seasons as an NFL assistant, is entering his first year with the Dolphins after being named the club's offensive line coach on January 21, 1999. He comes to Miami after two seasons in the same position with the New England Patriots.

Boudreau opened his NFL coaching career as offensive line coach with the New Orleans Saints in 1987, and served in that capacity through the 1993 season. During his stay in New Orleans, the Saints were perennially ranked among the league-leaders in fewest sacks allowed. In fact, during Boudreau's seven-year tenure, the Saints placed in the top three in the NFL in that department four times. Combined in those seven seasons, New Orleans surrendered a total of only 167 sacks (23.9 per season), third-fewest in the NFL over this stretch. In 1992, Boudreau's unit yielded just 15 sacks, the fewest in the NFL.

Following his stint with the Saints, Boudreau assumed the same spot with the Detroit Lions, where he served from 1994-96. During Boudreau's stay in Detroit, tackle Lomas Brown and center Kevin Glover were selected to the Pro Bowl. In addition, the Lions led the NFL in total offense in 1995, and running back Barry Sanders attained the 1,500-yard rushing plateau all three years.

In Boudreau's 12 previous NFL seasons, only once did the team with which he was associated have a losing record. The teams with which he has coached have qualified for the play-offs on eight occasions. In addition, his offensive lines have paved the way for a 1,000-yard rusher each of the last five seasons (Barry Sanders, 1994-96; Curtis Martin, 1997; Robert Edwards, 1998).

Prior to entering the NFL ranks, Boudreau spent four seasons (1983-86) as offensive line coach with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League. Before embarking on his professional coaching career, Boudreau made stops as a collegiate assistant at Boston College (1974-75), Maine (1976-78), Dartmouth (1979-81) and Navy (1982). He also spent one year (1973) coaching at Oxford (Mass.) High School.

A native of Arlington, Mass., Boudreau was a three-year letterman in both football and baseball at Boston College. He and his wife, Joan, have a son, Paul, who is an assistant football coach at Brown University, and a daughter, Jill. He was born on December 30, 1949 in Arlington, Mass.

KIPPY BROWN

Offensive Coordinator

College: Memphis State

NFL: Eighth Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: March 6, 1955

Kippy Brown enters his fourth season with the Dolphins and his second as the team's offensive coordinator. After serving as running backs coach his first two seasons with Miami, Brown was named to his current post by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson on February 11, 1998. He has 20 years of coaching experience, including seven in the NFL, and came to Miami after one season as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In his two years as Miami's running backs coach, Brown was instrumental in the development of running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar. In 1996, Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 1,116 yards, the third-highest single-season total in franchise history and a club rookie record. It also marked the first time since 1978 that the Dolphins produced a 1,000-yard runner.

In 1997, Abdul-Jabbar tied for the NFL lead with a club-record 15 rushing touchdowns. Last year, the Dolphins' offense made great strides over the course of the season in Brown's first year as coordinator. Over the final half of the season, the Dolphins averaged 347.4 yards of offense per game, 78.5 yards a game more than they did over the first half. They accomplished this despite the fact that three of the unit's starting offensive linemen missed at least two games due to injuries over this span.

Brown joined the Bucs after two seasons as assistant head coach/wide receivers at the University of Tennessee, his second stint at the school. Prior to re-joining the Volunteers, Brown coached the running backs for the New York Jets from 1990-92. In 1991, the Jets ranked fifth in the NFL in rushing and Brad Baxter led all AFC runners in touchdowns.

From 1983-89, Brown was the receivers coach at Tennessee under head coach Johnny Majors after spending the 1982 season as receivers coach at the University of Louisville, where he coached future Dolphins wide receiver Mark Clayton. While at Tennessee, Brown tutored future NFL receivers Anthony Miller, Tim McGee, Alvin Harper, and Carl Pickens. He began his coaching career at Memphis State University as running backs coach in 1978, before handling the wide receivers in 1979 and 1980.

Brown played collegiately at Memphis State, where he quarterbacked the Tigers from 1975-77 and was known for his strong arm and scrambling ability. His top collegiate moment came in 1975 when he led Memphis State to a 31-20 upset victory over sixth-ranked Auburn.

Brown and his wife, Deon, have two children, Jerome (1/8/75) and Jennifer (7/28/80), and live in Plantation. He was born on March 6, 1955, in Sweetwater, Tenn.

JOEL COLLIER

Running Backs

College: Northern Colorado

NFL: Tenth Season

Dolphins: Sixth Season

Born: December 25, 1963

Joel Collier enters his sixth season with the Dolphins and his second as running backs coach, having been named to the position on February 11, 1998.

In Collier's first season in his current post, the Dolphins were one of only four teams in the AFC to place two running backs among the conference's top twenty rushing leaders. Karim Abdul-Jabbar ranked 12th with 960 yards, while John Avery was 18th with 503 yards. Avery's total also was the third-most among NFL rookies in 1998.

As a defensive assistant with the Dolphins from 1994-97, Collier assisted defensive coordinator George Hill in coaching the linebackers and in the overall football operation. In 1997, Collier worked extensively with rookie linebacker Derrick Rodgers, a third-round draft choice who garnered several all-rookie accolades, including Sports Illustrated's Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Collier joined the Dolphins after having worked three seasons (1991-93) in various capacities with the New England Patriots. He served in the pro scouting department in 1993 and worked as assistant running backs and wide receivers coach from 1991-92.

Collier joined the Patriots after serving as an offensive assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers during 1990. Prior to his experience with the Bucs, Collier worked two years with the quarterbacks and running backs as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University.

A three-year starter at inside linebacker at Northern Colorado, Collier was a three-time academic All-North Central Conference performer. He received his bachelor's degree in social science education.

Collier, the son of former Bills head coach and longtime Broncos defensive coordinator Joe Collier, is married to Shirley Ann. The couple has one son, Jeremy Grayson (4/16/96) and they live in Plantation. He was born on December 25, 1963, in Buffalo, N.Y.

DOLPHIN FACT

In regular season action, the Dolphins were 9-3 in 1998 on natural grass (7-1 at home and 2-2 on the road) and 1-3 on artificial turf (all on the road). Since 1980 (regular season games only), the Dolphins are 133-64-1 (.674) on grass — 103-43-1 (.704) at home and 30-21 (.588) on the road. On turf over the same period of time, the Dolphins are 47-51 (.480).

Twelve of Miami's 16 games in 1999 will be played on natural grass. The Dolphins' only games on artificial turf are on October 10 at Indianapolis, November 14 at Buffalo, November 25 at Dallas and December 12 at the N.Y. Jets.

ROBERT FORD

Wide Receivers

College: Houston

NFL: Ninth Season

Dolphins: Second Season

Born: June 21, 1951

Robert Ford enters his ninth season as an NFL assistant and his second with the Dolphins. He was named the team's wide receivers coach on February 11, 1998 by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson.

In Ford's first season in Miami, wide receiver O.J. McDuffie led the NFL with a club-record 90 receptions. McDuffie became the first Dolphin ever to lead the league in receiving. In addition, Ford was instrumental in the development of both Oronde Gadsden and Lamar Thomas. Gadsden, whose only professional experience prior to last year was the Arena League, finished second on the team with 48 receptions for 713 yards and seven touchdowns. Thomas had the best season of his six-year NFL career with 43 catches for 603 yards and five touchdowns.

Ford joined Dallas in 1991 and during his seven seasons tutoring the club's tight ends, Jay Novacek was voted to the Pro Bowl five times (1991-95). From 1991-95, Novacek recorded 280 receptions, more than any other NFL tight end during this five-year span. Before joining Dallas on a full-time basis, Ford spent the summer of 1990 with the Cowboys as part of the club's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ford spent sixteen seasons as an assistant at both the high school and collegiate levels. He began his coaching career in 1973 at Saginaw (Michigan) High School. He embarked on his collegiate tenure the following year, tutoring the wide receivers at Western Illinois where he spent 1974-76. That was followed by stops at New Mexico (1977-79), Oregon State (1980-81) and Mississippi State (1982-83). His first pro job came as receivers coach with the Houston Gamblers of the USFL in 1985. Ford returned to the collegiate ranks where he held posts at Kansas (1986), Texas Tech (1987-88) and Texas A&M (1989-90) preceding his NFL stint.

A native of Belton, Texas, Ford earned his degree in education from the University of Houston and his master's in athletic administration from Western Illinois. At Houston, where he played wide receiver from 1970-72, Ford led the Cougars in receiving, punt returns and kick-off returns in his final season, when he earned third-team All-America accolades. He is the only player in NCAA history to account for two 99-yard receptions. Born June 21, 1951 in Belton, Ford and his wife, Janice, have two sons, Bobby and Jason. The family resides in Pembroke Pines.

JOHN GAMBLE

Strength and Conditioning

College: Hampton Institute

NFL: Sixth Season

Dolphins: Sixth Season

Born: June 26, 1957

John Gamble enters his sixth season with the Dolphins as strength and conditioning coach, having been named to the position on March 16, 1994. Gamble has the primary responsibility in the area of strength and conditioning for the club.

In his position, Gamble is responsible for the organization and implementation of the programs for the team's overall conditioning development. Brad Roll, the club's assistant strength coach, assists Gamble with the implementation of the programs and his interaction with the Dolphins' training and medical staffs. Gamble was named by the Professional Strength Coaches Society as its 1998 Coach of the Year.

Gamble joined the Dolphins after having served ten years (1984-93) as the head strength coach at the University of Virginia. He also served two seasons as assistant strength coach (1982-83) and one year on a part-time basis (1981) at Virginia. He was named 1985 Strength Coach of the Year by the National Strength and Conditioning Association. At Virginia, Gamble helped develop such future NFL stars as Jim Dombrowski, Jeff Lageman, Herman Moore and Ray Roberts.

Gamble served an eight-year stint as state director for the National Strength and Conditioning Association and was named Outstanding State Director for Region II in 1984.

A world renowned powerlifter, Gamble was the number-one ranked powerlifter in the world in the 275-pound class from 1981 to 1983. His personal records for total pounds in three lifts while competing in the United States Powerlifting Federation was 2,270 pounds, and he has personal bests of full squat, 892 lbs.; bench press, 573 lbs., and dead lift, 826.5 lbs. in those three elements. Gamble was inducted into the U.S. Weightlifting Hall of Fame in York, Pa. in June of 1999.

Gamble played linebacker at Hampton Institute and was selected first-team Black College All-America. He also earned All-Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association honors in football and in track and field.

Married to Sharon, the couple has three sons, John Nathan, III (12/16/87), Austin Craig (9/27/90) and Tucker Scott (9/19/95) and they live in Ft. Lauderdale. He was born on June 26, 1957, in Richmond, Va.

The Dolphins owned a mark of 6-4 (6-1 at home and 0-3 on the road) in 1998 in games where the attendance was greater than 70,000. Overall since the club's inception in 1966, the Dolphins have a 79-53 (.599) record in games where the attendance was greater than 70,000— 58-23 (.716) at home, 22-28 (.440) on the road and 1-2 (.333) in Super Bowls.

CARY GODETTE

Defensive Line

College: East Carolina
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season
Born: March 20, 1954

Cary Godette is in his fourth season with the Dolphins, being named defensive line coach on January 17, 1996, by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson. Godette joined the club following one season in the same position with the Carolina Panthers.

Under Godette's guidance, Tim Bowens and Daryl Gardener have developed into one of the finest tackle tandems in the NFL. Bowens was voted to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl last year, the first Dolphins defensive lineman to earn that honor since Jeff Cross in 1990. Veteran defensive end Trace Armstrong has recorded two of the three-highest sack totals of his nine-year career over the last three seasons, while Jason Taylor is emerging as one of the better pass rushers in the NFL. In addition, defensive end Lorenzo Bromell posted eight sacks in 1998, tying a Dolphins rookie record and tied for the most by an NFL rookie last season.

Before joining the Panthers, Godette coached the outside linebackers at North Carolina State in 1994 after two seasons as defensive line coach at Georgia Tech, where he helped defensive standout Coleman Rudolph earn first-team All-America honors.

His coaching career began at East Carolina in 1977, where he spent three seasons as defensive ends coach. After his stint at East Carolina, Godette coached the linebackers at Wyoming (1980-82) before moving on to the University of Cincinnati for the 1983 season. He spent six seasons at Cincinnati and coached the linebackers, tight ends and defensive line for the Bearcats before returning to East Carolina for the 1990 and '91 campaigns.

Godette took part in the NFL's minority coaching program for the Dallas Cowboys while Johnson was head coach of the club.

He had a distinguished playing career as a defensive end at East Carolina from 1972-76, as his Pirate teams compiled a 32-12 record and won three Southern Conference championships. Godette earned third-team All-America honors as a senior during the 1976 season.

In 1998, Godette was inducted into the East Carolina University Hall of Fame.

Godette and his wife, Ruby, reside in Plantation. He was born on March 20, 1954, in New Bern, N.C.

Entering 1999, there are eight NFL teams which have never beaten the Dolphins in a regular-season game in Miami. The Dolphins are 3-0 vs. Arizona, 5-0 vs. Denver, 3-0 vs. Detroit, 5-0 vs. Green Bay, 0-0 vs. New Orleans, 4-0 vs. Philadelphia, 1-0 vs. Tampa Bay and 3-0 vs. Washington. Baltimore, Carolina and Jacksonville all have yet to play a regular season game in Miami. The Dolphins play host to Arizona and Philadelphia in 1999.

GEORGE HILL

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

College: Denison
NFL: 21st Season
Dolphins: 11th Season
Born: April 28, 1933

George Hill is entering his 11th season with the Dolphins and his fourth as defensive coordinator after being named to the post by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson. Hill spent his first seven years with the Dolphins as linebackers coach and retains those duties along with his defensive coordinator title.

Under Hill's tutelage the Dolphins produced a Defensive Rookie of the Year award winner at linebacker in each of his first two seasons as coordinator – Zach Thomas in 1996 and Derrick Rodgers in 1997. In addition, the Dolphins' defense has forced 99 turnovers during the last three years, third-most in the AFC and sixth in the NFL over this span. In 1998, Hill oversaw a defense which allowed an NFL-low 265 points and recorded two shutouts. It marked the second time in Hill's coaching career that he has been a coordinator of a defense that led the NFL in fewest points allowed (also, Indianapolis in 1987). The Dolphins also ranked third in the NFL in total defense last year, yielding an average of only 277.2 yards a game. Their ranking was the highest by a Miami defense since it attained a number-one mark in 1982.

Before originally coming to the Dolphins on March 1, 1989, Hill spent the previous four seasons (1985-88) as defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts. While with the Colts, Hill's coaching helped earn Indianapolis respect around the league for that team's defense and in 1987, the Colts allowed just 238 points, the fewest in the NFL.

Prior to his stint with the Colts, Hill spent six seasons (1979-84) as the linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Hill originally joined the Dallas Cowboys staff on February 13, 1989, as Tom Landry's defensive coordinator, but left the Cowboys to join the Dolphins following Landry's departure.

Before joining the Eagles, Hill was part of Woody Hayes' staff at Ohio State for eight seasons (1971-78) as defensive coordinator, and during that time, the Buckeyes won six consecutive Big Ten Championships and made four Rose Bowl appearances. He also was the defensive coordinator at Duke from 1966 through 1970 and served as defensive coordinator at Cornell (1965), Denison University (1960-64), and Findlay (Ohio) College (1959). Before beginning his coaching career, Hill was a four-year letterman at Denison (1951-57).

Hill was born on April 28, 1933 in Bay Village, Ohio, and now lives in Plantation with his wife, Cloyde (married 6/16/56). They have two children, Greg (11/4/64) and Tammy (2/26/69).

PAT JONES

Tight Ends

College: Arkansas
NFL: Fifth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season
Born: November 4, 1947

Pat Jones begins his fourth season as the Dolphins' tight ends coach after being named to the position by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson on January 17, 1996. It is Jones' fifth year in the NFL after spending 1995 with the Chicago Bears as a special assistant with the offensive line. Prior to joining the Bears, he spent 11 seasons as head coach at Oklahoma State University (1984-94) and 22 years at the collegiate level. Overall, he has been in the profession for 31 years.

In the three seasons that Jones has coached the Dolphins' tight ends, Troy Drayton has emerged as one of the top tight ends in the NFL. In 1997, Drayton was second on the team with 39 receptions for 558 yards and four touchdowns. Drayton's receiving yardage total marked a career-high. His second place finish among Dolphins receivers was the highest ranking by a tight end since Keith Jackson also placed second on the team in 1992. Last year, Drayton was fourth on the club with 30 receptions for 334 yards and three touchdowns. Drayton has finished among the club's top five receivers each of the last three seasons, the first Dolphins tight end to accomplish this feat since Ferrell Edmunds did it from 1988-90.

Jones led Oklahoma State to a 62-60-3 record during his tenure in Stillwater and was at the helm during the school's only 10-win seasons (1984, 1987 and 1988) in its football history. He led the Cowboys to four bowl games (1984 and 1985 Gator Bowl, 1987 Sun Bowl and 1988 Holiday Bowl) with three victories during his 11 seasons. Jones finished as the school's all-time winningest coach and 11th-most successful coach all-time in Big Eight history. He was twice named Big Eight Coach of the Year (1984 and 1992) and was National Coach of the Year by Football Yearbook in 1984.

Jones coached nine All-Americans at OSU, including Thurman Thomas, Hart Lee Dykes, Leslie O'Neal, and Barry Sanders. Dykes ended his career as the all-time leading receiver in Big Eight history, O'Neal was a Lombardi Award finalist in 1985, and Sanders won the Heisman Trophy in 1988.

Jones became Oklahoma State's head football coach when Jimmy Johnson left to become head coach at the University of Miami in 1984 and he was promoted from assistant head coach/defensive coordinator. Jones' inaugural season at OSU saw the Cowboys achieve its highest national ranking (second in the UPI poll and third in the AP ratings) prior to a regular-season finale against Oklahoma for the Big Eight title. The Cowboys finished the season with ten wins and a final ranking of fifth in UPI and sixth in AP. Jones' ten wins was just the third time in conference history that a rookie head coach had achieved that milestone, joining Oklahoma's Barry Switzer and Colorado's Chuck Fairbanks. In addition, his Cowboys teams finished three other seasons ranked in the Top 20 with finishes of 17th in 1985, 11th in 1987 and 11th in 1988. During his tenure at OSU, Jones also coached in the 1986 Japan Bowl, the 1988 Hula Bowl, and the 1992 Blue-Gray Game.

Jones began his coaching career in the Little Rock (Ark.) public schools in 1969 before moving on to the collegiate level as assistant defensive line coach at Arkansas under then-defensive coordinator Johnson (1974-75). He also made stops as defensive ends coach at Southern Methodist (1976-77), defensive ends coach at Pittsburgh with Johnson in 1978, and defensive ends coach/defensive coordinator at Oklahoma State (1979-83), before taking the head coaching position at OSU in 1984.

A native of Little Rock, Ark., Jones played collegiately at Arkansas Tech in 1965 before transferring to Arkansas for 1966-67 as a walk-on linebacker and nose guard.

Jones lives in Ft. Lauderdale and was born on November 4, 1947, in Memphis, Tenn.

BILL LEWIS

Defensive Nickel Package

College: East Stroudsburg St.

NFL: Fourth Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: August 5, 1941

Bill Lewis is in his fourth season with the Dolphins after being named defense nickel package coach on January 17, 1996, by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson. Lewis joined the NFL coaching ranks after 32 years (1963-94) of coaching at the collegiate level. He teams with Mel Phillips in tutoring the Dolphins' defensive backs.

He spent 1995 as athletic director at The Marist School in Atlanta after three seasons as head coach at Georgia Tech University from 1992-94. Prior to his stint at Georgia Tech, Lewis served as head coach at East Carolina for three seasons (1989-91), during which time he led the Pirates to an 11-1 record and a victory in the Peach Bowl over North Carolina State following the 1991 season. At the conclusion of the '91 campaign, Lewis received National Coach of the Year honors from A.F.C.A., UPI and Scripps-Howard.

Lewis began his coaching career at East Stroudsburg (Pa.) State in 1963 and made stops as defensive backs coach at Pittsburgh (1966-68), Wake Forest (1969-70), Georgia Tech (1971-72) and Arkansas (1973-76). He became head coach at Wyoming in 1977 and spent three years at the helm of the Cowboys. He began a nine-year stint at the University of Georgia in 1980 as defensive backs coach before occupying the job of defensive coordinator in his last eight seasons with the Bulldogs.

While in Athens, the Bulldogs won the 1980 National Championship and during his nine years at the school, Georgia appeared in nine straight bowl games and won three Southeastern Conference titles. He coached 23 All-SEC honorees and seven All-Americans.

Lewis was a four-year letterman at quarterback at East Stroudsburg (Pa.) State from 1959-62 and earned Little All-America honors during his playing days. In addition, Lewis spent two years in the Detroit Tigers' minor league system as a pitcher.

He and his wife, Sandy, reside in Ft. Lauderdale, and have two sons, Mark (7/17/67) and Geoff (2/17/72), and two daughters-in-law, Lisa and Laurel. Lewis was born on August 5, 1941, in Bristol, Pa.

RICH McGEORGE

Offensive Line

College: Elon
NFL: Seventh Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: September 14, 1948

Rich McGeorge enters his seventh season with the Dolphins. He originally joined the club on June 1, 1993, as assistant offensive line and tight ends coach. From 1996-98, he was the team's assistant offensive line coach. In his current role, McGeorge will work with Paul Boudreau in coaching the team's offensive line.

McGeorge joined the Dolphins following three seasons as offensive line coach at the University of Florida. During his tenure with the Gators, his offensive lines produced a total of four selections to the first-team All-Southeastern Conference team. In 1991, McGeorge's offensive line permitted just 16 quarterback sacks despite attempting a conference-high 390 passes.

He joined the Gators in January, 1990, following three seasons (1987-89) as offensive line coach at Duke University. McGeorge began his coaching career at Duke from 1981-82 as tight ends coach. Following stints as tight ends/wide receivers coach with the Birmingham Stallions of the United States Football League from 1983-84 and offensive line coach of the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits in 1985, McGeorge returned to Duke as offensive line coach.

A member of the NAIA Hall of Fame, McGeorge played tight end at Elon College (1966-69) and was a first-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1970. A member of the Packers from 1970-78, McGeorge caught 175 career passes during his nine pro seasons and was the club's Offensive Player of the Year in 1973.

Married to Bonnie, the couple has two sons, Randy (27) and Jason (25), and they live in Plantation. McGeorge was born September 14, 1948, in Roanoke, Va.

MEL PHILLIPS

Secondary

College: North Carolina A&T
NFL: 20th Season
Dolphins: 15th Season
Born: January 6, 1942

Mel Phillips enters his 15th season as a coach for the Dolphins, teaming with Bill Lewis in coaching the secondary for the fourth consecutive year. During his first 12 years with the club, Phillips was defensive backs coach.

Under Phillips, Dolphins defensive backs have had a knack for coming up with the big play, having returned seven interceptions or fumbles for touchdowns over the last four years. In Phillips' 14 previous seasons, the team's defensive backs have brought back a total of 18 interceptions or fumbles for touchdowns. As a team, Miami registered an NFL-high 29 interceptions last season, the second-most in team history, trailing only the 32 from 1978. In addition last year, cornerbacks Terrell Buckley and Sam Madison each recorded eight interceptions, tying for second in the NFL. Their 16 combined interceptions were the most by a tandem from the same team in the NFL in 1998, and were the most-ever by a Dolphins tandem in club history.

Before coming to Miami in 1985, the 57-year-old Phillips previously held the same position for five seasons with the Detroit Lions (1980-84). In Detroit, Phillips was on a staff that also included current Dolphins quarterbacks coach Larry Seiple.

Phillips, a native of Shelby, N.C., played 12 seasons for the San Francisco 49ers (1966-77), including eight as a starter at strong safety. A tenacious hitter during his playing days, his career statistics include ten interceptions for 106 return yards (including a 35-yard TD in 1970). Phillips twice won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, symbolic of the team's most valuable player. Following his retirement from the 49ers, Phillips worked for the city of San Francisco's juvenile probation department until joining the Lions.

Collegiately, Phillips attended North Carolina A&T, where he played both ways as a defensive back and a running back. As a senior, he rushed for 648 yards and 11 touchdowns on 100 carries, and also caught 19 passes for 277 yards and four scores. That season (1965), A&T won the conference championship and Phillips intercepted two passes and rushed for two TDs in the title game. Phillips also lettered for the swimming and track teams at A&T.

Mel and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Paulette (6/4/67) and Yvette (5/9/73) and live in Miami Lakes. He was born on January 6, 1942, in Shelby, N.C.

BRAD ROLL

Assistant Strength and Conditioning

College: Stephen F. Austin

NFL: Seventh Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: July 4, 1958

Brad Roll is in his fourth season with the Dolphins after being named assistant strength and conditioning coach on March 1, 1996, by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson. Roll joined the club after three seasons in the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Roll joined the Bucs as strength and conditioning coach in 1993 and was instrumental in helping to develop and implement the club's offseason conditioning program. He went to Tampa Bay after spending the 1989-92 seasons in a similar capacity at the University of Miami. While at UM, the team won the national championship in 1989 and 1991, and Roll worked with players such as Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland, Warren Sapp and Leon Searcy.

Prior to his arrival at Miami, Roll was the strength and conditioning coach at the University of Kansas from 1987-88, and while at the school, he worked closely with KU's 1988 national championship basketball team. From 1981-86, Roll served as the first full-time strength and conditioning coach at the University of Southwestern Louisiana and he was a graduate assistant at Stephen F. Austin, his alma mater, in 1980.

Roll played collegiately at Blinn (Texas) Junior College and Stephen F. Austin, where he was a center. He holds a bachelor's and a master's degree in education. He also studied at the Moscow (Russia) Sports Institute during the summers of 1985 and 1986, as well as with the German Olympic weightlifting coaching and training staff in Leipzig in 1987.

He lives in Ft. Lauderdale and was born on July 4, 1958, in Houston, Texas.

LARRY SEIPLE

Quarterbacks

College: Kentucky

NFL: 19th Season

Dolphins: 12th Season

Born: February 14, 1945

Larry Seiple begins his 12th season as a member of the Dolphins coaching staff and his second as the team's quarterbacks coach. He tutored the club's wide receivers each of his first ten seasons on the staff. Seiple was named to his current post by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson on February 11, 1998. He also spent 11 seasons in Miami as a player and re-joined the team in February, 1988, as receivers coach.

Since Seiple joined the Dolphins' staff in 1988, he has coached two Pro Bowl performers in Mark Clayton (1988, 1991) and Irving Fryar (1993-94). Last year, Seiple's first as the team's quarterbacks coach, Dan Marino finished in the top three in the AFC in pass attempts (537), completions (310), yards (3,497) and touchdown passes (23).

Seiple, an Allentown, Pa., native, brought seven years of experience as an NFL receivers coach to Miami. He formerly served as receivers coach with the Detroit Lions (1980-84) and then moved on to Tampa Bay, where he was receivers coach from 1985-86. While in Detroit, Seiple was on a staff that also included current Miami secondary coach Mel Phillips.

Seiple began his coaching career at the University of Miami under another former Dolphins assistant, Howard Schnellenberger. Seiple was with the Hurricanes during the 1979 season.

Seiple's playing career with the Dolphins spanned 11 seasons (1967-77) after he made the team as a seventh-round draft choice out of Kentucky. He played in 149 regular season games for Miami (11th-most in team history) as a punter, tight end, wide receiver and running back. Seiple finished his career with 72 receptions for 935 yards (13.0 average) and seven touchdowns. His best season came in 1969 when he led the Dolphins in receiving with 41 catches for 577 yards (14.1 average) and five touchdowns. He also had 16 carries for 159 yards in his career. He was a member of both Miami Super Bowl championship teams, including the 1972 club which went 17-0, the only team in NFL history to go through an entire season unbeaten and untied.

Seiple still holds the Dolphins record for most career punts (633) and his career punting average (40.0 yards) is fourth-best in team history. Seiple's most memorable exploit as a Dolphin came against Pittsburgh in the 1972 AFC Championship game when his 37-yard run on fourth down from punt formation set up Miami's first touchdown in a 21-17 victory.

He and his wife, Trudy, have three children, Keri Lyn (6/10/67), Larry (7/10/69) and Lori Ann (11/26/71) and they live in Pembroke Pines. They have one grandson, Austyn (11/1/93). Seiple was born on February 14, 1945, in Allentown, Pa.

RANDY SHANNON

Defensive Assistant

College: Miami (Fla.)
NFL: Second Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: February 24, 1966

Randy Shannon begins his second season as an NFL coach following a seven-year stint as an assistant at the collegiate level. He was named as a defensive assistant by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson on February 11, 1998.

The 33-year old Shannon played for Miami during his career at the University of Miami (Fla.), where he played linebacker from 1985-88. He started at strongside linebacker each of his final two years, and was a member of the Hurricanes' 1987 National Championship team. Shannon also was the recipient of the Christopher Plumer Award as Miami's most inspirational player his senior season.

Following his collegiate career, Shannon re-joined Johnson as the 11th-round draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys in 1989. In his rookie season he played in all 16 games, starting four of them, and registered 50 tackles. He became the first Cowboys rookie to start a game at outside linebacker since 1963. He also finished second on the team with 14 special teams tackles. Shannon played with Dallas through the 1990 season.

After two years in the NFL, Shannon was named as a graduate assistant at the University of Miami in 1991, where he worked with the linebackers and special teams. He split time with the linebackers and defensive line on a full-time basis the following year, prior to being named linebackers coach in 1993.

A native of Miami, Shannon earned his degree in criminal justice from UM. He was an all-state linebacker at Norland High School in Miami, where he also performed on the school's basketball team. Shannon, who was born on February 24, 1966 in Miami.

MIKE WESTHOFF

Special Teams

College: Wichita State
NFL: 17th Season
Dolphins: 14th Season
Born: January 10, 1948

Mike Westhoff begins his 17th NFL season and 14th as Dolphins special teams coach. Westhoff came to Miami after spending a year as offensive line coach of the Arizona Outlaws of the United States Football League in 1985 and three seasons with the Indianapolis/Baltimore Colts where he served as offensive line, tight ends and special teams coach from 1982-84.

Under Westhoff, the Dolphins' special teams units have consistently ranked among the best in the NFL. His punt and kickoff coverage units combined rankings over the past three years are the best in the AFC over this span. In 1998, the Dolphins led the NFL in blocked field goals, while Shane Burton held the NFL individual lead. In addition, Terrell Buckley finished sixth in the NFL in punt returns last year, while rookie John Avery was eighth in the league in kickoff return average.

During his coaching career, Westhoff has been associated with some of the NFL's premier kickers and punters, including Rohn Stark (Colts, 1982-84), Reggie Roby (Miami, 1986-92), Raul Allegre (Colts, 1983-84), Dean Biasucci (Colts, 1984), Fuad Reveiz (Miami, 1986-88) and Pete Stoyanovich (Miami, 1989-95).

Westhoff began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Indiana University, where he earned a master's degree in educational psychology in 1974. He was named as a full-time coach at IU in 1975 before becoming offensive line coach at Dayton in 1976. Following that, he coached the defensive line and linebackers at Indiana State in 1977. His final two stops at the collegiate level were as offensive line coach at Northwestern (1978-80) and Texas Christian (1981).

Westhoff began his collegiate playing days at Wyoming in 1965, where he was a starting outside linebacker as a freshman. He then transferred to Wichita State, where he was a three-year starter at linebacker and center. He was voted the team's Most Valuable Player as a junior and served as team captain as a senior. He graduated from Wichita State in 1970 with a degree in history.

In 1989, the Dolphins players honored Westhoff's off-the-field courage by awarding him special recognition with the NFL's Ed Block Courage Award. As a coach, Westhoff has faced many battles both on and off the field, but none can compare to his battle with bone cancer. Throughout his treatments, Westhoff continued to coach with the Dolphins and for his courage and determination, the players saluted him with the Ed Block Courage Award.

Westhoff and his wife, Marilyn, live in Plantation. They have one son, John Thomas (4/27/81), who is in his freshman year at the University of Pennsylvania, where he is a member of the school's football team. Westhoff was born on January 10, 1948, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

FOOTBALL STAFF

BOB ACKLES

Director of Football Operations

NFL: 14th Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: September 16, 1938

On January 24, 1996, the Miami Dolphins named Bob Ackles as Director of Football Operations. Ackles re-joined Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson, having worked with Johnson previously in Dallas where he helped lay the foundation that would result in back-to-back Super Bowl wins by the Cowboys. In his current capacity with the Dolphins, Ackles is involved in all aspects of the team's football administration, including contract negotiations, player personnel and scouting operations on both the professional and collegiate levels.

Ackles, one of the most widely respected executives in the National Football League, joined the Dolphins from the Philadelphia Eagles, where he served as Director of Football Administration in 1995. He spent the three previous seasons in the Arizona Cardinals' front office, first as that club's Director of College Scouting from 1992-93 and then as Assistant General Manager in 1994.

Ackles first joined the NFL ranks in 1986 when he was named as the Cowboys' first-ever Vice President of Pro Personnel. Three years later, with the arrival of Johnson as Head Coach in Dallas, Ackles was promoted to Vice President of Player Personnel and helped begin the Cowboys' dramatic resurgence as an NFL power. His efforts to acquire talent through several trades, waiver acquisitions, and Plan B free agency provided an infusion of top draft picks and players. Those efforts were rewarded in 1991 when, following an 11-5 regular season, Dallas earned a berth in the playoffs, setting the stage for the first of their consecutive Super Bowl wins the following season.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ackles spent 11 years as General Manager of the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions. Under his leadership, the Lions became one of the winningest teams in the CFL, moved into a new stadium, and built a training facility. In his last season with B.C., the Lions won the Grey Cup, the CFL's equivalent of the Super Bowl.

Ackles first joined B.C. as a water boy at the age of 15 and over the next 34 years, performed virtually every administrative duty in the organization from equipment manager to general manager. He was recognized for his outstanding contributions to the CFL in 1986 when he was presented with the Schenley Award, becoming the first non-player in league history to receive that award, which symbolizes excellence in football in Canada.

A native Canadian, Ackles was born in Sarnia, Ontario, near the United States border. Raised in Toronto and Vancouver, British Columbia, he played organized football and hockey (goalie), and later coached two years of high school football in Vancouver.

Bob and his wife, Kay, reside in Ft. Lauderdale. They have two married sons, Steve (37), and Scott (34), and three grandchildren, Robert (17), and twins Ashley and Kyle (14).

TOM HECKERT

Director of Pro Personnel

College: Youngstown State

NFL: 18th Season

Dolphins: 11th Season

Born: September 18, 1938

Beginning his 11th season with the Dolphins, Tom Heckert was named as the club's Director of Pro Personnel prior to the start of the 1996 season. He originally joined the Dolphins in 1989 as Director of College Scouting. In his current capacity, Heckert's main responsibility is in the evaluation of talent on the professional level in addition to other overlapping duties.

During Heckert's three years as Director of College Scouting, the Dolphins used the draft to add such players as Richmond Webb, Keith Sims, Bryan Cox, Troy Vincent, Marco Coleman, and Dwight Hollier to their roster. In fact, those three drafts produced seven starters, three Pro Bowl selections (Cox, Sims, and Webb) and two Rookie of the Year selections (Coleman and Webb). In Heckert's six seasons in pro personnel, the Dolphins added such players as Keith Jackson, Irving Fryar, Ron Heller, Trace Armstrong, Terrell Buckley, Troy Drayton, Brock Marion, Mark Dixon and Kevin Donnalley.

Heckert has a varied background in football, including spending seven years as a college scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Cleveland Browns. He also has both administrative and coaching experience on the collegiate level as well.

Heckert joined the Dolphins after serving two years (1987-88) as a national scout for the Buccaneers. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1987, he spent the previous five seasons (1982-86) as the Midwest area scout for the Browns. He also was involved in personnel and advance scouting in the NFL during his tenure with the Browns.

A 1961 graduate of Youngstown (Ohio) State, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Fitch High School in Youngstown in 1961 before a two-year hitch as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Army. He returned to Fitch where he stayed through 1965 prior to enrolling as a graduate assistant at Kent State, where he earned a master's degree in education. He served as Head Coach at Maumee (Ohio) High School in 1967 and 1968 and then moved up to the college ranks as an assistant at Adrian (Michigan) College from 1969-72. He was named Head Coach at Adrian in 1973 and Athletic Director in 1977, where he remained until joining the Browns in 1982. His overall record as a Head Coach at Adrian was 43-36-2. His last three teams there were a combined 23-3-1, including a 9-0 season in 1980.

Heckert and his wife, Rose (married 12/29/62), have two children, Kim and Tom, Jr., and five grandchildren. Tom, Jr. is Assistant Director of Pro Personnel/College Scout for the Dolphins.

TOM BRAATZ

Director of College Scouting

College: Marquette

NFL: 35th Season

Dolphins: Eighth Season

Born: May 12, 1933

Tom Braatz was named as the Dolphins' Director of College Scouting on June 12, 1992. He is responsible for the scouting of college players and Miami's preparation for the NFL draft, and in that role, he works closely with Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson, and the rest of the team's football staff. In the past six years, he has played a key role in the selection of a number of players who made an immediate impact as rookies, including the 1994 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, defensive lineman Tim Bowens, wide receiver O.J. McDuffie, linebacker Zach Thomas, running backs Karim Abdul-Jabbar and Stanley Pritchett, defensive linemen Daryl Gardener and Jason Taylor, linebacker Derrick Rodgers and cornerback Sam Madison, and last season, defensive linemen Kenny Mixon and Lorenzo Bromell, cornerback Patrick Surtain and running back/kick returner John Avery.

Braatz joined the Dolphins with a wealth of NFL experience and is regarded as one of the leading personnel experts in professional football. He is a veteran of 35 years in the NFL as a front office executive, personnel director, and talent scout with the Atlanta Falcons, the Green Bay Packers, and the Dolphins.

From 1987 through 1991, Braatz served as Executive Vice President of Football Operations for the Packers, where his duties included the hiring and managing of the scouting staff, conducting the college draft, handling trades and waivers, and conducting contract negotiations with players.

Before joining the Packers on January 31, 1987, Braatz was a member of the Atlanta Falcons front office since the club's inception in 1965. He joined the team as an area scout, and went on to hold a number of positions with the Falcons, including Director of Player Personnel, Director of Scouting, and General Manager. While in Atlanta, Braatz' principal responsibility was overseeing the draft, where he was responsible for bringing a number of Pro Bowl players to the Falcons including William Andrews, Gerald Riggs, Mike Kenn, Bill Fralic, and Steve Bartkowski. He also handled most of the club's contract negotiations in the later years of his tenure with the Falcons.

Before beginning his executive career in the NFL, Braatz played with the Washington Redskins as a linebacker and closed out his pro career under Tom Landry with the Dallas Cowboys in their charter 1960 season. He played collegiately at Marquette University, where he captained the school's football team as a senior.

Braatz, 66, and his wife, Jeri, have two sons, Tommy, 36, and Jon, 32.

MIKE CARTWRIGHT

College Scout

College: Wyoming

NFL: 21st Season

Dolphins: 17th Season

Born: February 12, 1946

The responsibilities of scouting the western states fall on the shoulders of Mike Cartwright. In his 17th Dolphins season, Cartwright came to the Miami organization from the BLESTO scouting combine. He worked for BLESTO from 1979-82, first as an area scout before being promoted to regional scout.

Cartwright's initial scouting position was with the San Francisco 49ers working for Pro-Line. Prior to that, he was head coach and athletic director at St. Mary's School in Cheyenne, Wyoming, for three years before serving the same tenure as head football coach at Cheyenne East High School. Also a former teacher, Cartwright earned a B.S. in physical education and biological science from the University of Wyoming in 1970.

Mike and his wife, Mary (married 9/25/74), live in Cheyenne with their son Jeremy (4/25/77) and Mike's two sons by a previous marriage, Chad (12/12/64) and Brad (12/30/68).

TOM HECKERT, JR.

Assistant Director of Pro Personnel/College Scout

College: Hillsdale
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Ninth Season
Born: July 17, 1967

Beginning his ninth season with the Dolphins, Tom Heckert, Jr. has worked in both pro and college personnel during his tenure with the club. This season, Heckert will be evaluating pro players who become available through roster cuts, as well as evaluating players available during the unrestricted and restricted free agency periods. Heckert also will have the responsibility for scouting college players in the southeast area of the country.

Heckert, 32, joined the Dolphins after serving two years as an assistant coach at Hillsdale College in Michigan. Heckert was a defensive back for Hillsdale College and was a member of their National Championship team in 1985.

Heckert and his wife, Kathy, reside in Weston. They have a son, Griffin (four), and a daughter Madison (two).

RON LABADIE

College Scout

College: Adrian
NFL: Tenth Season
Dolphins: Tenth Season
Born: April 7, 1949

Beginning his tenth year with the Dolphins as a college scout, Ron Labadie concentrates his duties on college athletics in the midwestern states.

Labadie, 50, joined the Dolphins after serving as head football coach and athletic director at Adrian College. A 1971 graduate of Adrian, Labadie returned to the school as head football coach in 1982. Through his eight seasons as head coach of the Bulldogs, he posted a 53-20 (.730) collegiate record. He guided the Bulldogs to MIAA Championships in 1983, 1988 and '89 as well as leading his team to NCAA Division III playoff berths in 1983 and 1988. He was given the additional responsibilities of Director of Athletics for Men in May, 1985.

Before returning to Adrian, Labadie served as head football coach at Marshall High School (1974-81), compiling a 42-30 overall record, including a 39-15 mark over his last six years. Under Labadie, Marshall captured Twin Valley Conference Championships in 1976 and '77.

A native of Paw Paw, Michigan, Labadie earned the school's most valuable player award three times (1968-70) and was named captain of the 1969 and '70 teams. He earned first team All-MIAA honors and led the conference with 10 touchdowns in five MIAA games as a senior. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1981.

Labadie and his wife, Marilyn, have three children, Lisa (24), Brad (21) and Ben (17).

JEFF SMITH

College Scout

College: Washington State

NFL: 20th Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: May 20, 1947

Beginning his fourth season with the Dolphins, Jeff Smith is responsible for scouting the central states for the team.

Smith joined the Dolphins on May 21, 1996, from the Philadelphia Eagles, where he spent the 1995 season working with current Dolphins Director of Football Operations Bob Ackles as a national scout, responsible for evaluating draft-eligible players throughout the country.

Smith spent the previous two seasons (1993-94) with Denver as the Broncos' Director of College Scouting. In that role, he coordinated all phases of the Broncos' college scouting operation. Before that, he was a member of the Cowboys' scouting department from 1984-92, working with Ackles and current Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson.

Smith first entered the NFL ranks in 1980 when he became a full-time scout with the Seattle Seahawks after spending the previous four seasons grading film on a part-time basis for Seattle while coaching full-time at Mercer Island (Wash.) High School. He began his coaching career at South Mercer (Wash.) Junior High School in 1970.

After two years as an offensive tackle at Washington State, Smith transferred to the University of Hawaii. He later returned to WSU, where he earned his degree in science education and mathematics.

Smith was born in Williamsport, Pa., and grew up in Clarkston, Wash., where he attended Clarkston High School. He and his wife, Ann Bixby, reside in the Dallas area.

JERE STRIPLING

College Scout

College: Murray State

NFL: 12th Season

Dolphins: Tenth Season

Born: August 24, 1935

Entering his 12th season as an NFL college scout, Jere Stripling begins his tenth season with the Dolphins. Stripling's responsibilities with Miami include serving as the club's BLESTO scout as well as scouting the south central states.

Stripling joined the Dolphins after serving the previous two years (1988-89) as an area scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, with his primary concentration on the southeastern states. Prior to joining the Bucs in 1988, he served two years (1986-87) as one of four national scouts for Canadian IX (the Canadian Football League's official scouting service), with his responsibilities focusing on the southeastern colleges in the United States.

A native of Newbern, Tenn., Stripling spent eight seasons (1978-85) as offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Northeast Louisiana University. He also served as the school's recruiting coordinator. Under Stripling, the Indians set season records for most yards passing, most yards in total offense and most points scored. In 1983, the Indians ranked sixth nationally in Division I-AA rushing offense.

A 1958 graduate of Murray State, Stripling began his coaching career right after graduation by serving as an assistant coach at Union City (Tenn.) High School. In 1960, he became head coach at Bartlett (Tenn.) High School, and in 1965 he moved to Dyersburg (Tenn.) High School. After his third and final season at Dyersburg, he and his aides were selected as the conference's "Coaching Staff of the Year."

Stripling played quarterback at the University of Tennessee for one year before transferring to Murray State for his final three years. He served as team captain, was named as the school's most valuable player and earned all-conference recognition as a senior.

Stripling and his wife, Corinne, have two children, David (39) and Susan (37).

KEVIN O'NEILL

Head Athletic Trainer

College: Pittsburgh

NFL: 11th Season

Dolphins: Fourth Season

Born: August 2, 1954

Kevin O'Neill joined the Dolphins on March 1, 1996, as Head Athletic Trainer after serving seven seasons in a similar capacity with the Dallas Cowboys. Along with Ryan Vermillion and Troy Maurer, O'Neill is responsible for the day-to-day treatment of injured Dolphins players in coordination with the club's medical staff. He also has other specific administrative duties as assigned by Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson.

O'Neill re-joined Johnson with the Dolphins in 1996, having worked with him previously in Dallas and at the University of Miami. During his tenure in Dallas (1989-95), O'Neill was part of three Cowboys Super Bowl wins. He also was a member of Johnson's University of Miami National Championship club during his four years (1985-88) as Head Athletic Trainer at the school.

A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, O'Neill earned his master's degree in physical education from the University of Arizona while serving as athletic trainer for Catalina High School in Tucson, Ariz. O'Neill spent three years as the head athletic trainer at Oregon State, and one year at the University of Central Florida before joining the University of Miami.

A native of Pittsburgh, O'Neill and his wife, Anne, have two children, McKenzie and Kaitlyn, and live in Fort Lauderdale.

RYAN VERMILLION

Director of Rehabilitation/Associate Athletic Trainer

College: Miami (Fla.)

NFL: Eighth Season

Dolphins: Eighth Season

Born: May 24, 1963

Ryan Vermillion, who joined the Dolphins' training staff on April 10, 1992, serves as the club's Director of Rehabilitation and Associate Athletic Trainer. He is responsible for the day-to-day rehabilitative needs of the team as well as many of the overall programs designed to maintain the team's health and welfare.

Vermillion served as the club's Physical Therapist in 1991, where he helped supervise the rehabilitation program for many of the team's injured players along with the Dolphins' medical staff. Vermillion also spent six seasons (1986-91) as the Physical Therapist for the University of Miami and was based at Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables. Before that, he spent three seasons as a volunteer trainer for the Hurricanes.

Vermillion, 36, received his degree in Physical Therapy from Miami in 1987 and has been certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association. He and his wife Margaret (7/27/91) live in Coral Springs with their children – Erin, Riley, and Ryan, Jr.

TONY EGUES

Equipment Manager

College: St. Thomas
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: Eighth Season
Born: December 22, 1969

Tony Egues begins his fifth year as Dolphins equipment manager after serving in a number of positions in his three previous seasons with the club. Egues is responsible for issuing and ordering all playing equipment for the team. In addition, Egues, along with assistants Charlie Thiele and Joe Cimino, coordinates the transport of the club's equipment to and from each road site, including an American Bowl game in Mexico City in 1997.

The 29-year old Egues began his career with the Dolphins on a part-time basis as an equipment assistant, then joined the club full-time in 1992 as an administrative assistant to the coaching staff. He was named as assistant equipment manager in 1994 and then was promoted to his current position prior to the start of the 1995 season. Egues also was elected by NFL Properties the past two years to serve on their Pro Line advisory board.

The past offseason, Egues had a role in the movie, "Any Given Sunday" and served as Technical Advisor for the film.

Egues, and his wife, Lissette, reside in Pembroke Pines.

DAVID HACK

Video Director

College: Miami (Fla.)
NFL: 26th Season
Dolphins: 26th Season
Born: July 16, 1952

David Hack begins his 15th season with the Dolphins as the club's video director after having served 11 seasons as an assistant in the department. Hack and his assistant, Robert Hack, have the responsibility for providing the coaching and player personnel staffs with their audio/visual needs. They videotape all practices and games and maintain an extensive tape and film library.

During his 25 years with the Dolphins, Hack has shot two Super Bowls and also coordinated the team's video operations on international trips to London, Berlin, Tokyo and Mexico City. He and Robert have also been selected by the NFL to shoot numerous college bowl and all star games, including the Orange Bowl, CarQuest Bowl and Senior Bowl All-Star games. In addition, Hack serves as the AFC East representative to the NFL Video Director's quality control committee.

Hack and his wife of 24 years, Connie, reside in Pembroke Pines and have two children, Heather (20) and Brett (17).

Mascot

Born: 4/18/97

College: Atlantis '97

Acquired: FA, 1997

NFL: Third Season • Dolphins: Third Season

The Miami Dolphins' 1997 addition might have been their biggest – literally. The club unveiled "T.D.", its new mascot, on Friday, April 18, 1997, the first "official" mascot in the history of the franchise. The 7-foot tall mascot made its public debut at the team's Draft Day Party at Pro Player Stadium on April 19, 1997. In addition, the mascot performs at every Dolphins home game.

When the mascot was first unveiled, it was without a name. The club held a "Name the Mascot" contest that drew over 13,000 entries covering all 50 states and 22 countries, with 529 different names suggested. The name "T.D." was first submitted by Sara Fernandez of Miami, and when that name was selected by the Dolphins organization, she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII for her winning entry, which was announced at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

The club had a live dolphin, "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl during the team's early years, and "Dolfin Denny," who has prowled the sidelines for many seasons, including 1998. However, this marks the first time the club actually has an official mascot, one who participates in many of the team's programs in addition to his game-day activities.

"T.D." is available for appearances. For more information, call the Dolphins mascot hotline at (954) 452-7097.

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

MIAMI DOLPHINS CHEERLEADERS

The Miami Dolphins inaugural season in 1966 also marked the beginning of cheerleaders on the sidelines at Dolphins home games. Besides bringing spirit and entertainment to the sidelines, the Miami Dolphins Cheerleaders also perform and appear at special events, grand openings, state and county fairs, and various other sporting events. The cheerleaders are closely involved in the community and donate their time to many charitable and civic organizations.

The 1999 Miami Dolphins Cheerleaders range in age from 18-28 and include a civil trial lawyer, an on-air radio personality, elementary and high school teachers, an interior designer, graduate and undergraduate students, and a full-time mother. This diverse squad includes ladies from across the United States, Argentina, Cuba, the Dominican Republic, Honduras, and Singapore.

PRO PLAYER STADIUM

Pro Player Stadium, South Florida's home to the Miami Dolphins and Florida Marlins, is in its 13th season as the premier sports and entertainment facility in the country. This state-of-the-art open-air complex hosted its first football game in August, 1987, its first regular season Major League baseball game in April, 1993 and stages world class events throughout the calendar year. Pro Player Stadium is one of only eight facilities in the country to host NFL football and Major League Baseball in the same venue.

HISTORY

Now in its 13th year of operation, the 75,000 seat, state-of-the-art, open-air facility, originally called Dolphin Stadium, was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing 115 million dollars when it was completed in 1987. The late Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium" for the Miami Dolphins of the NFL. JRS revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a Club Level, along with Executive Suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket holders committed to long term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility which is still used as a model for new facilities across the country.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On January 24, 1994, Mr. Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100% ownership. Since 1991, over 80 million dollars have been spent to upgrade and renovate the stadium. The improvement and revitalization of the building under Huizenga allowed the stadium to remain the finest sports and entertainment facility in the United States.

On August 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. This industry leader, which specializes in licensed sports apparel, became the first sports marketing and products company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten year absence. A second Super Bowl was hosted when Super Bowl XXIX was played in the facility on January 29, 1995, and the Super Bowl returned to Pro Player Stadium on January 31, 1999, when the facility hosted Super Bowl XXXIII.

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Pro Player Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers.

In 1997, Pro Player Stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and the Cleveland Indians, including Game One on Oct. 18, 1997, the first Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game Seven on October 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to thirteen spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Behind the scenes, Pro Player Stadium underwent renovations to accommodate Major League Baseball and the Florida Marlins. The conversion included the installation of retractable seating on the north side of the stadium, the construction of the baseball press box in the southwest corner of the facility, the building of the baseball dugouts, the addition of 660 new lights for suitable night play and the installation of a hydraulic disappearing pitcher's mound. The stadium also features a synthetic warning track designed to absorb water. At the time, the only other facility to feature this type of track was Oriole Park at Camden Yards, home of the Baltimore Orioles. The renovation also included the construction of the Florida Marlins clubhouse and other amenities to accommodate baseball at Pro Player Stadium.

On the field, Pro Player Stadium is equipped with a Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system which provides draining for its natural grass, and during February and March of 1995, the old PAT system was removed, and a new advanced mechanical drainage system was installed. At a cost of one million dollars, the new system provides three times the drainage capacity of the old system and ensures a firm dry playing surface within half an hour's time after as much as a three inch per hour rain fall.

LOCATION

The stadium is located at 2269 N.W. 199th St. in Miami, only one mile south of the Dade-Broward County Line. The 160 acre site stands midway between downtown Miami (16 miles) and downtown Fort Lauderdale (18 miles).

WORLD CLASS EVENTS

Pro Player Stadium displays its versatility every year by hosting a wide variety of events. Along with Miami Dolphins football and Florida Marlins baseball, college football takes the field with the FedEx Orange Bowl (which played host to the national championship game in 1998 and will again in 2001) and the Micron P.C. Bowl. Super Bowl XXXIII was held at Pro Player Stadium on January 31, 1999. Major League Baseball's premier event, the World Series, was played at Pro Player Stadium in 1997.

Pro Player Stadium has also played host to numerous concerts, featuring entertainers such as Pink Floyd, Elton John/Billy Joel, the Rolling Stones, Chicago, Genesis, Gloria Estefan, Guns & Roses, The Who, Hall & Oates, Rod Stewart, Paul McCartney, New Kids on the Block, the Three Tenors World Tour and U2.

Other events held in the past at Pro Player Stadium include international soccer games featuring the United States World Cup Team, high school football, and numerous trade shows.

EXECUTIVE SUITES

Pro Player Stadium's 188 suites offer luxury and comfort in the ultimate setting to watch any event. The ten, twelve, sixteen, twenty four and thirty two seat suites have been completely renovated and offer DirecTV access, multi-feed sound systems, refrigerators, ice-makers and private telephone services. Uniformed Suite Captains provide personal service in each suite during the events. The Levy Restaurants of Chicago cater the suites with a delectable, wide-variety of food and beverages from which to choose. During Dolphins season, a unique feature which is broadcast on one of the stadium's closed circuit channels is the "Coach's Cam." A field camera dedicated to Head Coach Jimmy Johnson gives suiteholders a bird's-eye view of the coach as he calls the plays.

CLUB LEVEL SEATING

Located on the second level, the 10,200 club level seats provide exceptional luxury with the most space and leg room available in the stadium, featuring seats 21" wide (compared to the 19" wide general seating). The Club Seats lead to air-conditioned lounges with full-service bars and concession areas. The protective overhang and ventilation system, along with wait-staff service also are unique elements of the club level.

HALL OF CHAMPIONS

Pro Player Stadium was proud to introduce the new Hall of Champions during the 1997 Miami Dolphins season. Located in the east endzone area of the Club Level, the Hall of Champions allows groups of 50 to 270 to experience a Miami Dolphins football or Florida Marlins baseball game in style. In addition to club level amenities and entertainment, the Hall of Champions offers interior and exterior seating, a full bar with bartender, a private elevator and many other exclusive privileges.

DINING

Full service concession facilities are available on the 100 and 400 levels. Theme areas by Levy Restaurant and Fine Host Corporation include Bru's Wings, Premo's Subs and Salads, Domino's Pizza, Carvel Ice Cream and Carvel Yogurt. The stadium was recently recognized by Sports Illustrated for the high quality of its food and beverage service.

VISIONS FOR THE FUTURE

Pro Player Stadium will continue to enhance the fan experience by its commitment to capital improvements. These continuing upgrades and renovations will heighten the guest experience by providing increased comfort, new amenities and better service.

DOLPHINS TRAINING CENTER

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova-Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University.

The ten million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 70,000 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel and the club's administrative staff, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs as well.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a therapy swimming pool, a cold plunge pool, whirlpools, and one of the largest weight training rooms in the NFL.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include lounges, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings, and a dance studio for the team's cheerleaders.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coaches' office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields, which were constructed utilizing the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system that also is used for the field at Pro Player Stadium. That system incorporates underground pipes and electronic pumps to remove water from the fields when natural drainage is not adequate.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Pro Player Stadium itself. When the stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of seats from the stadium were removed. Those sections were relocated to the Nova facility as part of the new complex. As a result, the bleacher facility at Nova can accommodate 2,000 spectators, including 600 in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and other special events. The structure also provides fans permanent amenities such as concession areas, a merchandise pro shop, ticket windows, and rest rooms.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN 1999

MIAMI DOLPHINS...

- Need one more win for the 300th regular season victory in franchise history. Miami enters 1999 with a composite record of 299-193-4.

RB KARIM ABDUL-JABBAR...

- If he leads the team in rushing, would become just the second player in club history to lead the team in rushing four straight seasons. Larry Csonka did it from 1970-74.
- With 2,968 career rushing yards, he stands in the fifth spot on the team's all-time list. With 576 more yards, he would overtake Tony Nathan (3,543) for fourth. With 677 more yards, he would surpass Jim Klick (3,644) for third. With 910 more yards, he would move past Mercury Morris (3,877) for second.
- With 860 career rush attempts, stands third all-time in Dolphin annals. With 138 more attempts, he would overtake Jim Kiick (997) for second.
- His nine 100-yard rushing games are third all-time. With two more, he would surpass Mercury Morris (10) for second, and with seven more, he would move past Larry Csonka (15) for first.
- With a 1,000-yard rushing season, would become just the second Dolphin to reach that mark in two different seasons. Larry Csonka put together three 1,000 yard rushing seasons (1971-73). Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 1,116 yards in his rookie season of 1996.

DE TRACE ARMSTRONG...

- With 32.5 career sacks as a Dolphin, Armstrong is ninth on the Dolphins' all-time chart. With three more, he would surpass Manny Fernandez (35.0) for eighth. With 6.5 more, he would overtake A.J. Duhe (38.5) for seventh. With 7.5 more, he would move past Bob Baumhower (39.5) and Kim Bokamper (39.5) into fifth.

DT TIM BOWENS...

- Can extend his consecutive games played and started streak of 78.

CB TERRELL BUCKLEY...

- With 19 career interceptions as a Dolphin, stands in the ninth spot on the team's all-time list. With four more he would surpass Curtis Johnson (22) and Tim Foley (22) for seventh. With five more, he would overtake Gerald Small (23) for sixth. With six more, he would move past Louis Oliver (24) and William Judson (24) into fourth.

TE TROY DRAYTON...

- Needs to play in eight more regular season games to attain the 100 games played mark in his NFL career. He enters 1999 having appeared in 92 regular season contests.

QB CRAIG ERICKSON...

- Needs 2,375 more passing yards to reach 10,000 in his NFL career. He has thrown for 7,625 in his seven previous NFL seasons.
- Needs nine more pass completions to reach 600 in his NFL career. He has completed 591 passes entering 1999.

DT DARYL GARDENER...

- Enters the 1999 season having started in 43 straight contests.

G KEVIN GOGAN...

- Enters the 1999 season having played in 145 consecutive league games and having started in 97 straight.

QB DAN MARINO...

- Can extend his consecutive games started streak of 41, the third-longest such streak among active NFL quarterbacks (Green Bay's Brett Favre, 109; Tampa Bay's Trent Dilfer, 64).
- Needs 1,087 more passing yards to reach the 60,000-yard mark for his career. He enters 1999 with 58,913 career passing yards.
- Needs 11 more pass attempts to attain 8,000 in his NFL career. He enters 1999 with 7,989 career pass attempts.

- Needs 237 more pass completions to reach 5,000 for his career. He enters 1999 with 4,763 career pass completions.
- Needs seven more victories to record the 149th win of his career and become the all-time winningest quarterback in NFL regular season history, surpassing John Elway's 148 wins. He enters 1999 with a starting record of 142-87 during the regular season.
- Should he lead the league in passing yards, Marino would accomplish the feat for sixth time in his career and set an NFL record for most seasons leading the NFL in that category. He led the league from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992. He currently is tied with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969) at five.
- Should he lead the league in touchdown passes, Marino would join Johnny Unitas (1957-60), Len Dawson (1962-63, 1965-66) and Steve Young (1992-94, 1998) as the only players to lead the league in that category four times. Marino has done it on three occasions (1984-86).

WR TONY MARTIN...

- With 37 more receptions, would reach the 500-catch plateau for his NFL career during the regular season. He enters 1999 with 463 receptions.
- With 913 more receiving yards, would attain 8,000 for his NFL career. He enters 1999 with 7,087 receiving yards.
- With two more touchdown catches, it would give him 50 for his NFL career. He goes into 1999 with 48 TD catches.

S BROCK MARION...

- Needs to play in 13 regular season games to attain the 100 games played mark in his NFL career. He enters 1999 having appeared in 87 regular season contests.

WR O.J. McDUFFIE...

- Enters 1999 having caught a pass in 62 consecutive games.
- If McDuffie leads the Dolphins in receiving in 1999, he would become just the second Dolphin to top the team's reception chart three or more straight seasons. Nat Moore did it six straight times (1974-79).
- With 358 career receptions, McDuffie stands fifth place on the team's all-time list. With 26 more he would move ahead of Tony Nathan (383) into fourth.
- With 4,415 career receiving yards, McDuffie is fifth on the club's all-time chart. With 120 more yards, he would surpass Duriel Harris (4,534) into fourth.
- With 27 career receiving touchdowns, McDuffie is fifth on the Dolphins' all-time list. With seven more, he would overtake Paul Warfield (33) for fourth.
- With nine career 100-yard receiving games, McDuffie is seventh on the club's all-time chart in that department. With two more, he would overtake Paul Warfield (10), Duriel Harris (10) and Irving Fryar (10) for fourth. With four more, he would surpass Nat Moore (12) for third.
- Needs to play in five more games to attain the 100 games played mark in his NFL career. He enters 1999 having appeared in 95 regular season contests.

RB BERNIE PARMALEE...

- Needs 41 more rushing yards for 2,000 in his NFL career. He enters 1999 with 1,959.
- With six career 100-yard rushing games is tied with Delvin Williams for sixth on the club's all-time chart. Needs two more to surpass Mark Higgs (seven) for fifth.

LB ZACH THOMAS...

- If he leads the team in tackles, Thomas would become just the third Dolphin to lead the team in tackles four or more straight seasons. Nick Buoniconti did it five consecutive seasons (1969-73), while Bryan Cox accomplished the feat four straight times (1992-95).
- With an interception return for a touchdown, Thomas would establish the club's all-time mark in that category. His three returns for scores currently are tied with Dick Anderson for the most in franchise history.

T RICHMOND WEBB...

- Has played in 135 regular season games in his career. If he appears in all 16 games in 1999, Webb would tie Bruce Hardy (151) for 10th on the Dolphins' all-time list for games played.

DOLPHINS ARE BEST

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins are the winningest team in professional football. The Dolphins, who own a regular season record of 284-154-2 (.648) and an overall mark of 302-170-2 (.639), have the best regular-season and overall winning percentage of any NFL team during that span.

DOLPHIN FACT

Despite having 127 players selected to appear in the Pro Bowl since 1970, the Dolphins have never had a cornerback play in the post-season all-star contest. Offensive guard is the position which Miami has been represented at most often (19 times, led by Bob Kuechenberg's six appearances). Surprisingly, despite the high number of appearances by the rest of the offensive line (also, 12 by centers), Dolphins offensive tackles have played in the Pro Bowl on only ten occasions (Richmond Webb, seven times; Norm Evans, twice and Wayne Moore, once).

DOLPHIN FACT

Since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, a total of 127 Dolphins players have been selected to appear in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. Over the course of those 29 seasons, 87 offensive players, 36 defensive players and four special teams players have been chosen. The only seasons since 1970 that the Dolphins did not have a player selected to the Pro Bowl were 1980 and 1997.

PRO CAREER

1998 – Started all 15 games in which he played ... Led the team in rushing with 960 yards and six touchdowns on 270 attempts ... Marked the third straight year in which he led the club in rushing, the first Dolphin to achieve that feat since Mark Higgs did it from 1991-93, and just the third overall (Larry Csonka, 1970-74) ... Is the only Dolphin to lead the club in rushing in each of his first three NFL seasons ... Overall, led Miami in rushing on ten occasions ... Rushing total ranked 12th in the AFC ... Also caught 21 passes for 102 yards on the year ... Abdul-Jabbar's 2,968 rushing yards over the last three years is the third-most by a Dolphin in three straight seasons:

MOST RUSHING YARDS BY A DOLPHIN IN THREE STRAIGHT SEASONS

3. KARIM ABDUL-JABBAR	1,116 (1996)	892 (1997)	960 (1998)	2,968

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES: Abdul-Jabbar reached the 100-yard plateau three times in 1998, and the Dolphins emerged victorious in all three contests ... He ran for 108 yards and a touchdown on 23 attempts in Miami's season-opening win at Indianapolis (9/6) ... Two weeks later, he duplicated that with 108 yards and a TD on 33 carries in the Dolphins' 21-0 triumph over Pittsburgh (9/20) ... The Steelers game marked the eighth 100-yard rushing effort of his career, moving him past Mark Higgs into fourth in team history ... He rushed for a season-high 127 yards and a TD on 25 carries in a 13-9 win at Carolina (11/15) ... The Panthers contest was the ninth 100-yard rushing performance of his career, surpassing Benny Malone into third on the club's all-time chart ... In his career, Abdul-Jabbar now has rushed for at least 100 yards in a game nine times, third-most in Dolphins history trailing only Larry Csonka (15) and Mercury Morris (10) ... The Dolphins are 8-1 when Abdul-Jabbar attains the 100-yard rushing plateau ... The only Miami loss when Abdul-Jabbar gained over 100 yards occurred in a 42-23 loss at New England on November 3, 1996 ... Abdul-Jabbar's other career 100-yard rushing games include: 103 yards on Nov. 9, 1997 vs. N.Y. Jets; 108 yards on Oct. 19, 1997 at Baltimore; 152 yards on Dec. 22, 1996 at N.Y. Jets; 104 yards on Nov. 3, 1996 at New England; 124 yards on Sept. 15, 1996 vs. N.Y. Jets; 115 yards on Sept. 1, 1996 vs. New England.

TOTAL YARDS FROM SCRIMMAGE: Abdul-Jabbar registered 1,062 total yards from scrimmage in 1998, 19th in the AFC ... In his three-year career, he now has amassed 3,470 total yards from scrimmage.

FIRST DOWNS: In 1998, Abdul-Jabbar accumulated 46 total first downs (43 rushing, three receiving) ... In his three-year career, he has recorded 190 total first downs.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS - AT INDIANAPOLIS (SEPT. 6): Opened the season with 108 yards and a TD on 23 attempts, marking the seventh 100-yard rushing game of his career, tying him with Mark Higgs for fourth-most in Dolphins history ... Also had one reception for 10 yards ... Touchdown came on a four-yard run ... It was the second time in his three NFL seasons that he opened the year with a 100-yard rushing performance ... Had a long run of 16 yards in the game ...

VS. BUFFALO (SEPT. 13): Amassed a team-high 75 yards on 18 attempts, including a long run of 26 yards, tied for the fourth-longest run of his career to that point ... 66 yards of his rushing total came in the second half ... In the process, he surpassed Benny Malone into eighth on the Dolphins' career rushing list ...

VS. PITTSBURGH (SEPT. 20): Matched his total from the season-opener with 108 yards and a touchdown on a career-high 33 carries ... Touchdown came on a three-yard run ... It was the eighth 100-yard rushing effort of his career, tying him with Benny Malone for third on the Dolphins' all-time chart ... The 33 attempts tied for the most in Dolphins' history, along with Larry Csonka's total from Super Bowl VIII on January 13, 1974 against Minnesota ... It was the most by a Dolphin in a regular season game, surpassing the previous high of 31, established by Mercury Morris on October 5, 1975 at Green Bay ... In the contest, Abdul-Jabbar also moved past Andra Franklin into seventh on the team's career rushing list ... His rushing touchdown was the 28th of his career, tying him with Jim Kiick for third on the club's all-time list ...

AT JACKSONVILLE (OCT. 12): In a Monday night game, led the team with 43 yards rushing on 21 attempts ... Had a one-yard scoring run, marking the 29th rushing TD of his career, tying him with Mercury Morris for second on the club's career chart ...

VS. ST. LOUIS (OCT. 18): Led club with 59 yards rushing on 17 carries, and added two catches for 12 yards ...

VS. NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 25): Led Dolphins with 56 rushing yards on 21 attempts, while also hauling in a season-high three passes for 12 yards ...

AT BUFFALO (NOV. 1): Topped team with 97 yards rushing on 22 attempts, including a one-yard touchdown run ... Also had two catches for nine yards ... The scoring run was the 30th of his career, moving him past Mercury Morris into sole spot of second on the Dolphins' all-time list ... It was the 31st overall touchdown of his career, tying him with Jim Kiick for eighth on the Dolphins' career list ... Had a 31-yard run in the game, the longest of his career to that point ...

AT CAROLINA (NOV. 15): Led club with a season-high 127 yards rushing and a touchdown on 25 carries ... Also caught one pass for two yards ... Rushing total that day is the second-highest of his career, trailing only his 152-yard performance at the N.Y. Jets on December 22, 1996 ... It also was the ninth 100-yard rushing game of his career, moving him past Benny Malone into sole possession of the third spot on the Dolphins' career chart ... Of his total, 114 came in the first half, becoming the first Dolphin to rush for 100 or more yards in a half since he did it on December 22, 1996 when he gained 102 yards in the second half at the N.Y. Jets ... In the Panthers game, he moved into fifth on the team's all-time rushing list, surpassing Delvin Williams (seventh) and Mark Higgs (sixth) ... Had a long run of 30 yards in the game, the second-longest of his career to that point ... Touchdown came on a one-yard run, and it was the 32nd overall touchdown of his career (31st rushing) ...

AT NEW ENGLAND (NOV. 23): In a Monday night contest, rushed for 10 yards and a TD on 10 carries, and caught one pass for four yards ... Touchdown came on a four-yard run in the fourth quarter, and it was the 33rd overall touchdown of his career (32nd rushing), tying him with Mercury Morris, Tony Nathan and Paul Warfield for fifth on the Dolphins' all-time list ...

VS. NEW ORLEANS (NOV. 29): Led the team with 72 yards rushing on 18 carries, while also adding two catches for ten yards ... Had a long run of 32 yards ...

AT OAKLAND (DEC. 6): Amassed a team-high 94 yards rushing on 19 attempts and had two receptions for 21 yards ... Put together runs of 45 and 40 yards in that game, the two longest of his career ...

AT ATLANTA (DEC. 27): Was inactive with a concussion sustained the previous week against Denver ... Marked the first and only game he has missed in his NFL career.

PLAYOFFS: In two playoff games following the 1998 season, including one start, Abdul-Jabbar totaled 100 yards rushing and a touchdown on 30 carries, and also caught three passes for nine yards ... Started in First-Round victory over Buffalo on January 2, 1999 when he had a personal playoff-high 95 yards rushing and a touchdown on 27 attempts ... Also caught two passes for four yards in that game ... Touchdown came on a three-yard run in the third quarter ... Had a long run of 18 yards in the contest ... Has started two of the three playoff games in which he has played during his career, and has rushed for 116 yards and a TD on 35 carries, and caught three passes for nine yards.

1997 - Played in all 16 games with 14 starts in his second NFL season ... Rushed for 892 yards and 15 touchdowns on 283 attempts, the second straight season in which he topped the Dolphins' rushing chart ... He also caught 29 passes for 261 yards and a TD ... Reception total was fourth on the squad ... He led the team in rushing on 14 occasions and in receiving once ... His 283 rush attempts are the second-most in Dolphins history, trailing only his own figure of 307 from 1996 ... He became the third Dolphin to lead the team in rushing in each of his first two seasons, following Jim Kiick (1968-69) and Sammie Smith (1989-90) ... Abdul-Jabbar's rushing total ranked tenth in the AFC, and his 1,153 total yards from scrimmage were 14th in the conference ... He led the NFL in total touchdowns (16), and tied with Denver's Terrell Davis for the league-lead in rushing touchdowns (15) ... Abdul-Jabbar's 2,008 rushing yards from 1996-97 are the third-most ever by a Dolphin in consecutive seasons, trailing only Larry Csonka, who combined for 2,168 rushing yards from 1971-72 and 2,120 yards from 1972-73 ... That total of 2,008 also is the most by a Dolphins player in his first two NFL seasons ...

TOUCHDOWNS: Abdul-Jabbar set a new Dolphins single-season record in 1997 for rushing touchdowns (15) ... His 16 total scores are the second-most in club history, trailing only Mark Clayton's total of 18 in 1984 ...

Abdul-Jabbar put together three multiple-touchdown games in 1997 . . . He had three rushing touchdowns twice in 1997: at Baltimore on October 19 and at New England on November 23 . . . With the three rushing scores, Abdul-Jabbar joined a group of eight other Dolphins who also achieved that standard a total of 13 times prior to the Baltimore game . . . Abdul-Jabbar had a stretch of five straight games in which he scored a rushing touchdown in 1997, tying a Dolphins record which he now shares with three other players . . . The streak began on November 9 against the N.Y. Jets, and lasted through the Dolphins' 33-30 victory over Detroit on December 7 . . . Abdul-Jabbar scored eight touchdowns over this five-game span, during which time the Dolphins posted a record of 4-1 . . .

FIRST DOWNS: Of his 312 total rush attempts and receptions in 1997, 74 were converted into first downs, fourth-most in the AFC and seventh in the NFL . . . In 1996, he accumulated 70 total first downs, sixth in the AFC and 12th in the NFL . . . His 144 total first downs from 1996-97 are sixth-most in the NFL during this two-year stretch:

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Started season-opener against Indianapolis (8/31) and rushed for a team-high 50 yards on 13 attempts, including a nine-yard TD run, the Dolphins' only touchdown of the afternoon in a 16-10 win . . . His 22-yard run in that game was a season-long . . . Did not start at Tampa Bay (9/21) as Dolphins opened with three wide receivers . . . Led Dolphins in rushing with 62 yards on 18 carries at N.Y. Jets (10/12), when he also added three receptions for 47 yards and a touchdown . . . Touchdown reception came on a 36-yard pass from Dan Marino, marking the longest catch of his career and his only one for a touchdown . . . Accounted for the first of his two 100-yard rushing games on the year, at Baltimore (10/19), when he ran for 108 yards on 22 carries . . . Touchdowns came on runs of five, five and six yards . . . It represented the fifth multiple touchdown game of his career, and the first time he has had three rushing scores in a game . . . His three rushing scores equaled a club single-game record, accomplished 13 times previously (including one playoff game) by eight different players, the last by Bernie Parmalee versus Detroit on December 25, 1994 . . . The three total scores tied for the third-most ever by a Dolphin, trailing only Paul Warfield (vs. Detroit, 12/15/73) and Mark Ingram (at N.Y. Jets, 11/27/94), both of whom scored four times . . . Second 100-yard rushing game occurred vs. N.Y. Jets (11/9), when he accumulated 103 yards and a pair of scores on 25 attempts. . . Had touchdown runs of four and five yards . . . Also had two catches for 19 yards . . . It represented the sixth 100-yard rushing game of his career, tying him with Delvin Williams and Bernie Parmalee for the fifth-most in team history . . . The two scores marked his sixth career multiple touchdown game. . . Rushed for 83 yards and a TD on 26 carries the following week vs. Buffalo (11/17) . . . Had another three-touchdown performance the week afterwards at New England (11/23), when he rushed for 33 yards on 18 attempts, marking the seventh multiple-TD game of his career . . . Touchdowns came on three one-yard runs . . . The three rushing scores gave him 13 for the season, eclipsing the club record of 12, which had been held by Mercury Morris (1972), Don Nottingham (1975) and Larry Csonka (1979) . . . Rushed for 85 yards and a TD on 23 attempts at Oakland (11/30), including a two-yard touchdown run, the fourth straight game in which he had a rushing touchdown . . . Extended that streak to five the week afterwards when he ran for 70 yards on 23 carries, including a one-yard scoring run, vs. Detroit (12/7) . . . In the process he tied the Dolphins record for most consecutive games with a rushing TD (five), a mark also held by Mercury Morris (games six through ten in 1972), Don Nottingham (games two through six in 1975) and Pete Johnson (games eight through 12 in 1984) . . . The touchdown against the Lions was his 26th career rushing touchdown, moving him into sole possession of fourth on the Dolphins' all-time chart . . . Tied for the team-lead in receptions in season finale vs. New England (12/22) with six for 60 yards, both career-high figures . . . Abdul-Jabbar played in the Dolphins' 17-3 First-Round Playoff loss at New England (12/28) and rushed for 16 yards on five attempts and had no receptions . . . On December 30, 1997, he underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right knee for removal of a small tear of the lateral meniscus and loose bodies, in addition to a general joint debridement.

1996 – Played in all 16 games with 14 starts as a rookie . . . Finished as team's leading rusher with 307 carries for 1,116 yards (3.6 per carry) with 11 touchdowns and a long of 29 yards and added 23 catches for 139 yards (6.0 per catch) with a long of 23 yards . . . Finished sixth in AFC and 11th in NFL in rushing yards, tied for sixth in AFC and ninth in NFL with 11 touchdowns and seventh in AFC and 16th in NFL with 1,255 total yards from scrimmage . . . Led the Dolphins in rushing 14 times . . .

AMONG DOLPHINS RUNNERS: Abdul-Jabbar's rushing output made him the first rookie and just the fourth player (sixth time overall) in Dolphins history to gain 1,000 or more yards, joining Larry Csonka (1971-73), Mercury Morris (1972) and Delvin Williams (1978) . . . Overall, his 307 carries was the highest single-season total in team history, while his 1,116 rushing yards ranked third and 11 rushing touchdowns ranked tied for fourth (now tied for fifth) at the time . . . In addition, Abdul-Jabbar set Dolphins rookie rushing records for yards and attempts and tied the team rookie record for rushing touchdowns . . . Abdul-Jabbar broke Andra Franklin's club rookie rushing records of 201 carries and 711 yards, which Franklin set in his initial season in the league in 1981, and tied Ron Davenport's rookie record of 11 rushing touchdowns:

Abdul-Jabbar's 30 carries at N.Y. Jets (12/22/96) tied for the third-highest single-game rushing attempt total in team history (now fourth) . . . It also tied the club's rookie rushing attempt record with Troy Stradford's 30 carries against the N.Y. Jets on December 7, 1987 . . . In addition, Abdul-Jabbar's 29 carries at New England (11/3/96) and 27 attempts against Buffalo (12/16/96) ranked as the third- and fourth-highest single-game rushing attempts by a Dolphins rookie . . .

AMONG NFL ROOKIE RUNNERS: Abdul-Jabbar had one of the most proficient seasons of any rookie running back in NFL history . . . In 1996, he led all NFL rookies in rushing touchdowns and finished second (behind Houston's Eddie George's 1,368 yards) in rushing yards and attempts:

PRO CAREER

1998 – Underwent surgery on March 10, 1999 for the removal of a cyst from his right leg . . . The surgery was performed by team physician Dr. John Uribe at HealthSouth Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables . . . Played in all 16 games in a reserve role in 1998 . . . Finished with 31 tackles, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble . . . Led team with 10.5 sacks for 63 yards lost, the third consecutive season in which he has topped the team's sack chart, just the second Dolphin in club history to achieve that feat . . . Jeff Cross (1989-91) was the first . . . Sack total was sixth in the AFC in 1998 . . . Turned in a two-sack effort vs. Buffalo (9/13), the 24th and 25th sacks of his Dolphin career, moving him past Marco Coleman into tenth on the team's all-time chart . . . Received a defensive game ball for his performance in the Bills game . . . Tallied a pair of stops in shutout win vs. Pittsburgh (9/20) when he was awarded a defensive game ball . . . Posted four tackles and two sacks vs. St. Louis (10/18) . . . Recorded a season-high five tackles and 2.5 sacks at Oakland (12/6) . . . Sack total in that game tied a career-high that he had achieved three times previously (twice with the Dolphins), the first time on November 21, 1993 against Kansas City as a member of the Bears . . . His output in the Raiders game also marked his third multiple sack game of the season and the fifth of his career . . . In addition, he surpassed Bryan Cox into ninth on the Dolphins' career list with 32.5 sacks . . .

AMONG SACK LEADERS: Armstrong's sack total of 10.5 was sixth in the AFC and tied for 15th in the NFL in 1998 . . . His figure also tied with Vern Den Herder (1972) and Jeff Cross (1993) for the ninth-highest total ever by a Dolphin in a season . . . Armstrong now owns two of the nine highest single-season sack totals in club history . . . In addition, his 32.5 career sacks rank ninth on the Dolphins' all-time chart:

PLAYOFFS: Armstrong appeared in both playoff contests following the 1998 season, both in a reserve capacity . . . In those two games, he had one tackle, a sack and a forced fumble . . . The sack and the forced fumble occurred on the same play, when he jarred the ball loose from Bills QB Doug Flutie when Buffalo had a first-and-goal from the five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining . . . The loose ball was recovered by Shane Burton . . . The sack preserved the Dolphins' 24-17 win over Buffalo in a First-Round game on January 9, 1999 at Pro Player Stadium . . . Overall in his career, has played in nine playoff games with six starts, including four appearances and one start with the Dolphins . . . In those nine outings, has tallied 21 tackles, six sacks and a forced fumble . . . With Miami in the postseason, has registered four tackles and a pair of sacks . . . Opened both playoff games for the Bears in 1994, and was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Week in Chicago's First-Round victory at Minnesota on January 1, 1995, when he had five tackles and two sacks . . . Had a sack and blocked field goal for the Bears in a First-Round win vs. New Orleans on January 6, 1991.

1997 – Started all 16 games at left defensive end, the third time in his career and first time since 1993 that he opened all 16 contests . . . Also started playoff contest . . . Led team in sacks for second consecutive year, with 5.5 for 45 yards, including 4.5 over the final six weeks . . . Also registered 62 tackles (39 solo), which ranked eighth on the squad . . . Recovered three fumbles, forced two fumbles and knocked down a pair of passes on the year as well . . . Recorded seven tackles, including a sack, in season opener vs. Indianapolis (8/31) . . . Tallied a season-high nine tackles vs. Chicago (10/27), when he recovered a fumble for the third straight game . . . Had six tackles and a sack vs. Buffalo (11/17), and six tackles, including a season-high 1.5 sacks, at Oakland (11/30) . . . Turned in another six-tackle effort, vs. Detroit (12/7), when he came up with a sack and a forced fumble on the same play . . . The fumble was recovered by Jason Taylor at the Lions' 18 and led to a field goal . . . Also came up with a sack in season finale vs. New England (12/22) . . . Started at left end in Dolphins' 17-3 First-Round playoff loss at New England (12/28), and registered a sack.

1996 – Played in all 16 games with nine starts . . . Finished with 37 tackles (28 solo), two fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles, one pass defended and team-high 12 sacks . . .

Posted two tackles, including 1.5 sacks at Indianapolis (9/23) . . . Had outstanding game at Buffalo (10/13) with five tackles, 2.5 sacks and a fumble recovery . . . His 2.5 sacks matched his single game career high, which he first established on November 21, 1993, at Kansas City with the Chicago Bears, and was his first multiple-sack contest since he had two sacks on September 4, 1994, against Tampa Bay with the Bears . . . In that Bills game, he recorded his 50th career sack, and became the 62nd player to reach the 50-sack milestone since the statistic became official in 1982 . . . Recorded three tackles and a sack against Dallas (10/27) . . . Registered two tackles and added a forced fumble and a fumble recovery on the same play when he tackled Jerome Bettis, forced Bettis to fumble, and then recovered that fumble against Pittsburgh (11/25) . . . Closed season strong with 6.5 sacks in final three games of season . . . Made seven tackles with 2.5 sacks (including a shared sack with Calvin Jackson) and also added a forced fumble against N.Y. Giants (12/8) . . . Had four tackles, two sacks and also added one forced fumble against Buffalo (12/16) . . . Closed regular season with fourth multiple-sack game of season with two tackles and a pair of sacks at N.Y. Jets (12/22) . . .

AMONG SACK LEADERS: Led Dolphins with a career-high 12 sacks . . . Ranked seventh in AFC and tied for 12th in NFL in sacks . . . His 12 sacks marked the highest single-season total of his career, surpassing his previous single season high of 11.5 sacks in 1993 with the Bears . . . Sack total was fifth-highest single-season total in team history and most since Bryan Cox had 14 sacks in 1992 . . . Had four multiple sack games during the season, including multi-sack games in three straight contests (each of the three last games of the year), when he totaled 6.5 sacks in those three games . . . In addition, his 12 sacks, combined with Daniel Stubbs' nine sacks, is the fifth- highest single-season sack total by a pair of Dolphins in club history:

DOLPHINS SINGLE-SEASON SACK COMBINATIONS

DOLPHIN FACT

Since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues, Miami is the only NFL team to twice open up a season with 10 or more consecutive wins. The Dolphins did it in 1972 (14 wins) and 1984 (11 wins), while five other teams have accomplished a 10 or more game season opening winning streak on one occasion — Minnesota in 1975 (10 wins), Chicago in 1985 (13 wins), N.Y. Giants in 1990 (10 wins), San Francisco in 1990 (10 wins), Washington in 1991 (11 games) and Denver in 1998 (13 games).

PRO CAREER

1998 – Started all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests at left cornerback . . . Was voted as a second alternate to AFC Pro Bowl squad . . . Also was chosen as an All-Pro by Source Sports Magazine . . . Finished seventh on the team with 54 total tackles (45 solo), was second with 20 passes defended . . . Also recovered a fumble and forced two fumbles . . . Tied for team-lead along with Sam Madison with a career-high eight interceptions . . . Interception total also tied for second in the AFC and in the NFL, trailing only New England's Ty Law, who had nine . . . In addition, ranked second in the AFC and sixth in the NFL with a 12.2-yard average on 29 punt returns . . . Average is the second-best single-season figure in club history, trailing only the 12.3 mark attained by Freddie Solomon in 1975 . . . Totaled 354 punt return yards, the third-most ever by a Dolphin in a season, trailing only Mark Clayton (392 in 1983) and Tom Vigorito (379 in 1981) . . . Has now played in 110 straight league games, including 52 consecutive starts . . . Has missed just two games in his career, none due to injury . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: Picked off a career-best eight passes in 1998, surpassing his previous career-high of six, which was established in 1996, his second season with the Dolphins. . . Buckley and Dolphins teammate Sam Madison, along with Arizona's Kwamie Lassiter, finished the season tied for second in the NFL in interceptions in 1998:

Had a pair of stops and three passes defended in win over Denver (12/21) . . .

PLAYOFFS: Started both playoff games following the 1998 season at left cornerback . . . Recorded three tackles, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble . . . Both the fumble recovery and forced fumble occurred in First-Round playoff victory over Buffalo (1/2/99), when he was credited with two tackles . . . In his career, has played in eight postseason contests, starting all of them . . . Has tallied 27 tackles, two interceptions, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble . . . With Miami in the playoffs, has played and started in four games, and amassed 16 tackles, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS: Has been cited as AFC Defensive Player of the Week twice in his career . . . He earned the honor most recently on December 7, 1997 against Detroit . . . In that game, Buckley amassed eight tackles and intercepted two Scott Mitchell passes in Miami's 33-30 win . . . He also was honored for his effort in the final week of the 1995 season, when he recorded six tackles, an interception and two passes defended against the Rams in St. Louis . . . Buckley was one of three Dolphins to earn AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors in 1997 (Shawn Wooden vs. Indianapolis, 8/31; Derrick Rodgers at N.Y. Jets, 10/12) . . . Since the award was first given out by the NFL in 1984, Buckley is one of 11 Dolphins to be named Defensive Player of the Week, and just the second to receive the accolade twice (Louis Oliver was honored in 1989 and 1992).

1997 – Started all 16 games for the second consecutive season and the fourth time in his NFL career . . . Opened 15 contests at left cornerback and one on the right side . . . Finished third on the team with a career-high 93 total tackles . . . Led club with four interceptions and 11 passes defended . . . Also recovered a fumble that he returned for a touchdown and forced a fumble . . . Returned four punts for a 14.5-yard average with a long of 26 on the season . . . Led team in tackles twice during the course of the year . . . Concluded the year with three interceptions over the final three weeks . . . Opened the season by recording five tackles and a pass defended vs. Indianapolis (8/31) . . . Came up with a pair of tackles and his first interception of the year the following week vs. Tennessee (9/7) . . . Turned in an eight-tackle effort at Green Bay (9/14) . . . Led squad with nine tackles, and added a pass defended and a forced fumble, at Baltimore (10/19) . . . Registered three tackles and a fumble recovery vs. Chicago (10/27) . . . In that game, scooped up a Ricky Proehl fumble and returned it 22 yards for a touchdown, the fourth of his career and his first via a fumble recovery . . . It marked the first return of an opponents' fumble for a touchdown by a Dolphins player since December 24, 1995 when Pat Johnson brought back a Todd Kinchen fumble 37 yards for a score against the Rams in St. Louis . . . Tallied seven tackles and two passes defended at Buffalo (11/2) . . . Had a season-high 10 tackles, in addition to a pass defended, vs. N.Y. Jets (11/9) . . . Amassed nine stops vs. Buffalo (11/17) . . . Tied for team-lead at New England (11/23) with eight tackles . . . Totaled eight tackles and a pair of interceptions vs. Detroit (12/7), and was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance in the Dolphins' 33-30 victory over the Lions . . . Marked the third time in his career he has picked off two passes in a game . . . In season finale vs. New England (12/22), registered four tackles and two passes defended, including an interception . . . Also saw punt return duty in the Patriots game, and brought back four punts for a 14.5-yard average with a long return of 26 yards . . . Started at left cornerback in Dolphins' 17-3 First-Round Playoff loss at New England (12/28) . . . Came up with four tackles and a pass defended in that game . . . Also fielded one punt that he returned 11 yards.

1996 – Started all 16 games at left cornerback . . . Finished with 54 tackles (48 solo), one fumble recovery, two forced fumbles and team leading totals of six interceptions and 17 passes defended . . . Ranked tied for third in AFC and tied for fourth in NFL with six interceptions . . . His six interceptions set his single-season career-high at the time, surpassing his former single-season best of five interceptions which he set in 1994 as a member of the Green Bay Packers, and were the most by a Dolphin since Glenn Blackwood had six interceptions in 1985 . . . Opened season against New England (9/1) with two tackles, two passes defended and an interception . . . Had two tackles, a forced fumble and two interceptions at Arizona (9/8) for his second career game with two interceptions; he also had two INTs as a member of the Green Bay Packers on December 20, 1992, against the L.A. Rams . . . Recorded five tackles and one interception against N.Y. Jets (9/15) for fourth straight game with an interception (the finale of 1995 season on December 24 at St. Louis, and each of the first three games of '96), leaving him one game shy of the Dolphins' all-time record of an interception in five consecutive games, held by Dick Westmoreland, who had at least one interception in games nine through 13 of the 1967 season . . . Had four tackles, two passes defended and an interception of Jim Kelly at Buffalo (10/13) . . . The interception came on a fourth-and-goal play with one minute remaining in regulation and the Dolphins ahead 14-7, and was returned 91 yards for a touchdown for his second touchdown off an interception in his career, with his other career touchdown off an interception coming on December 20, 1992, against the L.A. Rams as a member of the Green Bay Packers . . . In addition, Buckley's 91-yard return was the third-longest interception return in Dolphins history, surpassed only by a 96-yard return by Dick Anderson on November 24, 1968, at Boston, and Louis Oliver's club-record 103-yard return on October 4, 1992 at Buffalo . . . Posted three tackles and an interception at New England (11/3) . . . Recorded four tackles, one pass defended and one forced fumble at Oakland (12/1) . . . Closed season at N.Y. Jets (12/22) with four tackles, two passes defended and one fumble recovery.

1995 – Played in 16 regular season games with four starts and started one playoff contest . . . Acquired by Dolphins in a trade from the Green Bay Packers in exchange for past considerations on April 4, 1995 . . . Finished with 27 tackles (26 solo), one interception and seven passes defended . . . Added one kickoff return for 16 yards and one special teams tackle . . . Made Dolphins debut in a reserve role against N.Y. Jets (9/3) and recorded two tackles . . . Started final four games of the regular season . . . Made first Dolphins start against Atlanta (12/3) and posted three tackles . . . Recorded two tackles and two passes defended against Kansas City (12/11) with his second pass defended in that game coming with 1:31 remaining when he broke up a Steve Bono pass in the end zone on fourth down to preserve the Dolphins' 13-6 victory . . . Made five tackles at Buffalo (12/17) . . . DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 — 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and '89 seasons the Dolphins also set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 straight games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami also set an NFL sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

PRO CAREER

1998 – Signed with the Dolphins as a free agent on August 3 after playing with the Portland Forest Dragons of the Arena League . . . Earned a roster spot during the preseason when he led the team with nine receptions for 165 yards and one touchdown . . . Played in all 16 contests during the regular season, starting 12 of them . . . Finished second on the club with 48 receptions for 713 yards and seven touchdowns . . . Seven scores tied with O.J. McDuffie for first on the team . . . Led the team in receptions three times and in receiving yardage on four occasions . . . In 14 games with Portland prior to his arrival in Miami, caught 93 passes for 1,335 yards and 37 touchdowns . . . Added 25 tackles and three interceptions on defense, where he played linebacker . . . Was named the AFL's Rookie of the Year for 1998. . .

ROOKIE/FIRST-YEAR RECORDS: Gadsden's 48 catches tied for third among Dolphins rookie or first-year players, while his yardage total was third . . . Both figures were second among rookie or first-year wide receivers in club annals, while Gadsden's seven receiving scores eclipsed the club record for receiving touchdowns by a rookie or first-year player, surpassing the old mark of five, formerly held by Andre Brown, who attained that mark in 1989:

DOLPHIN FACT

The Miami Dolphins recorded a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 10, 1993, in the AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Dolphins became just the fifth AFC team since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues to record a shutout in the playoffs. Amazingly, Miami has recorded three of the five AFC playoff shutouts by having also earned a 14-0 win over the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983, and a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972. The only other AFC playoff shutouts were by the San Diego Chargers (17-0 over Kansas City on January 2, 1993) and the Baltimore Colts (17-0 over the Cincinnati Bengals on December 26, 1970).

PRO CAREER

1998 – Signed a one-year contract with the Dolphins as a free agent on June 10, 1998 after being released by St. Louis on June 2 . . . Signed a five-year contract on February 19, 1999 . . . Turned in what was arguably the most productive season of his NFL career in 1998 . . . Started all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests at strongside linebacker after playing middle linebacker each of his first six years in the league . . . Finished third on the club with 100 total tackles (73 solo), marking the fifth straight season and sixth time in his seven-year career that he reached the 100-tackle plateau ... Added five sacks for 22 yards in losses, two interceptions for 14 yards and a touchdown, and five passes defended ... Was named the club's Newcomer of the Year in a vote of the South Florida media ... Sack total was two more than he had accounted for in his previous six NFL seasons combined, while his interception figure was one more than he had tallied over his first six years in the league ... Also contributed ten special teams tackles during the course of the season ... Made Dolphins debut at Indianapolis (9/6) and notched seven tackles ... Was second on the club with eight stops vs. Buffalo (9/13), when he registered his first sack as a Dolphin ... Also recorded eight tackles at N.Y. Jets (10/4) ... Led team with a season-high ten tackles while also knocking away a pass, in 14-0 shutout victory vs. St. Louis (10/18) ... Was awarded a defensive game ball for his performance in that contest ... Registered eight tackles, including two sacks, in win at Carolina (11/15) as the Dolphins did not allow a touchdown on the day in the 13-9 win ... It marked the first multiple-sack game of his career ... Was awarded a defensive game ball for his efforts in the Panthers game and was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week, the first weekly accolade of his career ... Turned in spectacular effort at Oakland (12/6), when he tallied five tackles, two sacks, two interceptions and four passes defended in the Dolphins' 27-17 victory ... He returned one of his interceptions 14 yards for a touchdown for the first score of his NFL career ... It also represented the first multiple-interception game of his career ... Along with LB Zach Thomas' one-yard return for a touchdown that day, it tied the Dolphins single-game record for interception returns for touchdowns, which had been accomplished three previous times, most recently on December 16, 1983, against the N.Y. Jets ... Jones' INT return for a touchdown is one of only six by a linebacker in team history (three other players) ... The others are Tom Erlandson (26 yards at Denver on December 4, 1966), A.J. Duhe (35 yards in AFC Championship game vs. N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983) and Zach Thomas (26 yards at Houston on November 17, 1996; 17 yards vs. Pittsburgh on September 20, 1998 and one yard at Oakland on December 6, 1998) ... Received a defensive game ball for his performance in the Raiders game ... Had nine tackles each of the final two games of the regular season, vs. Denver (12/21) and at Atlanta (12/27) ...

NFL HONORS: Received two NFL honors in 1998 ... Was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for games of November 15-16, and also was cited as AFC Defensive Player of the Month for December ... They marked the first NFL honors of his seven-year career ... In the Dolphins' 13-9 victory at Carolina on November 15, Jones had eight tackles, including two sacks of Panthers QB Steve Beuerlein ... Jones was the only Dolphin to earn NFL Defensive Player of the Week accolades in 1998 ... Prior to Jones' honor, the last time a Dolphins defender was recognized was Terrell Buckley, who did it in week 15 of 1997, against Detroit on December 7 ... The last time a Dolphins linebacker earned the award occurred in week 7 of 1997 when Derrick Rodgers did it at the N.Y. Jets on October 12 ... In addition, Jones was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for December when he totaled 29 tackles, two sacks and two interceptions, including one for a touchdown, in four games ... Jones was the second Dolphin to earn an AFC Defensive Player of the Month award in 1998, as LB Zach Thomas was honored for his performance in September ... It marked the first time in team history that two Dolphins earned Player of the Month honors in separate months in the same season ... In 1990, LB John Offerdahl and DE Jeff Cross were cited as co-Defensive Players of the Month for October ...

PLAYOFFS: Started both playoff games following the 1998 season at strongside linebacker ... Finished with eight tackles, a half-sack and a pass defended ... Notched five tackles, including a half-sack, in First-Round victory vs. Buffalo (1/2/99) ... In his career, has appeared in 12 postseason contests, starting ten of them ... Has amassed 54 tackles, a half-sack and a pass defended ... Also has added two special teams stops in the playoffs.

1997 – Started 15 of the 16 games in which he played at middle linebacker for the Rams ... Led club with 115 total tackles (72 solo), the fourth straight year and fifth time in his career he reached the 100-tackle mark ... Also had one sack for eight yards lost, five passes defended and two tackles on special teams ... Tallied nine tackles in back to back weeks: at Denver (9/14) and vs. N.Y. Giants (9/21) ... Turned in a ten-tackle effort while adding two passes defended at San Francisco (10/12) ... Only game he did not start was vs. Seattle (10/19) when Rams opened with six defensive backs ... Posted nine tackles vs. Atlanta (11/16) ... Produced a season-high 12 tackles, including his only sack of the year, vs. Carolina (11/23).

1996 – Appeared in all 16 games with St. Louis, starting 13 of them at middle linebacker ... Posted 129 total tackles, which ranked second on the squad ... Also came up with an interception and five passes defended ... Amassed a season-high 15 tackles at Carolina (10/13) ... Had a team-high 13 stops vs. Green Bay (11/24) ... First career interception occurred in the Packers game when he picked off a Brett Favre pass in the end zone.

1995 – Opened all 12 contests in which he played with the Cowboys at middle linebacker ... Recorded 100 total tackles (57 solo), a sack, three passes defended and a forced fumble ... Tackle figure was fourth on the club ... Registered double-digit tackle totals on three occasions ... Was awarded a game ball after producing a team-high nine tackles vs. Arizona (9/24) ... Had a team-high 13 stops at San Diego (10/15) ... Led club with ten tackles at Atlanta (10/29) ... Had a season-high 15 stops vs. San Francisco (11/12) ... Sustained a strained abdominal muscle in first quarter vs. Oakland (11/19) ... Was inactive vs. Kansas City (11/23) ... Was four of four in field goals, converting from 24, 31, 22 and 34 yards at Green Bay (9/14) . . . Four field goals marked the most ever by a Dolphins rookie or first-year player, and tied with eight others for the second-most overall . . . Was one of two in field goals and hit both PATs vs. Kansas City (10/5) . . . Lone field goal was a 26-yarder with 5:40 remaining in the game to break a 14-14 tie, as the Dolphins held on for the 17-14 triumph . . . Notched 12 points on three of three field goals (37, 30, 35) and three of three PATs vs. Buffalo (11/17) . . . Converted only field goal attempt - from 25 yards away - and was three of three in PATs in Miami's 27-24 loss at New England (11/23) . . . Dolphins almost came back from a 27-3 third-quarter deficit in part due to a pair of successful onside kicks by Mare in the fourth quarter . . . Had another onside kick that was recovered by the Dolphins, but it was nullified due to a penalty . . . Tied his career-high with four field goals vs. Detroit (12/7), converting from 19, 33, 21 and 42 yards . . . Point total of 15 in that game is a career-best . . . 42-yard kick as time expired snapped a 30-30 tie and gave the Dolphins a 33-30 victory before an ESPN Sunday night national audience . . . In season finale vs. New England (12/22), made good from 50 and 41 yards, while missing from 51 yards . . . Marked the first 50-yard field goal of his career, and the only time in 1997 he hit on two field goals of 40 yards or longer . . . Was the first time a Dolphin had kicked a field goal of 50 yards or longer since December 17, 1995, when Pete Stoyanovich kicked a 50-yarder at Buffalo . . . It also was the third-longest field goal by a Dolphins rookie or first-year player, surpassed only by Pete Stoyanovich's 59-yard field goal on November 12, 1989 at the N.Y. Jets, and Uwe von Schamann's 53-yard field goal on October 21, 1979 at New England . . . Converted on his only field goal attempt - from 38 yards out - in First-Round Playoff loss at New England (12/28/97) . . . Did not attempt any PATs.

1996 — Spent his entire rookie season as a member of the New York Giants' practice squad . . . Signed with New York as an undrafted free agent on May 2 . . . Was waived on August 25 and signed to the practice squad on August 27.

DOLPHIN FACT

In the 33-year history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had 17 dual 100-yard receiving games, 18 including playoffs. The most frequent duo has been Mark Clayton and Mark Duper, who combined for four dual 100-yard receiving games. Overall, Clayton was part of eight such games while Duper was in seven. The most recent game in which the Dolphins had two receivers surpass the 100-yard mark occurred on November 27, 1994 at the N.Y. Jets when Mark Ingram totaled 117 yards and four touchdowns on nine catches and Irving Fryar tallied 103 yards on five receptions.

In his career Marino has thrown for 4,000 yards in six seasons (1984-86, 1988, 1992, 1994) . . . Warren Moon (four, 1990-91, 1994-95), Dan Fouts (three, 1979-81), Drew Bledsoe (two, 1994, 1996), Brett Favre (two, 1995, 1998), and Steve Young (two, 1993, 1998) are the only other QBs to have multiple 4,000-yard seasons . . . Along with Fouts, Marino is the only other QB to pass for 4,000 yards in three straight seasons (1984-86) . . . Marino has passed for 3,000 or more yards 13 times (1984-92, 1994-95, 1997-98) in his 16 seasons in the NFL . . . When he went over the 3,000-yard passing mark on Dec. 21, 1998 vs. Denver, it marked the 13th time he passed for 3,000 or more yards, breaking his tie with John Elway and re-setting the NFL record for most 3,000 yard seasons . . . Marino originally set the record for most 3,000 yard seasons in 1991, his eighth year of passing for 3,000 or more yards before Elway tied that record in 1996 . . . Before setting that NFL record, Marino had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons . . . Marino extended that mark to 11 seasons before being tied by Elway in 1996, and Marino now holds the NFL record alone by extending that mark to 13 seasons:

NFL LEADERS, MOST 3,000 YARD PASSING SEASONS

In addition, Marino's nine consecutive 3,000-yard seasons (1984-92) is the NFL record for most consecutive 3,000 yard seasons . . . Marino has led the NFL in passing yards five times during a season, having accomplished that feat in 1984-86, 1988, and 1992 . . . Marino tied the NFL record for most seasons leading the league in passing yardage (five) with Sonny Jurgensen (1961-62, 1966-67, 1969) . . . Marino did not have a game passing for 400 yards in 1998 . . . Marino has 13 career 400-yard games (15, including playoffs) and the Dolphins are 8-5 in those 13 games (9-6 overall, including the playoffs) . . . Marino had four 300-yard games in 1998, on Dec. 27th at Atlanta when he threw for 320 yards, Dec. 21st vs. Denver when he threw for 355 yards, Dec. 13th vs. N.Y. Jets when he threw for 321 yards and on Oct. 12th at Jacksonville when he threw for 323 yards, and the Dolphins went 1-3 in those four games . . . Marino now has 60 career regular season 300-yard games (64, including playoffs) and the Dolphins are 36-24 in those 60 300-yard games (37-27 overall, including playoffs) . . . Marino's 60 career 300-yard passing games extends his own NFL record for most career 300-yard passing games . . . He broke Dan Fouts' former NFL record of 51 career 300-yard games on Dec. 3, 1995 vs. Atlanta when Marino had 343 yards passing, the 52nd regular season game of 300 or more passing yards in his career . . . Marino tied Fouts' record of 51 regular season career 300-yard games when he had 333 yards passing on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England . . . Marino owns the top 11 and 42 of the top 50 passing yardage games in Dolphins history as well as 64 of the 76 300-yard passing games in club history . . . Marino threw for under 200 yards in each of his first four games in 1998, marking the first time in his career he has gone four straight games throwing for under 200 yards in each contest . . . Overall in 1998 he threw for under 200 yards in seven of 16 games . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino's first touchdown pass on Nov. 26, 1995 at Indianapolis, a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars with 13:54 elapsed in the second quarter, was Marino's 343rd TD pass of his career, breaking Fran Tarkenton's former NFL record of most career touchdown passes (342), making Marino the league's all-time leader in career TD passes . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record vs. San Francisco on November 20, 1995, with a four-yard TD pass to O.J. McDuffie in the third quarter . . . On Nov. 29th, 1998 vs. New Orleans, Marino's seven-yard touchdown pass to O.J. McDuffie was the 400th TD pass of his career, becoming the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for 400 touchdown passes . . . Marino now has 408 career touchdown passes:

Overall in Marino's career, the Dolphins are 14-20 in the 34 regular season games in which Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass (and 14-22 in his 36 overall games, including playoffs), with two victories coming in 1998 (Nov. 15th at Carolina and Oct. 25th vs. New England), three wins coming in 1997 (Oct. 19th at Baltimore, Sept. 7th vs. Tennessee and Aug. 31st vs. Indianapolis), one win in 1996 (Sept. 1st vs. New England), one win in 1995 (Oct. 29th vs. Buffalo), one win in 1994 (Dec. 25th vs. Detroit), two in 1992 (Dec. 27th at New England and Oct. 11th vs. Atlanta), one in 1991 (September 22nd vs. Green Bay), one in 1990 (Oct. 18th vs. New England), and the other two coming in 1989 (Oct. 15th at Cincinnati and December 10th vs. New England) . . . Only four times in Marino's career has he not thrown a touchdown pass in consecutive games . . . He has never gone three games in a row in his career without a TD pass . . . Marino has six career games of throwing five or more touchdown passes, and the Dolphins are 4-2 in those contests . . . On Dec. 21, 1998 vs. Denver, Marino threw four touchdown passes, (three to Lamar Thomas and one to Oronde Gadsden), and it marked the first time since November 26, 1995 at Indianapolis that Marino threw for four or more touchdowns . . . Marino has 21 career games passing for four or more touchdowns (including one in 1998), and he is 16-5 in those 21 contests (including 1-0 in 1998) . . . When Marino threw for five touchdowns on September 4, 1994 vs. New England, it was the 18th time he threw for four or more touchdowns, breaking an NFL record he had shared with Johnny Unitas for most career games (17) throwing four or more touchdown passes . . . In addition to the Broncos game on December 21, 1998, Marino threw for three touchdown passes on one other occasion during the 1998 season, on Nov. 29, 1998 vs. New Orleans and the Dolphins won that contest . . . Overall in his career he has thrown three or more touchdowns in 60 games (65, including playoffs), and he is 41-19 in those contests (44-21 including post-season games) . . . Marino has thrown for 20 or more TD passes in 13 of his 16 years in the NFL, including 1998 when he threw for 23 TD passes . . . The only seasons when he failed to reach 20 TD passes came in 1997, 1996 and in 1993, a season when he played only five games due to injury . . . By throwing for 20 touchdown passes in 1998, he extended his own NFL record for most years throwing for 20 or more touchdown passes to 13 seasons . . . In 1991, Marino became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes nine different times . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied for the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in eight different seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL:

Marino also is the only player in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes in his first ten NFL seasons and in ten consecutive seasons . . . Four times in his career (1984-86, 1994) Marino has thrown for 30 or more touchdowns, and he is second to Brett Favre (five, 1994-98) for the NFL record of most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes . . . In addition to Marino and Favre, only eight other quarterbacks have thrown 30 or more TD passes twice (Sonny Jurgensen, 1961, 1967; Y.A. Tittle, 1962, 1963; Daryle Lamonica, 1967, 1969; Dan Fouts, 1980, 1981; Steve Bartkowski, 1980, 1981; Warren Moon, 1990, 1995; Steve Young, 1994, 1998, and Randall Cunningham, 1990, 1998) . . . Marino is the only QB to throw 40 or more TDs in two different seasons (1984, 1986) . . .

TOTAL OFFENSE: With 58,913 yards passing along with 93 yards rushing, Marino has 59,006 yards in total offense (combined rushing and passing yards) in his career, and he is the all-time NFL leader in that category:

INTERCEPTIONS: In his career, Marino has not thrown an interception in 82 games (86, including playoffs) . . . The Dolphins are 59-23 in those 82 games in which he was not intercepted (62-24, including playoffs) . . . In 1998, Marino was not intercepted in five games (including the first three games of the season) and the Dolphins went 4-1 in those contests . . . Their only loss in those five games came on Nov. 1, 1998 at Buffalo . . . By not throwing an INT in the first three games of 1998, it marked the first time in Marino's career that he has gone the first three games of a season without throwing an INT . . . In addition, his three-game stretch without an INT is the fourth time in his career that Marino has gone three or more straight regular season games without throwing an interception . . . The other times occurred in 1994 (games 14-16), 1996 (games 10-12), and in 1997 (games 4-7) . . . When he threw an interception on the final play of the first half of Game Four (Oct. 4, 1998 at N.Y. Jets), it ended his streak, leaving him with three straight games without an INT, one shy of the team record . . . In those first three-plus games of 1998, Marino went 85 passes without an interception, and going back to the regular season finale in 1997, on Dec. 22, 1997 vs. New England, he went 87 straight passes without an INT before having that streak broken . . . Marino had two interceptions returned for touchdowns in 1998: On Dec. 27, 1998 at Atlanta Ronnie Bradford returned a Marino interception 11 yards for a touchdown, and on Nov. 29, 1998 vs. New Orleans, Rob Kelly returned a Marino interception 79 yards for a touchdown . . . Overall in his career, Marino has thrown 25 interceptions that have been returned for touchdowns, 24 in the regular season and one in the playoffs . . .

SACKS: In 1998, Marino was sacked 23 times, the third highest single season total of his career . . . Marino had six games in 1998 where he was not sacked, and the Dolphins went 5-1 in those six contests . . . On Nov. 29, 1998 vs. New Orleans, Marino was not sacked, breaking the Saints' streak of recording at least one sack in 60 consecutive games . . . On Dec. 13, 1998 at N.Y. Jets, Marino was sacked five times, which matched his single game career high (he also was sacked five times at New Orleans on Nov. 29, 1992) . . . In that Jets game he was sacked by Chad Cascadden, who forced and recovered Marino's fumble and returned it 23 yards for a Jets touchdown . . . For nine consecutive seasons (1982-90), the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL, including the first eight years of Marino's career . . .

RUSHING AND RECEIVING: Marino rushed for a touchdown once in 1998, a three-yard touchdown run on Dec. 27, 1998 at Atlanta . . . In his career Marino has rushed for a touchdown nine times in the regular season (ten, including playoffs): Dec. 27, 1998 at Atlanta, three yards; Dec. 12, 1994 vs. Kansas City, four yards; Sept. 26, 1993 at Buffalo, four yards; Dec. 15, 1991 at San Diego, 10 yards; Dec. 10, 1989 vs. New England, one yard; Oct. 15, 1989 at Cincinnati, one yard; Dec. 7, 1987 vs. N.Y. Jets, five yards; Nov. 20, 1983 vs. Baltimore, one yard; and Oct. 30, 1983 vs. L.A. Rams, two yards (and one playoff contest - Jan. 12, 1991 at Buffalo in AFC Divisional Playoff contest, two yards) . . . The Dolphins are 7-2 in those regular season contests (7-3 including playoff games) when Marino has rushed for a touchdown . . . Marino has caught one pass in his career, on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England, when he caught his own deflected pass for a six-yard loss . . .

SERVICE: Marino was one of seven quarterbacks (Trent Dilfer, Brett Favre, Peyton Manning, Steve McNair, Jake Plummer, and Kordell Stewart) to have started all 16 games in 1998 . . . Marino played all but 12 snaps in 1998 (the final six snaps on Dec. 27th at Atlanta, one snap on Nov. 29th vs. New Orleans, on Nov. 15th at Carolina and on Nov. 8th vs. Indianapolis and the final three snaps on Oct. 4th at N.Y. Jets) . . . None of those snaps were missed because of injury but were due to coaches' decisions . . . The 1998 season marked the 11th time in Marino's career that he has started every game in a 16-game season . . . Marino has started each of the last 41 regular season games, which currently is the third longest consecutive starting streak among NFL quarterbacks and first among quarterbacks in the AFC:

ACTIVE CONSECUTIVE GAME STARTS, NFL QUARTERBACKS

PLAYER	TEAM	START OF STREAK	CONSECUTIVE STARTS
1. Brett Favre	Green Bay	September 27, 1992 vs. Pittsburgh	109
2. Trent Dilfer	Tampa Bay	September 3, 1995 at Philadelphia	64
5. DAN MARINO	MIAMI	OCTOBER 27, 1996 VS. DALLAS	41
4. Steve McNair	Tennessee	Dec. 22, 1996 at Baltimore	33
5. Kordell Stewart	Pittsburgh	August 31, 1997 vs. Dallas	32

When Marino started in the 1998 season opener on September 6, 1998 at Indianapolis, it was his 15th consecutive opening game start, the second-longest streak among active quarterbacks, trailing only Denver's John Elway, who has started 16 straight season openers . . . On Sept. 6, 1998 at Indianapolis Marino began his 16th year of service with the Dolphins, breaking Bob Kuechenberg's club record for most seasons as a Dolphin (15 seasons), which Kuechenberg originally set from 1970-84 . . . On Aug. 31, 1997 vs. Indianapolis, Marino played in his 200th regular season game, becoming the first Dolphin to reach that milestone . . . On Oct. 27, 1996 vs. Dallas, Marino played in his 191st career regular season game, breaking Kuechenberg's former team record (190) for most regular season games played . . . He now has played in 231 regular season games with Miami, including 229 starts, and has started all 16 playoff games the Dolphins have played in since he joined the team . . . Since the start of the 1984 season, Marino has started 220 of the Dolphins' last 236 regular season games (and 235 of 251 games overall including playoffs), not counting the three 1987 replacement games . . . Marino's 231 games played is fourth on the list of players active through 1998 for most career appearances with the same team:

MOST CAREER APPEARANCES WITH ONE TEAM, PLAYERS ACTIVE THROUGH 1998

PLAYER	POSITION	TEAM	APPEARANCES
1. Bruce Matthews	OT	Tennessee	248
2. John Elway	QB	Denver	234
Darrell Green	CB	Washington	234
4. DAN MARINO	QB	MIAMI	231

INJURIES: Marino did not suffer any injuries in 1998, and the snaps he missed in 1998 were all due to coaches' decisions . . . Marino's last injury came on November 2, 1997 at Buffalo, when he suffered a left ankle sprain late in the second quarter that forced him to miss the final play of the first half and all but the first series of the second half . . . The last time Marino missed an entire game due to an injury came in 1996, when he missed three contests; on Sept. 23, 1996 at Indianapolis he was forced from the game permanently midway through the first quarter with a fractured right ankle, suffered without being hit on a 34-yard pass completion to O.J. McDuffie, an injury that forced him to miss the next three games that season (Oct. 6th vs. Seattle, Oct. 13th at Buffalo, and Oct. 20th at Philadelphia) . . . Overall the Dolphins are 8-10 in the 18 games that Marino has missed during his career because of injury . . . Before their win on Oct. 13, 1996 at Buffalo, Miami had lost the eight previous games Marino missed (the final five contests in 1993, two games in 1995, and one contest in 1996) . . . Of the 18 games Marino has missed due to injury, three came in 1996 (see above for dates) while recovering from surgery to repair a fractured right ankle, two games in 1995 (Oct. 22nd at N.Y. Jets and Oct. 15 at New Orleans) while recovering from a bruised left hip and arthroscopic surgery on his right knee, the final 11 games of the 1993 season after being placed on Injured Reserve on Oct. 13th as a result of a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg, and the final two games of the 1983 season due to a left knee sprain . . . The first game he missed as a result of his Achilles injury, on October 24, 1993 vs. Indianapolis, broke his streak of playing 145 straight regular season games (excluding the three replacement contests in 1987), dating back to the start of the 1984 season (155 straight games if playoff games are counted) . . . Before that injury, Marino was the only NFL quarterback to have started every game since the replacement games in 1987 . . . Marino is one of only six NFL quarterbacks who have started 100 or more straight regular season games since the 1970 merger (also: Ron Jaworski, Phila., 116 games [1977-84], Brett Favre, G.B., 109 games [1992-current], Brian Sipe, Cleve., 109 games [1975-83], Joe Ferguson, Buff., 107 games [1977-84], and Steve Bartkowski, Atl., 100 games [1977-84]) . . .

OPERATIONS: Did not undergo any surgical procedures following the 1998 season . . . It marked the tenth time in his career that his off-season was surgery-free (after the 1986, 1988-90, 1992, and 1994-98 seasons) . . . On September 24, 1996, Marino underwent an arthroscopic debridement (cleaning) as well as an internal fixation (screw insertion) of his right ankle fracture . . . The surgery was performed at HealthSouth Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables by Dolphins team physicians Dr. John Uribe and Dr. Dan Kanell . . . His previous surgery was on Oct. 9, 1995, when Dolphins team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato at Holy Cross Medical Center repaired cartilage damage to his right knee that was injured on Oct. 8th vs. Indianapolis . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery on March 31, 1994 to remove bone spurs from his right ankle . . . Was operated on to repair torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg on October 11, 1993 by Dolphins team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato at Imperial Point Medical Center and he missed the final 11 games of the 1993 season . . . In addition, Marino also has undergone surgery on his left knee five times since joining the Dolphins, most recently arthroscopic surgery (performed by Dr. Kanell) to repair loose cartilage in his left knee on December 26, 1991 . . . The other operations to that knee took place on March 8, 1988, February 7, 1986, April 3, 1985, and on Jan. 6, 1984 . . .

NFL RECORDS: Overall, Marino holds 25 NFL regular season records and is tied for five others . . . In addition to the above records for attempts, completions, yardage and touchdowns, Marino holds NFL single season records for yards (5,084 in 1984) and touchdowns (48 in 1984) . . . Having led the NFL in attempts in 1984, 1986, 1988, 1992, and 1997, Marino set a new NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass attempts (five) . . . He had previously been tied with three other quarterbacks (Sammy Baugh, Johnny Unitas, George Blanda) who led the NFL in that category four times each . . . Having led the NFL in completions from 1984-86, 1988, 1992 and 1997, Marino set a new NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass completions (six) . . . He had previously been tied with Sammy Baugh, who led the NFL in that category in five seasons . . . Marino and Blanda (1963-65) are the only QBs to lead the NFL in completions three consecutive years . . . Having led the NFL in passing yards from 1984-86, 1988 and 1992, Marino joined Sonny Jurgensen as the only players to have led the NFL in passing yards in five seasons, and only Dan Fouts (1979-82) has led the league longer consecutively in yardage (four seasons) . . . Marino led the NFL in touchdown passes from 1984-86, and if he does so again in 1999, he would join only three others (Johnny Unitas, Len Dawson, Steve Young) who have led the league in that category in four seasons, and only Unitas (1957-60) has led the NFL in TDs longer consecutively (four seasons) . . .

DOLPHINS RECORDS: Overall, Marino holds 38 Dolphins regular season team records and is tied for six others . . . Marino broke all of Bob Griese's team records in passing yardage, attempts, completions, and TD passes:

MARINO'S MIAMI DOLPHINS CAREER RECORDS

TD PASSES	YARDS	ATTEMPTS	COMPLETIONS	INTERCEPTIONS
408 Marino	58,913 Marino	7,989 Marino	4,763 Marino	235 Marino
192 Griese	25,092 Griese	3,429 Griese	1,926 Griese	172 Griese

Griese (1967-80) played 14 seasons in the NFL, while Marino (1983-98) has played 16 seasons in the league . . . Marino also holds team career records for highest passer rating, highest completion percentage, and most 300-yard and 400-yard games . . .

COMEBACKS: Marino led the Dolphins to a fourth quarter comeback victory once in 1998, on Oct. 25, 1998 when the Dolphins defeated the Patriots 12-9 in overtime . . . In that contest, the Dolphins trailed 9-6 with 2:13 left in regulation after a Patriots field goal, but tied the game and went on to win in overtime . . . In the fourth quarter and overtime in that contest Marino was 10-19 for 144 yards and no touchdowns or interceptions . . . Over the course of Marino's 16-year career with the Dolphins, he has brought the team back from a fourth quarter deficit a total of 34 times, with 20 fourth quarter triumphs at home and 14 on the road . . . Included in that total are two playoff games in which Marino has led Miami back in the fourth quarter . . . Marino's total of 34 fourth quarter comeback wins does NOT include 13 additional games, (12 in the regular season and one in the playoffs, coming in 1998 in an AFC Wild Card playoff game vs. Buffalo on Jan. 2, 1999), that Marino won when the Dolphins were tied (but never did trail) in the fourth quarter, ten at home (one playoff contest and nine regular season games) and three on the road; If those 13 fourth-quarter tied situations are included, then Marino has led the Dolphins on a total of 47 game-winning drives (30 at home and 17 on the road) . . . With 34 fourth quarter comeback victories, Marino ranks second among quarterbacks in that category, behind Denver's John Elway, who has 43 final period come-from-behind wins:

1. John Elway	Denver	43
2. DAN MARINO	MIAMI	34
3. Joe Montana	San Francisco, Kansas City	31
5. Jim Kelly	Buffalo	24

In Marino's 34 career fourth quarter comebacks, he has completed 255 of 402 passes (63.4%) for 3,402 yards with 26 touchdowns and eight INTs for a rating of 103.5:

HONORS: Marino was named as AFC Player of the Week once in 1998, for the week of Dec. 19-21, 1998 following his performance vs. Denver on Dec. 21, 1998 . . . In that contest Marino was 23-38 for 355 yards with four touchdowns and one interception . . . It was the 59th time in the regular season that Marino threw for 300 or more yards, and it was the 21st time in the regular season that he passed for four or more touchdowns . . . In that contest Marino also went over the 3,000-yard passing mark for the season, the 13th time he accomplished that feat to break his tie with John Elway and establish a new NFL record . . . In addition, he also went over 20 touchdowns in that game, the 13th time he has passed for 20 or more touchdowns in a season, extending his own NFL record for most 20-touchdown seasons . . . It was Marino's first AFC weekly honor since he last won the award in Week 14 of the 1995 season . . . He also was the first Dolphin to win the AFC Offensive Player of the Week award since Week 1 of the 1996 season, when Karim Abdul-Jabbar was named to that honor . . . Marino has won the AFC Offensive Player of the Week honor 16 times in the regular season (and 18 times overall, including playoffs), as well as two AFC Player of the Month Awards in his 16-year NFL career . . . It is the most times any player has won AFC Player of the Week honors since the award was instituted in 1984 . . . John Elway is second with 15 awards (in addition to two Player of the Month Awards), Boomer Esiason is tied for third with ten awards (he also has two Player of the Month Awards) along with Jim Kelly, who also has ten AFC awards (along with three AFC Player of the Month Awards), while Warren Moon is fifth with eight AFC awards (as well as one monthly honor) . . . The last time Marino was named AFC Player of the Month was for October, 1988 . . .

MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD: On January 28, 1999, Marino was named as the 1998 Sprint/NFL Man of the Year . . . It is the only league-sponsored award that recognizes player community service as well as excellence on the field . . . Off the field, Marino established the Dan Marino Foundation, which was created to benefit children's charities in South Florida . . . He hosted events throughout the year to raise money for the foundation . . . One major project was the newly created Miami Children's Hospital/Dan Marino Center in Weston, Florida that opened in 1998 and offers comprehensive health care to children with chronic medical needs . . . Marino also spearheaded the Dolphins' annual Thanksgiving turkey giveaway each year in conjunction with the Daily Bread Food Bank . . . Marino was the Dolphins' United Way representative in 1994-96 and has been a strong supporter of their programs . . . In 1998, Marino was chosen as one of three national spokesmen for the NFL's 25-year anniversary with United Way . . . Marino becomes the second Dolphins player to win the NFL Man of the Year Award; Dwight Stephenson won that honor in 1985 . . .

COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD: Marino also was chosen by the Dolphins organization as the club's winner of the annual Community Service Award . . . It is the second time in Marino's career that he has been selected as the winner of this award, having also been honored in 1996 . . . Since the award was first instituted in 1987, Marino is one of only three players to be honored more than once (John Offerdahl, 1989-90 and 1993; and Bryan Cox, 1994-95) . . .

SOUTH FLORIDA AWARDS: In balloting of South Florida media for the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award, Marino has won that award 12 times (1983-92, 1994-95) . . . Marino passed Bob Griese, who won that award six times (1967-68, 1970-71, 1974, 1977) . . . Marino won the MVP award each of his first ten years in the league (1983-92), and no other Dolphin has ever won more than two consecutive MVP awards . . . In addition, in 1995 Marino was named the winner of the Miami Dolphins' Leadership Award for the first time, an award presented annually to the Miami player chosen by Dolphins management and coaches for leadership on and off the playing field . . . Marino again won the Leadership Award in 1997, this time chosen by his teammates . . . Marino has won the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award ten times (1983-90, 1992, 1994) . . . His ten years winning that award surpassed the former team high set by Larry Csonka (1970-74, 1979), who had won that award six times . . .

PLAYOFF CAREER: In his two playoff games in 1998, Marino was 49-71 (69.0%) for 478 yards, one touchdown, three interceptions and two sacks for a 74.7 rating . . . Took all but two snaps (the final two snaps in Divisional Playoff contest at Denver when game was out of reach) in those two contests . . . In Divisional Playoff at Denver on Jan. 9, 1999, Marino was 26-37 for 243 yards, no touchdowns, two interceptions and one sack . . . His 70.3% completion percentage in that contest is his second highest percentage in the playoffs, surpassed only by his 75.9% completion rate (22-29) in AFC First Round game vs. Kansas City on Dec. 31, 1994 . . . The Broncos contest marked only the second time in 16 playoff contests when Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass . . . In AFC Wild Card contest on Jan. 2, 1999 vs. Buffalo, Marino was 23-34 for 235 yards, one touchdown, one interception and no sacks . . . His touchdown came on an 11-yard pass to Lamar Thomas . . . His 56-yard completion to Oronde Gadsden in that contest was the second longest completion of Marino's postseason career, surpassed only by his 64-yard TD pass to Mark Duper on Jan. 12, 1991 in AFC Divisional game at Buffalo . . . Marino also completed an eight-yard deflected pass to center Tim Ruddy, the third completion of his career to an offensive lineman, and his second in the playoffs . . . He had a two-yard TD pass to Roy Foster on Jan. 12, 1991 at Buffalo in an AFC Divisional playoff game when Foster was a tackle-eligible, and his other was a completion for nine yards off a deflection to Keith Sims on Sept. 29, 1991 at the N.Y. Jets . . . In the 1998 playoffs, Marino extended his Dolphins career playoff records for most attempts, completions, yards passing, and touchdown passes, playing in 16 playoff games, while Bob Griese, runner-up in all four categories, played in 12 post-season contests:

10 Griese	1,467 Griese	208 Griese	112 Griese	12 Griese

Marino has attempted 632 passes in his playoff career and ranks third on the all-time NFL playoff list for most passes attempted; Joe Montana is first in NFL playoff history with 734 passes attempted, while John Elway is second with 651 attempts . . . Marino has completed 357 passes in his playoff career . . . On Jan. 2, 1999 in AFC Wild Card contest vs. Buffalo he surpassed Jim Kelly (322) and John Elway (310) to move into second place among the all-time NFL pass completion leaders; Joe Montana is first with 460 pass completions while Elway is third with 355 completions . . . Marino has four postseason games of 300 or more passing yards, which ties him with John Elway, Warren Moon and Troy Aikman for the third highest total in postseason history, surpassed only by the five 300-yard passing games by Dan Fouts and the six 300-yard passing games by Joe Montana . . . Marino has passed for 4,219 yards in his playoff career . . . On Jan. 2, 1999 in AFC Wild Card contest vs. Buffalo he surpassed Jim Kelly (3,863) and moved into third place among the all-time NFL post-season passing yardage leaders; Joe Montana is first with 5,772 passing yards and John Elway is second with 4,964 yards passing:

MOST PASSING YARDS IN NFL POST-SEASON HISTORY

4. Jim Kelly	Buffalo	3,863	17
5. Terry Bradshaw	Pittsburgh	3,833	19
6. Troy Aikman	Dallas	3,563	15

Marino now has thrown 30 touchdowns passes in his 16 post-season games, tied for the second highest career total in NFL history . . . In AFC Wild Card contest on January 2, 1999 vs. Buffalo, Marino's 11-yard TD pass to Lamar Thomas tied him with Terry Bradshaw for second place:

MOST TOUCHDOWN PASSES IN NFL POST-SEASON HISTORY

PLAYER	TEAMS	TOUCHDOWN PASSES	PLAYOFF GAMES
1. Joe Montana	San Francisco/Kansas City	45	23
2. DAN MARINO	MIAMI	30	16
Terry Bradshaw	Pittsburgh	30	19
4. John Elway	Denver	27	22
5. Roger Staubach	Dallas	24	20

Marino has thrown at least one touchdown pass in 14 of his 16 playoff contests, throwing a TD pass in his first 13 postseason contests before being held without a touchdown pass in an AFC Wild Card game on Dec. 28, 1997 at New England . . . He also failed to throw a touchdown pass in the AFC Divisional Playoff contest at Denver on Jan. 9, 1999 . . . Marino's 13-game postseason streak with at least one touchdown pass establishes the NFL record for the most consecutive games with a touchdown pass, and he broke that record on December 31, 1994 vs. Kansas City when he threw a touchdown pass for the 11th consecutive game before extending the mark to 13 straight games following his two touchdowns at Buffalo in an AFC Wildcard playoff game on Dec. 30, 1995, before having that streak ended in an AFC Wild Card game at New England on Dec. 28, 1997:

1998 GAME HIGHLIGHTS - AT INDIANAPOLIS (SEPT. 6): Started on Sept. 6th at Indianapolis and was 13-24 for 135 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions or sacks ... His touchdown came on a 44-yard TD pass to Oronde Gadsden ... It marked Gadsden's first ever reception (and TD catch) coming in his first NFL game ... It marked the first time in 1998 and the 78th time in his career (82, including playoffs) that Marino did not throw an interception ... The Colts game marked Marino's 16th year of service with the Dolphins, breaking Bob Kuechenberg's former club record for most seasons as a Dolphin (15 seasons), which Kuechenberg originally set from 1970-84 ...

VS. BUFFALO (SEPT. 13): On Sept. 13th vs. Buffalo was 14-26 for 159 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions ... His touchdown came on a 17-yard TD pass to Lamar Thomas ... It marked the second time in 1998 and the 79th time in his career (83, including playoffs) that Marino did not throw an interception ...

VS. PITTSBURGH (SEPT. 20): On Sept. 20th vs. Pittsburgh was 14-22 for 113 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions ... His touchdown came on an eight-yard pass to Lamar Thomas ... It marked the third time in 1998 (the first three contests of the year) and the 80th time in his career (84, including playoffs) that Marino did not throw an interception ... It also marked the first time in his career that he went the first three games of a season without throwing an INT ... In addition, his three-game stretch without an INT (covering 72 pass attempts) was the fourth time in his career that Marino went three or more straight regular season games without throwing an interception ... The other times occurred in 1994 (games 14-16), 1996 (games 10-12), and in 1997 (games 4-7) ...

AT N.Y. JETS (OCT. 4): On Oct. 4th at N.Y. Jets was 13-31 for 121 yards, one touchdown, two interceptions, and three sacks ... It was the only time in 1998 and the 28th time in his career (32 times, including playoffs) he completed less than half of his passes and the Dolphins went 0-1 in 1998 and 9-19 in his career (9-23, including playoffs) in those contests ... It was the fourth straight game he threw for under 200 yards, the first time in his career that he has gone four straight games throwing for under 200 yards in each contest ... His first interception in that Jets contest ended a streak of throwing 85 straight passes in 1998 without an interception, covering the first three games of the season and all but Marino's final attempt in the second half of the fourth (Jets) game ... Going back to include the regular season finale in 1997, on Dec. 22, 1997 vs. New England, Marino went 87 straight passes without an INT before having that streak broken against the Jets ...

AT JACKSONVILLE (OCT. 12): On Oct. 12th at Jacksonville was 30-49 for 323 yards, two touchdowns, one interception and two sacks ... His touchdowns came on a two-yard pass and a 15-yard pass to Troy Drayton ... It was the first time Marino threw for over 200 yards in 1998, ending a streak of four straight games of throwing for under 200 yards, the longest such streak of his career ... His 323 yards passing was the first time in 1998 and the 57th time in his career (61, including playoffs) that he has thrown for 300 or more yards ...

VS. ST. LOUIS (OCT. 18): On Oct. 18th vs. St. Louis was 14-26 for 114 yards, two touchdowns, one interception and one sack ... His touchdowns came on a one-yard TD pass to Oronde Gadsden and a 19-yard TD pass to John Avery ... It was Avery's first-ever NFL touchdown ...

VS. NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 25): On Oct. 25th vs. New England was 23-42 for 279 yards, no touchdowns, three interceptions and three sacks ... It marked the 33rd time in Marino's career that did not throw a touchdown pass and only the 13th time he won without throwing a TD pass ... It also marked the 34th time in Marino's career that he led the Dolphins to a comeback win, bringing the Dolphins back from a 9-6 deficit with 2:13 left in regulation to a 12-9 overtime win ... In the fourth quarter and overtime in that contest he was 10-19 for 144 yards and no touchdowns or interceptions ... His three interceptions in that contest was tied for the fourth highest single game total of his career ...

AT BUFFALO (NOV. 1): On Nov. 1st at Buffalo was 15-27 for 196 yards, one touchdown, no interceptions and three sacks . . . His touchdown pass came on a 12-yard TD toss to Oronde Gadsden . . . It marked the fourth time in 1998 that Marino did not throw an interception, and it was the Dolphins' first loss (3-1) in those games . . . It also was the 81st game in his career that Marino has not thrown an interception (85, including playoffs) . . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (NOV. 8): On Nov. 8th vs. Indianapolis was 18-27 for 207 yards, two touchdowns, one interception, and no sacks . . . His touchdowns came on a 61-yard pass and a six-yard pass to O.J. McDuffie . . . Marino opened the game with nine straight completions and at halftime was 16-19 for 192 yards, two TDs and no interceptions . . .

AT CAROLINA (NOV. 15): On Nov. 15th at Carolina was 14-21 for 140 yards, no touchdowns, one interception and one sack . . . It marked the 34th time in Marino's career (and the second time in 1998) that he did not throw a touchdown pass and only the 14th time he won without throwing a TD pass (including twice in 1998) . . . Received a game ball for his performance in that Carolina contest . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (NOV. 23): On Nov. 23rd at New England was 24-38 for 289 yards, two touchdowns, one interception and no sacks . . . His touchdowns came on passes of 35 yards and 11 yards to Oronde Gadsden . . . It was the third time in 1998 that Marino was not sacked . . .

VS. NEW ORLEANS (NOV. 29): On Nov. 29th vs. New Orleans was 22-40 for 255 yards, three touchdowns, one interception and no sacks . . . All three of his touchdown passes, 22 yards, seven yards, and nine yards, were to O.J. McDuffie . . . His second TD pass of that game, the seven-yard pass to McDuffie, was the 400th touchdown pass of Marino's career . . . His three touchdown passes marked the first time in 1998 and the 59th time in his career (64, including playoffs) that he threw for three or more touchdowns . . . In that Saints contest, Rob Kelly returned a Marino interception 79 yards for a touchdown . . . It was the first time in 1998 that Marino had an INT returned for a TD and in his career it was the 23rd time (24, including playoffs) that Marino had an interception returned for a touchdown . . . Marino was not sacked in that Saints contest, breaking a New Orleans streak of recording at least one sack in 60 consecutive games . . . Marino received a game ball for his performance in that game . . .

AT OAKLAND (DEC. 6): On Dec. 6th at Oakland was 22-33 for 170 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions or sacks . . . His touchdown came on an 19-yard TD pass to Oronde Gadsden . . . It was the fifth time in 1998 that Marino was not sacked . . . It also was the 82nd game in his career that Marino did not throw an interception (86, including playoffs), and the Dolphins were 59-23 in those 82 games in which he was not intercepted (62-24, including playoffs) . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (DEC. 13): On Dec. 13th vs. N.Y. Jets was 30-57 for 321 yards, one touchdown, one interception and five sacks . . . His one touchdown pass came on a three-yard TD toss to O.J. McDuffie . . . His 57 pass attempts was tied for the third highest regular season single game total of his career (tied for fourth, including playoffs) . . . His 321 yards passing was the second time in 1998 and the 58th time in his career (62, including playoffs) that he threw for 300 or more yards . . . Marino's five sacks matched his single game career high (he also was sacked five times at New Orleans on Nov. 29, 1992) . . . One of those sacks was by Chad Cascadden, who forced and recovered Marino's fumble and returned it 23 yards for a Jets touchdown in the fourth quarter to ice the game . . .

VS. DENVER (DEC. 21): On Dec. 21st vs. Denver, Marino was 23-38 for 355 yards, four touchdowns, one interception, and no sacks . . . He threw three touchdown passes to Lamar Thomas (nine, 56, and 17 yards) and an eight-yard TD pass to Oronde Gadsden . . . His 355 yards passing was the third time in 1998 and the 59th time in his career (63, including playoffs) that he threw for 300 or more yards . . . Marino's four touchdown passes marked the first time since November 26, 1995 at Indianapolis that he threw for four or more touchdowns . . . Marino has 21 career games passing for four or more touchdowns (including one in 1998), and he was 16-5 in those 21 contests (including 1-0 in 1998) . . . In addition, his four touchdown passes marked the second time in 1998 and the 60th time in his career (65, including playoffs) that he threw for three or more touchdowns, and he was 2-0 in 1998 and 41-19 in his career (44-21, including playoffs) in those contests . . . Marino was not sacked for the sixth time in 1998 . . . Marino went over the 3,000-yard passing mark for the year, the 13th season he passed for 3,000 or more yards, breaking his tie with John Elway and giving him sole possession of the NFL record for most career 3,000-yard passing seasons . . . He also went over the 20-touchdown pass mark for the year, extending his own NFL record for most seasons throwing for 20 or more touchdowns to 13 years . . . For his efforts in that contest he was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the week of December 19-21, the 16th time in the regular season that he was named as the AFC Player of the Week . . .

AT ATLANTA (DEC. 27): On Dec. 27th at Atlanta, was 21-36 for 320 yards, one touchdown, two interceptions and two sacks . . . His touchdown pass was a 12-yard TD pass to O.J. McDuffie . . . Marino's 320 yards passing was the fourth time in 1998 and the 60th time in his career (64, including playoffs) that he threw for 300 or more yards, and the Dolphins were 1-3 in 1998 and 36-24 in his career (37-28 overall, including playoffs) when he threw for 300 or more yards . . . Ronnie Bradford returned a Marino interception 11 yards for a touchdown . . . It was the second time in 1998 that Marino had an INT returned for a TD and in his career it was the 24th time (25, including playoffs) that Marino had an interception returned for a touchdown . . . Marino had one rush, a three-yard touchdown run . . . It was the ninth time in the regular season that Marino has rushed for a touchdown (ten, including playoffs), and it was only the second time in those nine games (7-2) that the Dolphins lost when Marino rushed for a TD (7-3, including playoffs) . . .

1997 – Started all 16 games in 1997 and finished 319-548 (58.2%) for 3,780 yards, 16 touchdowns and 11 interceptions for a rating of 80.7 . . . Ranked seventh in the AFC in passing efficiency, ranked first in the AFC and in the NFL in attempts and completions, and ranked second in the AFC and third in the NFL in passing yardage . . . Was one of 11 quarterbacks to have started every game in 1997 . . . Played every offensive snap the first eight games of the season before suffering a left ankle sprain on Nov. 2, 1997 at Buffalo, and until his injury that game, he had been one of only five quarterbacks in the NFL to have taken every snap until that point . . . That Bills game, along with the contest at Indianapolis on Dec. 14th, were the only two contests in 1997 that Marino has failed to play the entire game . . . Started all five preseason games and in those contests Marino was 32-59 (54.2%) for 332 yards, two touchdowns and one interception for a rating of 75.0 . . .

ATTEMPTS AND COMPLETIONS: With 548 pass attempts, Marino led the NFL in pass attempts in 1997 . . . It was the fifth time Marino led the NFL in attempts, setting a new NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass attempts . . . With 319 pass completions, Marino led the NFL in pass completions in 1997 . . . It was the sixth time Marino led the NFL in completions, setting a new NFL record for most seasons leading the league in pass completions . . . On September 14, 1997 at Green Bay, Marino attempted the 7,000th pass of his career, an interception by the Packers' Mike Prior to end the first half, becoming the first quarterback in NFL history to attempt 7,000 passes . . . On Nov. 2, 1997 at Buffalo, Marino had only five completions in 15 attempts before leaving the game permanently early in the second half with a left ankle sprain . . . His five completions is tied for his single-game career-low (he also had five completions on September 23, 1996 at Indianapolis) . . . His 15 pass attempts is the second lowest single-game total of attempts in his career (surpassed only by his eight attempts at Indianapolis on November 23, 1996) . . . His 33.3% completion percentage in that Bills contest also is the lowest single-game figure of his career . . . On Dec. 14, 1997 at Indianapolis, Marino was 7-15 for 71 yards before being replaced by Craig Erickson in the second half . . . His 15 pass attempts again matched the second lowest single-game figure of his career . . . His seven completions is the third lowest single-game total of his career . . . On Nov. 23, 1997 at New England, Marino had 38 completions in 60 attempts . . . His 38 completions is the second highest single-game total of his career and in Dolphins history, surpassed only by his team record of 39 completions at Buffalo on November 16, 1986 . . . His 60 attempts is tied for the highest regular season single-game total of his career and in Dolphins history, along with his 60 attempts versus the N.Y. Jets on October 23, 1988 . . . It also is the second highest overall single-game attempts total (including playoffs) of Marino's career and in Dolphins history (including playoffs), surpassed only by Marino's 64 attempts in an AFC First Round Playoff game on December 30, 1995 at Buffalo . . .

YARDAGE: On Nov. 30, 1997 at Oakland, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, the 12th time in his career that he passed for 3,000 or more yards . . . Marino had four 300-yard passing games in 1997, on Dec. 7, 1997 versus Detroit when he threw for 310 yards, on Nov. 23, 1997 at New England when he threw for 389 yards, on Oct. 12, 1997 at N.Y. Jets when he threw for 372 yards, and on Sept. 7, 1997 vs. Tennessee when he threw for 324 yards, and the Dolphins went 3-1 in those four games . . . When Marino threw for 389 yards at New England on Nov. 23, 1997, it was his highest single-game yardage total since he passed for 422 yards in an AFC First Round playoff game at Buffalo on December 30, 1995 and the most in a regular season contest since he threw for 450 yards at Cincinnati on October 1, 1995 . . . When Marino threw for 324 yards vs. Tennessee on Sept. 7, 1997, it marked his first 300-yard game under Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson and his first 300-yard passing game since December 31, 1995 when he threw for 422 yards in a First-Round Playoff game at Buffalo . . . It was Marino's first 300-yard regular season game since December 3, 1995 when he passed for 343 yards in a 21-20 victory over Atlanta in Miami . . . On Dec. 14, 1997 at Indianapolis, Marino had only 71 yards passing before being replaced by Craig Erickson in the third quarter . . . Marino's 71 yards passing is the second lowest single-game total of his career, surpassed only by his 67 yards passing at Indianapolis on September 23, 1996 when he was forced from the game with a fractured ankle . . . On Nov. 2, 1997 at Buffalo, Marino had only 76 yards passing before leaving the game permanently early in second quarter with a left ankle sprain . . . His 76 yards passing in that contest is the third lowest single-game total of his career . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: On Nov. 17, 1997 versus Buffalo, Marino's TD pass to Ed Perry was his tenth touchdown pass of the season, with each of those TD passing going to a different receiver . . . Marino became the first player in NFL history to have his first ten TD passes of the season go to ten different receivers . . . Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in ten of his 16 regular season games in 1997 . . . Two of the games when Marino did not throw a TD pass came in the first two games of the 1997 season, and it marked only the fourth time in his career that Marino has not thrown a touchdown pass in consecutive games . . . When he threw a touchdown pass to Charles Jordan on his final attempt of the game on Sept. 14, 1997 at Green Bay, it ended a streak of two-plus games (covering the first two games of the season and most of the Packer game) that Marino did not throw a touchdown pass, covering 116 attempts . . . It also included 11 consecutive quarters (the first 11 quarters of the season) that Marino went without throwing a touchdown pass, the longest such streak of his career . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: Marino had seven games in 1997 without an interception . . . He went four straight games without throwing an interception in 1997 (from game four, on Sept. 21st at Tampa Bay through game seven, on Oct. 19th at Baltimore), tying him with Bob Griese's Dolphins record of going four consecutive games (which Griese set in the fifth through eighth games in 1971) without an interception . . . Marino's 11-yard completion to O.J. McDuffie in the fourth quarter at the N.Y. Jets on Oct. 12, 1997 was his 123rd straight pass attempt without an interception, breaking Griese's club record of 122 consecutive passes without an interception, which Griese set in the 10th through the 14th games in 1967 . . . Marino extended that club record to 156 consecutive passes without an interception, before breaking that streak when he was intercepted by the Bears' Anthony Marshall in the first quarter on Oct. 27, 1997 versus Chicago . . . His last interception before Marshall's pick came on the last play of the first half at Green Bay on Sept. 14th, and he went over 4-1/2 games (the second half of game three and all of games four through seven plus the early part of game eight) since then without an INT . . . On Dec. 28, 1997, in an AFC Wild Card playoff game at New England, Marino was intercepted by the Patriots' Todd Collins, who returned the INT 40 yards for a touchdown . . . It was the first time in Marino's post-season career he had an interception returned for a touchdown . . . It also was the fifth time in 1997 (including four times in regular season play) that he had an interception returned for a touchdown . . . On Dec. 7, 1997 versus Detroit, Marino was intercepted by the Lions' Bryant Westbrook, who returned the INT 64 yards for a touchdown, the fourth time in the 1997 regular season Marino had an interception returned for a touchdown . . . On Nov. 23, 1997 at New England, Marino threw three interceptions, two of which were returned for touchdowns, a 60-yard return for a touchdown by Larry Whigham and a 100-yard return for a TD by Jimmy Hitchcock . . . Hitchcock's return was tied for the second longest interception return by a Dolphins opponent (along with the Jets' Aaron Glenn's 100-yard return of a Marino INT on Sept. 15, 1996 in Miami), surpassed only by the Raiders' Eddie Anderson's 102-yard return of a Marino interception on December 14, 1992 in Miami . . . The two Patriot interception returns for touchdowns marked only the second time in Marino's career and in Dolphins history that two interceptions were returned for touchdowns in the same game . . . The only other time that happened in Dolphins history was on December 18, 1988 in Pittsburgh when the Steelers' Dwayne Woodruff returned a Marino interception 78 yards for a touchdown, followed by Darin Jordan's 28-yard touchdown return of another Marino interception . . . On August 31, 1997 vs. Indianapolis, Marino was intercepted by the Colts' Elijah Alexander, who returned the INT 43 yards for a touchdown . . . Marino's four interceptions for touchdowns in the 1997 regular season matches the highest single regular season figure in Marino's career, along with his four INTs for touchdowns in 1988 and in 1992 . . .

SACKS: Marino was sacked 20 times in 1997, the fifth highest single season total of his career . . . He had seven complete games without a sack in 1997, and the Dolphins were 5-2 in those contests . . . Marino was sacked four times in an AFC Wild Card game on Dec. 28, 1997 at New England and also Oct. 27, 1997 versus Chicago . . . His four sacks in those two contests was tied for the third highest single-game total of his career, only behind his five sacks at New Orleans on November 29, 1992 and vs. the N.Y. Jets on Dec. 13, 1998 . . . When John Thierry sacked Marino and forced him to fumble out of the end zone for a safety in that Bears contest on Oct. 27th, it marked the first time Marino had been sacked for a safety since November 26, 1995, when the Colts' Tony Bennett dropped Marino in the end zone in Indianapolis for a safety . . .

SERVICE: Marino was one of only 11 quarterbacks in the NFL to have started all 16 games in 1997, joining Troy Aikman (Dallas), Tony Banks (St. Louis), Drew Bledsoe (New England), Trent Dilfer (Tampa Bay), John Elway (Denver), Brett Favre (Green Bay), Jeff George (Oakland), Steve McNair (Tennessee), Scott Mitchell (Detroit), and Kordell Stewart (Pittsburgh) . . . It marked the tenth time in Marino's career that he has started every game in a 16-game season, and his first since 1994 . . . Until suffering a left ankle sprain on Nov. 2, 1997 at Buffalo, Marino had taken every snap for the Dolphins in 1997, covering all of the first eight games and most of the first half of the ninth contest . . . At the time of that injury Marino had been one of only five quarterbacks in the NFL to have taken every snap in 1997 (including Detroit's Scott Mitchell, Green Bay's Brett Favre, Minnesota's Brad Johnson, and Oakland's Jeff George) . . . The game against the Bills on Nov. 2, 1997 (when he missed the final play of the first half and all but the first series of the second half) and the contest at Indianapolis on Dec. 14, 1997 when Erickson relieved Marino in the third quarter were the only two contests that season that Marino failed to take every snap in a game . . .

PLAYOFFS: In his one playoff game in 1997, an AFC Wild Card playoff game on Dec. 28, 1997 at New England, Marino was 17-43 for 141 yards, no touchdowns, two interceptions, and four sacks . . . Marino's completion percentage in that contest (39.5%) is the lowest completion percentage in his playoff career and it is the fourth lowest completion percentage overall in his career, including regular season and playoff games . . . His 141 yards passing is the lowest total in his playoff career . . . That Patriots game also marked the first time in Marino's playoff career that he failed to throw a touchdown pass, ending his NFL record streak of passing for at least one touchdown pass in 13 consecutive playoff games, covering his first 13 postseason contests . . . It also marked only the 33rd time overall in his career, including playoffs, that Marino has failed to throw a touchdown pass . . . In that Patriots game, Marino was intercepted twice, including one by Todd Collins, who returned the INT 40 yards for a touchdown . . . It was the first time in Marino's post-season career he had an interception returned for a touchdown . . . It also was the fifth time in 1997 (including four times in regular season play) that he had an interception returned for a touchdown . . . It also marked the 23rd time overall (22 times in the regular season and once in the playoffs) that Marino had an interception returned for a touchdown . . . Marino's four sacks in that Patriots contest ties the third highest total of his career, surpassed only by his five sacks at New Orleans on November 29, 1992 and vs. the N.Y. Jets on Dec. 13, 1998 . . .

1996 - Started 13 of 16 games in 1996 and finished 221-373 for 2,795 yards, 17 touchdowns, nine interceptions, and 18 sacks for a rating of 87.8 . . . Finished ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in quarterback ratings . . . Suffered fractured right ankle in first series of game on Sept. 23, 1996 at Indianapolis on a 34-yard pass completion to O.J. McDuffie . . . It was the first time he was forced from a game permanently due to injury since September 18, 1995 vs. Pittsburgh, when he was forced from that contest late in the third quarter due to a contusion of the sternum following a tackle by the Steelers' Greg Lloyd . . . Marino underwent an arthroscopic debridement (cleaning) as well as an internal fixation (screw insertion) of his right ankle fracture on September 24, 1996 . . . The surgery was performed at HealthSouth Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables by Dolphins team physicians Dr. John Uribe and Dr. Dan Kanell . . . Missed next three games (Oct. 6th vs. Seattle, Oct. 13th at Buffalo, and Oct. 20th at Philadelphia) while recovering from that surgery, and the Dolphins went 1-2 in those three contests . . . Started all four preseason games and in those contests Marino was 28-50 (56.0%) for 348 yards, three touchdowns and one interception for a rating of 89.4 . . .

ATTEMPTS AND COMPLETIONS: On Sept. 23, 1996 at Indianapolis, Marino completed only five passes in eight attempts before leaving the game permanently midway in the first quarter with a sprained right ankle . . . His pass attempts and completions in that contest both represent his single-game career lows, breaking his former single-game lows of eight completions and 16 attempts, both set on November 25, 1989 vs. Pittsburgh (Marino later matched his low of five completions on Nov. 2, 1997 at Buffalo) . . . On Nov. 25, 1996 vs. Pittsburgh, he completed his first seven passes at the start of the game before throwing an incompleteness, and coupled with the seven straight completions he had to finish his previous contest, at Houston on Nov. 17, 1996, his 14 consecutive completions over those two games is the second highest figure in club history, surpassed only by his team record of 15 consecutive completions, which he set over the course of two games, on Nov. 8, 1992 at Indianapolis and on Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo . . . In addition, on Nov. 10, 1996 vs. Indianapolis, Marino completed 13 consecutive passes, tying him with Earl Morrall (Dec. 1, 1975 at New England) for third place on the Dolphins' all-time list for most consecutive completions . . .

YARDAGE: On Nov. 10, 1996 vs Indianapolis, when Marino completed a 36-yard pass to O.J. McDuffie in the second quarter, he went over 50,000 career yards passing, becoming the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for 50,000 yards . . . John Elway reached that milestone in 1998, becoming only the second QB to throw for 50,000 yards . . . Marino, who took 193 career games to throw for 50,000 yards, reached that plateau faster than Elway (229 games):

GAMES NEEDED FOR 50,000 PASSING YARDS

NAME	FIRST SEASON	BORN	DATE TO REACH 50,000 YARDS	GAMES TO REACH 50,000 YARDS	CAREER PASS YARDS
DAN MARINO*	1983	9/5/61	10/10/96	193	58,913
John Elway	1983	6/28/60	11/22/98	229	51,475

* - active players

In 1996, Marino threw for 2,795 yards, the second lowest single-season yardage total of his career (not including the 1993 season when he played in only five games), behind only his rookie year of 1983 when he threw for 2,210 yards . . . Marino did not have a game passing for 400 or 300 yards in 1996 . . . It marked the first time in Marino's career (except for the 1993 season when he played in only five games) when he did not have a 300-yard passing game in a season . . . On Sept. 23, 1996 at Indianapolis, Marino had only 67 yards passing before being forced from the game permanently midway through the first quarter with a fractured right ankle . . . His 67 yards passing in that contest is his new career single-game low in passing yardage, fewer than his previous single game low of 90 yards passing at the L.A. Raiders on Sept. 19, 1983 . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: On Sept. 15, 1996 vs. N.Y. Jets, Marino had an interception by the Jets' Aaron Glenn returned 100 yards for a touchdown . . . It was tied for the second longest INT return against the Dolphins in club history (along with the Patriots' Jim Hitchcock, who returned a Marino INT 100 yards for a TD on Nov. 23, 1997), surpassed only by a 102-yard return by the L.A. Raiders' Eddie Anderson of a Marino pass at Miami on Dec. 14, 1992 . . . It also was the first time an opponent had returned a Marino interception for a touchdown since Ray Buchanan of the Indianapolis Colts returned a Marino INT 28 yards for a TD on November 6, 1994 . . . On Dec. 1, 1996 at Oakland, Marino's first interception in that contest, by the Raiders' Terry McDaniel in the second quarter, ended a streak of 110 consecutive passes Marino threw without an interception, dating back to the third quarter on Nov. 3, 1996 at New England and covering the remainder of that game, the next three complete games, and Marino's first 11 passes against the Raiders . . . He finished 12 passes shy of tying Bob Griese's former club record of 122 consecutive passes without an interception, which Griese set in the tenth through 14th games in 1967, a record Marino did break in 1997 . . . In addition, the interception by McDaniel broke a streak of three consecutive games when Marino did not throw an interception (Nov. 10th vs. Indianapolis, Nov. 17th at Houston, and Nov. 25th vs. Pittsburgh), leaving him one game short of tying the Dolphins record of four straight games without an INT, which was set by Griese in the fifth through eighth games in 1971 and later tied by Marino in 1994 and again in 1996 and 1997 . . .

SACKS: Marino's 18 sacks in 1996 is tied for the sixth highest single-season sack total of his career . . . Marino was not sacked three times in 1996, on Oct. 27th vs. Dallas, on Sept. 23rd at Indianapolis, and on Sept. 1st vs. New England, and the Dolphins went 1-2 in those three contests . . .

1995 — Started 14 of 16 games in 1995 and finished 309-482 (64.1%) for 3,668 yards, 24 touchdowns and 15 interceptions for a 90.8 rating . . . Marino ranked second in the AFC (behind Jim Harbaugh) and eighth in the NFL in passing, was third in the AFC (John Elway and Jeff Blake) and ninth in the NFL in passing yards, and was third in the AFC (behind Blake and Elway) and tied for eighth in the NFL in touchdown passes . . . Marino's completion percentage of 64.1% is the second highest completion percentage of his career, surpassed only by his team record of 64.2% in 1984 and is the second highest single-season completion percentage in Dolphins history . . . Missed games on Oct. 22nd at N.Y. Jets and Oct. 15th at New Orleans because of his knee and hip injuries . . . In contest vs. Indianapolis on Oct. 8th, Marino suffered a contusion of his left hip and cartilage damage in his right knee . . . He underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right knee on October 9th at Holy Cross Medical Center by Dolphins team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato to remove loose cartilage in that knee . . . Started all four preseason games and in those contests was 23-54 (42.6%) for 341 yards, two touchdowns, three interceptions and three sacks for 12 yards in losses, a rating of 53.1 . . . In preseason game on August 11th at Atlanta was 0-7 for no yards, marking the first time in either a preseason or regular season game since he began his Dolphins career in 1983 that Marino failed to complete at least one pass . . . In 1995, along with Dan McGwire and Bernie Kosar, it marked the first time in NFL history that a team had three quarterbacks on the regular season roster at the same time who were all first round draft picks . . .

ATTEMPTS AND COMPLETIONS: On Dec. 11, 1995 vs. Kansas City, Marino attempted the 6,468th pass of his career (an incomplete pass intended for Randal Hill in the fourth quarter) to break Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for most career pass attempts . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record with a two-yard completion to Eric Green earlier in the fourth quarter . . . On Oct. 8, 1995 vs. Indianapolis, Marino completed the 3,687th pass of his career (a six-yard completion to Keith Byars in the second quarter) to break Tarkenton's NFL record for most career completions . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record with a five-yard touchdown pass to Irving Spikes in the first quarter of that game . . .

YARDAGE: On Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England, with a nine-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the first quarter, Marino passed Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career passing yards), breaking Tarkenton's NFL record for most career passing yards and moving into first place on the NFL all-time career passing yardage list . . . On Dec. 11, 1995 vs. Kansas City, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, the 11th time he passed for 3,000 or more yards . . . Marino had two 400-yard passing games in 1995, in the AFC Wild Card playoff game on Dec. 30, 1995 at Buffalo when he threw for 422 yards (the most by any Dolphins player in playoff history), and on Oct. 1, 1995 at Cincinnati, when he threw for 450 yards, the fourth highest single-game total of his career and the fourth highest single game total in club history:

Marino had four 300-yard games in 1995, in AFC Wild Card playoff game on Dec. 30, 1995 at Buffalo, when he threw for 422 yards, on Dec. 3, 1995 vs. Atlanta, when he threw for 343 yards, on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England, when he threw for 333 yards, and on Oct. 1, 1995 at Cincinnati, when he threw for 450 yards . . . Marino's 343 yards passing on Dec. 3, 1995 vs. Atlanta was the 52nd regular season game of 300 or more passing yards in Marino's career, breaking Dan Fouts' former NFL record of 51 career regular season 300-yard games . . . Marino tied Fouts' record of 51 regular season career 300-yard games when he had 333 yards passing on Nov. 12, 1995 vs. New England . . .

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: Marino's first touchdown pass on Nov. 26, 1995 at Indianapolis, a six-yard TD pass to Keith Byars with 13:54 elapsed in the second quarter, was Marino's 343rd TD pass of his career, breaking Fran Tarkenton's former NFL record of most career touchdown passes (342), making Marino the league's all-time leader in career TD passes . . . Marino tied Tarkenton's record vs. San Francisco on November 20, 1995, with a four-yard TD pass to O.J. McDuffie in the third quarter . . . Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in 13 of his 14 regular season games in 1995 as well as in his one playoff contest . . . On Nov. 26th vs. Indianapolis, Marino threw four touchdown passes . . . On Dec. 3, 1995 vs. Atlanta, his second touchdown pass of the game, a 21-yard TD pass to Irving Fryar, marked Marino's 20th touchdown pass of the season, extending his own NFL record for most years throwing for 20 or more touchdown passes to 12 seasons . . .

INTERCEPTIONS: When Marino was intercepted by Junior Seau in the second quarter on Nov. 5, 1995 at San Diego, it ended a streak of 114 straight passes Marino threw without an interception, dating back to the first quarter at Cincinnati on October 1st when Andre Collins intercepted a Marino pass, covering the remainder of that game, the next two games Marino played (Oct. 8th vs. Indianapolis and Oct. 29th vs. Buffalo) and the Charger game until Seau's INT . . . It left Marino eight attempts short of Bob Griese's team record of 122 consecutive passes without an interception, a record Marino later broke in 1997 . . . In addition, when Marino was intercepted by Wilber Marshall in the first quarter in the 1995 season opener vs. N.Y. Jets on Sept. 3rd, it ended a streak of 105 straight passes Marino threw without an interception, including his final 102 passes in 1994 (covering all three final regular season games) and the first three passes he threw in the Jets contest in 1995 . . . On Dec. 24, 1995 at St. Louis, Marino was intercepted by Toby Wright, Marino's 200th interception of his career . . .

SACKS: On Nov. 26, 1995 at Indianapolis, Marino was sacked four times, the second straight game he was sacked four times . . . He also had been sacked four times on Nov. 20, 1995 vs. San Francisco, including three sacks in the Dolphins' first three offensive plays from scrimmage . . . The four sacks in those two games are both tied for the second highest single-game total of Marino's career . . .

UNDER DON SHULA: Marino is one of ten quarterbacks to have started games when Don

Shula coached the Dolphins from 1970 through 1995, and his 184 regular season starts under Shula is the most by any Dolphins quarterback during that time:

DOLPHINS STARTING QUARTERBACKS UNDER DON SHULA
QUARTERBACK	YEARS	STARTS
Bob Griese	1970-80	119
George Mira	1971	1
Earl Morrall	1972-76	12

Kyle Mackey (Replacement games)	1987	3
Scott Mitchell	1990-93	7
Steve DeBerg	1993	4
Bernie Kosar	1995	2

In addition, in Shula's coaching career (including his tenure as head coach of the Colts from 1963-69), Marino has accounted for more wins during that span than any other quarterback who played under Shula:

Marino's 116 wins under Shula are the most victories by a head coach - quarterback combination in NFL history, surpassing the previous high of 107 wins recorded by Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll and Terry Bradshaw . . . In addition, the Marino-Shula duo was together for 13 seasons, which is tied for the second longest quarterback-head coach combination in NFL history:

LONGEST RUNNING QUARTERBACK-COACH COMBINATIONS IN NFL HISTORY
QUARTERBACK	COACH	TEAM	YEARS TOGETHER
1. Terry Bradshaw	Chuck Noll	Pittsburgh	1970-1983 (14)
2. DAN MARINO	DON SHULA	MIAMI	1983-1995 (13)

PRO BOWL: Marino was named as the starting quarterback for the 1995 AFC Pro Bowl team, but he was not able to play in the game due to soreness in his right knee . . . He joined three other Dolphins - tackle Richmond Webb, guard Keith Sims, and inside linebacker Bryan Cox - to be selected to the AFC squad . . . It was Marino's ninth career Pro Bowl selection (1983-87, 1991-92, 1994-95), and his seventh selection as a starter (1983-86, 1992, 1994-95), but due to injuries he has been able to play in only two games (1984, 1992) . . . Marino's nine Pro Bowl selections extended his Dolphins record for most career selections, surpassing the former record of six selections that had previously been set by quarterback Bob Griese (1970-71, 1973-74, 1977-78), center Jim Langer (1973-78), and guard Bob Kuechenberg (1974-75, 1977-78, 1982-83) . . . Marino's seven Pro Bowl starts extended his own Dolphins record for career starts, surpassing the former record of five starts that had previously been set by Langer (1973-77) . . . When Marino was selected to the Pro Bowl following his rookie season in 1983, he became the youngest quarterback ever selected to the Pro Bowl:

YOUNGEST PRO BOWL QUARTERBACKS (1970-98)

Named to squad by AFC coaching staff as a "need" player

HONORS: Marino was named AFC Player of the Week once in 1995, for the week of December 2-3 following his performance on December 3rd against Atlanta when he went 35-50 for 343 yards, two touchdowns, two interceptions, and no sacks . . . His second touchdown pass, a 21-yard TD pass to Irving Fryar, came with 11 seconds left in the game, accounted for the final points in the game to bring the Dolphins back from a 20-15 deficit to a 21-20 comeback win . . . His touchdown pass to Fryar also was Marino's 20th TD pass of the season, marking the 12th time in his 13 years in the NFL he has thrown for 20 or more touchdown passes, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 20 or more touchdowns . . . Marino's 343 yards passing versus the Falcons was his third 300-yard passing game of the season and his 52nd career 300-yard passing game in the regular season, breaking Dan Fouts' former NFL record of most career games passing for 300 or more yards (51) . . . In addition, Marino's 35 completions against the Falcons is tied for the second most completions in a game in Marino's career (accomplished twice previously) and in Dolphins history, surpassed only by his 39 completions at Buffalo on November 16, 1986 . . . It was the 15th time that Marino won the AFC Offensive Player of the Week honor . . .

PLAYOFFS: In his one playoff game in 1995, an AFC Wild Card playoff game on Dec. 30, 1995 at Buffalo, Marino was 33-64 (51.6%) for 422 yards, two touchdowns and three interceptions for a 63.4 rating . . . His 64 attempts is Marino's single-game career high (playoffs or regular season), it is the most by any Dolphins player in a postseason or regular season game, breaking Marino's club playoff record of 50 attempts in Super Bowl XIX vs. San Francisco on January 20, 1985, and it surpassed the overall Dolphins team record of 60 attempts by Marino on October 23, 1988 vs. the N.Y. Jets . . . In addition, his 64 attempts tied the highest single-game total in NFL postseason history, matching the record of 64 attempts by Cleveland's Bernie Kosar versus the N.Y. Jets on January 3, 1987 . . . Marino's 33 completions is his single-game playoff high and it is the most by any Dolphins player in the postseason, breaking the Dolphins single-game playoff record of 29 completions, which was set by Don Strock on January 2, 1982 vs. San Diego and later tied by Marino in Super Bowl XIX vs. San Francisco on January 20, 1985 . . . It also is tied for the second highest single-game total in NFL playoff history, along with the 33 completions by San Diego's Dan Fouts at Miami on January 2, 1982 and matched by Cleveland's Bernie Kosar versus the N.Y. Jets on January 3, 1987, surpassed only by the NFL postseason record of 36 completions by Houston's Warren Moon at Buffalo on January 3, 1993 . . . Marino's 422 yards passing vs. the Bills was the most yards passing by any Dolphins player in the postseason, breaking the Dolphins single-game playoff record of 421 yards passing by Marino in the AFC Championship game vs. Pittsburgh on January 6, 1985 . . . It also was the third highest single-game total in NFL playoff history, surpassed only by the 489 yards passing by Cleveland's Bernie Kosar versus the N.Y. Jets on January 3, 1987 and the 433 yards passing by San Diego's Dan Fouts at Miami on January 2, 1982 ... Marino's 422 yards passing was his second 400-yard passing game in 1995 and it also was his 15th career 400-yard passing game (including two playoff games) ... It also was Marino's 56th career 300-yard passing game (including four playoff games) ... Marino's two touchdown passes in that AFC Wild Card game at Buffalo came on a five-yard TD pass to O.J. McDuffie and a 45-yard TD pass to Randal Hill.

1994 – Started all 16 games (and both playoff contests) in 1994 and finished the season going 385 for 615 (62.6%) for 4,453 yards, 30 touchdowns, 17 interceptions and 17 sacks for an 89.2 rating ... In the preseason played in four games and was 22-43 (51.1%) for 314 yards, three touchdowns, two interceptions, and no sacks for a rating of 79.0 ... Marino ranked first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Steve Young and Brett Favre) in passing efficiency, second in the AFC and in the NFL (behind Drew Bledsoe) in attempts, second in the AFC and in the NFL (behind Bledsoe) in completions, second in the AFC and in the NFL (behind Bledsoe) in yards passing, and first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Young and Favre) in touchdown passes ... It marked the first time that Marino led the AFC in passing efficiency since 1986 ...

ATTEMPTS AND COMPLETIONS: With 615 pass attempts in 1994, Marino had the second highest number of attempts in Dolphins history, surpassed only by the team record he set in 1986 with 623 attempts ... On Dec. 18, 1994 at Indianapolis, Marino attempted the 6,000th pass of his career, joining Fran Tarkenton as the only two quarterbacks in NFL history to record 6,000 pass attempts ... On Oct. 2, 1994 at Cincinnati, Marino attempted his 5,605th pass of his career and moved past Dan Fouts into second place among the NFL all-time pass completion leaders, behind only Tarkenton ... With 385 completions in 1994, Marino set a new Dolphins record for most completions in a season, breaking the former team record for most completions in a season, which he set in 1986 with 378 completions ... On Sept. 25, 1994 at Minnesota, Marino completed the 3,298th pass of his career to move past Fouts into sole possession of second place among the NFL all-time pass completion leaders, behind only Tarkenton ... Marino's completion percentage in 1994 of 62.6% was the third highest completion percentage of his career and is the fourth highest single-season completion percentage in Dolphins history ...

YARDAGE: On Nov. 6, 1994 vs. Indianapolis, Marino passed Dan Fouts (43,040 career passing yards) and moved into second place on the NFL's all-time career passing yardage list ... Marino's 4,453 yards passing in 1994 is the third highest single-season total in Dolphins history, surpassed only by his NFL record of 5,084 yards passing in 1984 and 4,746 yards passing in 1986 ... On Dec. 18, 1994 at Indianapolis, Marino went over 4,000 yards passing for the season, marking the sixth time in his career he has thrown for 4,000 or more yards in a season, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 4,000 yards ... Marino is the only quarterback in NFL history to have six 4,000-yard seasons (1984-86, 1988, 1992, 1994) ... Along with Fouts, he is the only other QB to pass for 4,000 yards in three straight seasons (1984-86) ... Marino's six 4,000-yard seasons account for four of the top 11 and six of the 26 leading single-season passing yardage totals in NFL history:

On Nov. 20, 1994 at Pittsburgh, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, his tenth 3,000-yard season ... Marino had two 400-yard passing games in 1994, on Sept. 4th vs. New England, when he threw for 473 yards, and on Sept. 25th at Minnesota, when Marino threw for 431 yards ... Those two figures represent the second highest and sixth highest single-game passing yardage totals in Dolphins history ... Marino had five 300-yard passing games in 1994, on September 4, 1994 vs. New England, when Marino threw for 473 yards, on Sept. 25th at Minnesota, when Marino threw for 431 yards, on Nov. 20th at Pittsburgh, when Marino threw for 312 yards, on Nov. 27th at the N.Y. Jets, when Marino threw for 359 yards, and on Dec. 4th vs. Buffalo, when he threw for 311 yards ... Marino's three consecutive games of 300 or more passing yards (Nov. 20th at Pittsburgh, Nov. 27th at N.Y. Jets, and Dec. 4th vs. Buffalo) tied his own team record for most consecutive 300-yard passing games ... He previously had three consecutive 300-yard passing games in the 14th through 16th games in 1984 and then tied that record in the 13th through 15th games in 1988 ...

TOUCHDOWN PASSES: On September 4, 1994 vs. New England, Marino threw for five touchdown passes ... His second touchdown pass in that contest, a 26-yard TD pass to Keith Jackson, was the 300th touchdown pass of Marino's career ... He joined Fran Tarkenton (342 career TD passes) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history to reach that milestone, with John Elway (300 career TD passes) joining them in 1998 ... Marino, who took 157 career games to throw for 300 TD passes, reached that plateau faster than Tarkenton (217 games) and Elway (234 games):

In addition to that game, Marino had one other contest in 1994 when he threw for four or more touchdown passes, throwing four TD passes on Nov. 27th at the N.Y. Jets ... All four of his TD passes in that Jets contest were caught by Mark Ingram, who tied the Dolphins single-game team records for most points, touchdowns, and touchdown receptions, all of which originally were set by Paul Warfield when he had four TD receptions on Dec. 15, 1973 vs. Detroit ... When Marino threw for five touchdowns on September 4th vs. New England, it was the 18th time he threw for four or more touchdowns, breaking an NFL record he had shared with Johnny Unitas for most career games (17) throwing four or more touchdown passes ... On Nov. 13th vs. Chicago, Marino's 11-yard touchdown pass to Keith Jackson was his 20th TD pass of the season, his 11th season throwing 20 or more touchdown passes ... Marino finished the 1994 season with 30 touchdown passes, which is tied for the third highest single-season total of his career, surpassed only by his NFL record of 48 touchdown passes in 1984 and his 44 TD passes in 1986 (he also had 30 touchdown passes in 1985) ... On Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Marino threw a four-yard touchdown pass to Irving Fryar, which was Marino's 30th touchdown pass of the season ... It marked the fourth time in his career (1984-86, 94) he threw for 30 or more touchdowns, extending his own NFL record for most seasons throwing 30 or more touchdown passes, a record later broken by Brett Favre (1994-98) ...

INTERCEPTIONS, SACKS AND RUSHING: Marino did not throw an interception in five games in 1994 (seven, including playoffs), and the Dolphins went 3-2 in those five games (4-3, including playoffs) ... Overall including the post-season, Marino went the final five games of the 1994 season without throwing an interception (the last three regular season contests and the playoff games on December 31st vs. Kansas City and January 8th at San Diego), covering his last 169 pass attempts . . . On Nov. 6th at Indianapolis, Marino threw an interception to the Colts' Ray Buchanan, who returned it 28 yards for a touchdown . . . It was the first time Marino had an interception returned for a TD since Bobby Houston of the New York Jets returned a Marino interception for a touchdown on December 20, 1992 in Miami . . . Marino was not sacked in seven games in 1994 (Dec. 25th vs. Detroit, Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Nov. 27th at N.Y. Jets, Oct. 30th at New England, Oct. 9th at Buffalo, Oct. 2nd at Cincinnati and Sept. 18th vs. N.Y. Jets), and the Dolphins went 6-1 in those contests . . . Marino was sacked four times on Nov. 20, 1994 at Pittsburgh, the most he was sacked in a game in 1994 . . . In his first game of the 1994 season, on September 4th vs. New England, Marino finished second on the Dolphins in rushing with eight yards on two carries, including a ten-yard run . . . On Dec. 12th vs. Kansas City, Marino rushed for a four-yard touchdown, his only rushing touchdown of the 1994 season . . .

COMEBACKS: In 1994, Marino led the Dolphins to four fourth-quarter comebacks: On Nov. 27th in New York, when Marino was 15-18 for 164 yards and two touchdowns and no interceptions to lead the Dolphins back from a 24-14 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 28-24 win (In addition, Marino brought the Dolphins back from an 18-point deficit in the third quarter (24-6), which tied for the second-best comeback in team history, along with an 18-point rebound on January 4, 1986 in an AFC Playoff contest against the Cleveland Browns in which the Dolphins came back from a 21-3 deficit to post a 24-21 win; the Dolphins had a club-record 24-point comeback on December 15, 1974 vs. New England, rebounding from a 24-0 deficit to a 34-27 victory); On Nov. 6th vs. Indianapolis, when Marino went 13-16 for 123 yards, one touchdown, and one interception in the fourth quarter to lead the Dolphins back from a 14-6 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 22-21 win; On Oct. 16th vs. the L.A. Raiders, when Marino went 4-9 for 55 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions in the fourth quarter and overtime to lead the Dolphins back from a 17-10 deficit at the start of the fourth quarter to a 20-17 win in overtime; And on Sept. 4th vs. New England, when Marino went 8-13 for 179 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions to lead the Dolphins back from a 35-32 deficit in the fourth quarter to a 39-35 victory . . . His 179 yards passing in the fourth quarter of that game are the most yards passing for Marino in the fourth quarter in any of his fourth-quarter comeback wins . . .

PRO BOWL: Marino was named as the starting quarterback for the 1994 AFC Pro Bowl team, but he was not able to play in the game due to soreness in his Achilles' tendon . . . He joined four other Dolphins - tackle Richmond Webb, guard Keith Sims, wide receiver Irving Fryar, and inside linebacker Bryan Cox - to be selected to the AFC squad . . . It was Marino's eighth career Pro Bowl selection and his sixth selection as a starter . . .

HONORS: For the 1994 season, Marino was named as second-team All-NFL by the Associated Press, first team All-AFC by United Press International and Football News, the AFC Most Valuable Player by the National Football League Players Association, and AFC Comeback Player of the Year by the NFLPA . . . Marino won the AFC Offensive Player of the Week Award twice overall in 1994, once in the regular season and once in the playoffs . . . His regular season honor was for the week of Sept. 4-5, when he was selected as AFC Offensive Player of the Week as a result of his performance against the New England Patriots . . . In that game Marino was 23-42 for 473 yards, five touchdowns, one interception, and two sacks . . . His honor in the post-season came when he was named the NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the Week of December 31-January 1 following his performance in the AFC Wild Card Playoff Game vs. Kansas City on December 31st . . . In that contest, he went 22-29 for 257 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and one sack . . . With his two TD passes vs. the Chiefs, it marked the 11th consecutive post-season game that Marino had thrown a touchdown pass, setting a new NFL record . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1994 in balloting of South Florida media for the 11th year . . . Marino also won the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award, the tenth time he won that award (1983-90, 1992, 1994) . . . His ten years winning that award surpassed the former team high set by Larry Csonka (1970-74, 1979), who had won that award six times . . .

PLAYOFFS: In his two games in the 1994 playoffs, Marino was 46-67 (68.7%) for 519 yards, five touchdowns and no interceptions for a rating of 116.4 . . . In an AFC Divisional Playoff contest on January 8, 1995 at San Diego, Marino was 24-38 for 262 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions . . . His three touchdown passes was tied for the third highest single-game total in Dolphins playoff history . . . In an AFC First Round Playoff Game vs. Kansas City on December 31, 1994, Marino went 22-29 for 257 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and one sack . . . His touchdown passes came on a one-yard pass to Ronnie Williams and a seven-yard pass to Irving Fryar . . . With his two TD passes vs. the Chiefs, it marked the 11th consecutive post-season game that Marino threw a touchdown pass, setting a new NFL record . . . Marino had been tied with ten consecutive post-season games with a TD pass along with Joe Montana (1988-93) and Ken Stabler (1973-77) . . . For his efforts in that Chiefs game, Marino was named as the NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the Week of December 31-January 1 . . . It was the second time Marino won AFC or NFL Offensive Player of the Week honors in 1994, having also won the award for the week of September 4-5 as a result of his performance against the New England Patriots . . . It also was the second time Marino won a post-season award, as he was named as NFL Offensive Player of the Week for the NFL First Round Playoff Games (January 5-6, 1990) following his performance on January 5, 1990 vs. Kansas City.

1993 – Played only five games and finished 91-150 (60.7%) for 1,218 yards, eight touchdowns, three interceptions, and seven sacks for a rating of 95.9 . . . Suffered a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg in the second quarter at Cleveland on October 10th . . . Was operated on to repair that tendon on October 11, 1993 by Dolphins team physicians Dr. Dan Kanell and Dr. Peter Indelicato at Imperial Point Medical Center . . . Was placed on Injured Reserve on October 13, 1993 and missed the remainder of the season . . . The first game he missed because of his injury, on Oct. 24, 1993 vs. Indianapolis, broke his string of playing 145 straight games (excluding the three replacement contests in 1987), dating back to the start of the 1984 season . . . The last games he missed due to injury before that Colts contest were the final two games of the 1983 campaign . . . Started all four preseason games and was 38-71 (53.5%) for 542 yards, three touchdowns and one interception for a rating of 86.7 . . . In 1993 for the first time in his career, Marino did not finish among the conference and league leaders due to his Achilles' tendon injury that ended his season after five games . . . However, at the time of his injury (following the weekend of Oct. 10th), Marino ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in passer rating, fifth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL in pass attempts, third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in completions, third in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in passing yards, and tied for second in the AFC and in the NFL in touchdown passes . . . With his 11-yard completion to Irving Fryar in the fourth quarter on September 12, 1993 vs. the N.Y. Jets, Marino went over the 40,000-yard passing mark for his career . . . He became only the fourth quarterback to pass for 40,000 yards and reached that milestone in 153 games, faster than any quarterback in NFL history:

Limited to only five games in 1993, Marino threw for 1,218 yards, the lowest single-season figure of his career . . . Marino did not have a 400-yard or 300-yard passing game in 1993 . . . Marino's first touchdown pass at Indianapolis on September 5, 1993, a 40-yard toss to Keith Jackson, gave him 291 touchdown passes for his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas and moving him into sole possession of second place on the NFL's all-time TD list . . . On October 4, 1993 vs. Washington, Marino threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to Tony Martin . . . It was tied for the third longest pass play in Marino's career and it was tied for the fourth longest play in Dolphins history . . . It also was the longest play by the Dolphins since Marino threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to Ferrell Edmunds on November 27, 1988 at the N.Y. Jets . . . Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in all five of his regular season games in 1993 . . . Marino did not throw an interception in two of his five games in 1993, and the Dolphins went 1-1 in those two contests . . . Marino was sacked seven times in his five games in 1993 . . . Marino was sacked four times on September 12, 1993 vs. the N.Y. Jets, the most he was sacked in a game in 1993 . . . It was the ninth time in his career he was sacked four or more times and was one sack shy of his single-game career high of five sacks . . . On September 26, 1993 at Buffalo, Marino scored on a four-yard touchdown run . . . It was the seventh time in the regular season (and eighth overall) that Marino has rushed for a touchdown . . . In 1993, Marino led the Dolphins to one fourth quarter comeback win, on Sept. 5th at Indianapolis, from a 20-17 deficit to a 24-20 victory . . . Marino won the AFC Player of the Week Award once in 1993, for the week of September 26, 1993, when he was 20-32 for 282 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and one rushing touchdown in the Dolphins' 22-13 win at Buffalo over the Bills.

1992 – In 1992 he started all 16 games and was 330-554 (59.6%) for 4,116 yards, 24 touchdowns, 16 interceptions, and 28 sacks for a rating of 85.1 . . . Marino finished second in the AFC (behind Warren Moon's rating of 89.3) and seventh in the NFL in passing with a rating of 85.1 . . . He was first in the AFC and the NFL in pass attempts (554), first in the AFC and the NFL in completions (330), first in the AFC and the NFL in passing yards (4,116), and was first in the AFC and second in the NFL in touchdown passes (24) . . . Marino's league-leading 554 pass attempts marked the fourth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in pass attempts during a season . . . Marino's league-leading 330 pass completions marked the fifth time in his NFL career that he led the NFL in pass completions . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino completed the 3,000th pass of his career, joining Dan Fouts (3,297) and Fran Tarkenton (3,686) as the only quarterbacks to complete 3,000 passes . . . On Nov. 16, 1992 vs. Buffalo, Marino opened the game by completing his first 11 pass attempts, and coupled with his four consecutive completions at the end of his previous contest, on Nov. 8th at Indianapolis, his 15 straight completions set a new personal high as well as a new Dolphins team record for most consecutive completions . . . The previous Dolphins record was 13 straight completions, set by Earl Morrall on December 1, 1975 against New England:

MIAMI DOLPHINS CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS HIGHS

Marino threw for 4,116 yards in 1992, the fifth season he threw for 4,000 or more yards, extending his own NFL record for most seasons passing for 4,000 yards . . . In addition, in the Houston contest on Nov. 22, 1992, Marino also extended his own NFL record for most consecutive 3,000 yard seasons to nine seasons (1984-92) . . . Marino's league-leading 4,116 passing yards marked the fifth time in his NFL career that Marino led the NFL in passing yards during a season . . . Marino had three 300-yard games in 1992, on November 16th vs. Buffalo (321 yards), October 25th vs. Indianapolis (355 yards) and on September 14th at Cleveland (322 yards) and the Dolphins were 1-2 in those contests . . . Marino's two touchdown passes on Dec. 20, 1992 vs. the N.Y. Jets gave him 290 touchdown passes for his career, tying him with Johnny Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time TD list . . . He passed for four touchdowns on October 18th against New England, tying him with Johnny Unitas' NFL record of 17 career four-touchdown passing games . . . It was his first four-TD game since he threw four touchdown passes on December 12, 1988 against the Cleveland Browns . . . In addition to his four TD passes against the Patriots, Marino threw for three touchdown passes one other time in 1992, on October 4th at Buffalo . . . On Nov. 22, 1992 vs. Houston, Marino threw his 20th touchdown pass of the season, extending his NFL record of most seasons with 20 or more touchdown passes to ten seasons (1983-92) . . . Had five games in 1992 (six, including post-season play) without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins went 3-2 in those contests (4-2 including playoffs) . . . He threw three interceptions in 1992 that were returned for touchdowns: Bobby Houston of the N.Y. Jets on Dec. 20th, Eddie Anderson of the L.A. Raiders on Dec. 14th, and Vince Buck of the Saints on Nov. 29th . . . Anderson returned his Marino interception 102 yards for a touchdown, accounting for the Raiders' only score of the game . . . His 102-yard return was tied for the third longest interception return in NFL history and was the longest INT return against the Dolphins in club history . . . Marino was sacked 28 times in 1992, the highest single-season sack total of his career, surpassing his 27 sacks in 1991 . . . Marino had two games in the regular season (Oct. 4th at Buffalo and Sept. 20th vs. L.A. Rams) and one in the playoffs (Jan. 10th vs. San Diego) in 1992 in which he was not sacked . . . On Nov. 29th at New Orleans, Marino was sacked five times, the most he has been sacked in a single-game in his career (his previous high had been four sacks six different games, including the previous two contests) . . . It was the third straight game (including Nov. 22nd vs. Houston and Nov. 16th vs. Buffalo) that Marino was sacked four or more times, and he was sacked a total of 13 times in those three games . . . One of Marino's five sacks on Nov. 29th at New Orleans resulted in a defensive touchdown when he fumbled after being sacked by Pat Swilling and the fumble was returned 28 yards for a touchdown by Robert Goff . . . It was the first time that Marino lost a fumble after a sack that was returned for a touchdown since Nov. 18, 1991 vs. Buffalo when Cornelius Bennett sacked Marino and returned his fumble six yards for a touchdown . . . When he was sacked in the end zone by Marvin Washington for a safety on Nov. 1st at the N.Y. Jets, it marked the first time in Marino's career he was sacked for a safety . . . Marino finished third on the Dolphins in rushing in 1992 with 66 yards on 20 carries, an average of 3.3 yards per rush . . . His 66 yards rushing was greater than his career rushing total (43 yards) that he accumulated heading into the 1992 season, and also had his single-season career rushing best, surpassing his previous single-season rushing high, which he set in his rookie year of 1983 when he ran for 45 yards on 28 carries . . . Marino had to leave a game twice in 1992 due to injuries . . . He missed one snap on Dec. 27th at New England due to a twisted knee . . . Marino suffered a mild concussion late in the fourth quarter on September 27th at Seattle, forcing him to miss one snap in Miami's game-winning drive (Scott Mitchell completed a key 18-yard pass on third down in his place) before returning to throw the winning 15-yard touchdown pass to Fred Banks on his third play back, and then also missed the next series when Mitchell ran out the clock to preserve the victory . . . It was the first time Marino was forced to miss a snap due to an injury since November 26, 1989 vs. Pittsburgh, when he suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in his shoulder), forcing him to leave that game for good with seven minutes left in the fourth quarter . . . In 1992, Marino led the Dolphins to six fourth quarter comebacks, Dec. 27th at New England (from 6-13 to 16-13), on Dec. 20th vs. N.Y. Jets (from 16-17 to 19-17), Nov. 22nd vs. Houston (from 13-16 to 19-16), October 11th vs. Atlanta (from 14-17 to 21-17), on September 27th at Seattle (from 12-17 to 19-17), and on September 14th at Cleveland (from 20-23 to 27-23) . . . In his two games in the 1992 playoffs Marino was 39-74 (52.7%) for 435 yards, four touchdowns, two interceptions, and four sacks for a 77.3 rating . . . In the AFC title game vs. Buffalo on January 17, 1993, Marino was 22-45 for 268 yards, one touchdown, two interceptions, and four sacks . . . In first playoff game in 1992, on January 10, 1993, vs. San Diego, Marino was 17-29 for 167 yards, three touchdowns, and no interceptions or sacks . . . His three touchdown passes is tied for the third best single-game mark in Dolphins playoff history . . . Marino was named as the starting quarterback on the 1992 AFC Pro Bowl team . . . He joined three other Dolphins who were named as starters on the AFC Pro Bowl squad: offensive lineman Richmond Webb, outside linebacker Bryan Cox, and tight end Keith Jackson (who missed the game due to injury) . . . It was Marino's seventh career Pro Bowl selection and his fifth selection as a starter . . . League-wide in 1992, Marino was named to the All-AFC first team by Football News and United Press International and was named second-team All-Pro by College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Newspaper Enterprise Association . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1992 in balloting of South Florida media for the tenth straight year . . . He also won the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back award, the ninth time he won that award.

1991 – In 1991 Marino started all 16 games and was 318-549 (57.9%) for 3,970 yards, 25 touchdowns and 13 interceptions for a rating of 85.8 . . . In his first eight games of the year, Marino was 142-260 (54.6%) with 1,811 yards (an average of 226 yards per game), eight touchdowns and six interceptions, with the Dolphins going 3-5 . . . In his last eight games, Marino was 176-289 (60.1%) for 2,159 yards (an average of 270 yards per game), 17 touchdowns and seven interceptions, and the Dolphins were 5-3 in those contests . . . He threw 16 touchdown passes in his last seven games . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery (performed by Dr. Dan Kanell) to repair loose cartilage in his left knee on December 26, 1991 . . . Marino finished third in the AFC and seventh in the NFL in passing with a rating of 85.8 . . . Was second in the AFC and the NFL in passing yards with 3,970 yards, was second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL in touchdown passes with 25, was second in the AFC and the NFL in completions with 318, and was second in the AFC and the NFL in attempts with 549 . . . With 3,970 yards passing in 1991, Marino missed by 30 yards passing to reach the 4,000-yard passing mark . . . On Dec. 1, 1991 vs. Tampa Bay, Marino went over 3,000 yards passing for the season, and he became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for 3,000 or more yards in eight seasons (1984-91) . . . Before setting that NFL record, he had been tied with Joe Montana (1981, 1983-85, 1987, 1989-90) for the previous record of seven 3,000-yard seasons . . . Marino did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1991 . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards three times in 1991: on Oct. 6th at New England (321 yards), on Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo (326 yards), and on Dec. 1st vs. Tampa Bay (307 yards) . . . Marino threw at least one touchdown pass in 13 of his 16 regular season games in 1991 . . . The three games in 1991 where Marino failed to throw a touchdown pass came in a 42-7 loss at Kansas City on Oct. 13th, a 16-13 win vs. Green Bay on September 22nd and in a 17-14 loss at Detroit on September 15th . . . The games against Green Bay and Detroit marked only the second time in his career he failed to throw a touchdown pass in back-to-back games . . . Those back-to-back touchdown-less games against the Packers and Lions comprised the bulk of a streak of nine consecutive quarters that Marino did not throw a touchdown pass . . . The streak ran from the first quarter of the game on September 15th at Detroit through the first quarter of the game on September 29th at N.Y. Jets, covering two full games and the first quarter of a third, before ending when Marino threw a TD pass to Mark Clayton on the first play of the second quarter on Sept 29th at N.Y. Jets . . . Marino threw for three touchdown passes in four games in 1991: On Sept. 1st at Buffalo, Nov. 10th vs. New England, Dec. 9th vs. Cincinnati, and Dec. 15th at San Diego . . . On Dec. 9, 1991 vs. Cincinnati, Marino threw his 20th touchdown pass of the season, marking the ninth time in his nine-year career he threw for 20 or more touchdowns passes in a season . . . He became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw 20 or more touchdown passes nine different times . . . He and Johnny Unitas had been tied for the old record as the only NFL quarterbacks ever to throw 20 or more touchdowns in eight different seasons before Marino broke that mark with his ninth season of 20 or more touchdown passes; Marino accomplished his record-setting feat in his first nine seasons in the league, while Unitas played 18 seasons in the NFL . . . Marino threw 13 interceptions in 1991, tied for the fourth lowest total of his career (in a full season) . . . His three interceptions Oct. 20th at Houston was his 1991 single-game high, and it was the first time he threw three or more interceptions since he had three INTs on September 9, 1990 at New England . . . Had seven games in 1991 without throwing an interception, and the Dolphins went 4-3 in those contests . . . Marino was sacked 27 times for 182 yards in losses in 1991, the second highest total of his career, surpassed only by his 28 sacks in 1992 . . . Overall in 1991, Marino and Scott Secules (one sack), were sacked 28 times, which tied the Dolphins for seventh place in the NFL for the fewest quarterback sacks allowed . . . It ended a streak of nine consecutive seasons that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league, including the first eight years of Marino's career . . . On Dec. 15th at San Diego, he was sacked by the Chargers' Leslie O'Neal in the fourth quarter, forcing Marino to fumble and the Chargers recovered on the Dolphins' 13-yard line . . . San Diego went in to score a touchdown to give them a 24-23 lead that they did not relinquish . . . On Nov. 18th vs. Buffalo, he was sacked for a nine-yard loss by Cornelius Bennett, forcing Marino to fumble . . . Bennett recovered the fumble and returned it six yards for a touchdown . . . Had one touchdown rushing in 1991, coming on a 10-yard scramble on Dec. 15th at San Diego . . . It was the longest touchdown run of his career . . . Was named as a reserve quarterback on the AFC Pro Bowl team in 1991, his sixth career Pro Bowl selection but he was unable to play in the game due to his recovery from arthroscopic knee surgery . . . His selection broke a three-year streak (1988-90) in which he did not make the Pro Bowl . . . Marino was named as the AFC's Offensive Player of the Week for December 1-2 after going 20-32 for 307 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions in Dolphins' 33-14 victory over Tampa Bay . . . In that game, Marino went over 3,000 passing yards for the eighth time in his career to set an NFL record for most 3,000 yard seasons, and he also extended his own NFL record to eight consecutive 3,000 yard seasons (1984-91) . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1991 in balloting of South Florida media for the ninth straight year.

1990 – Was 306-531 (57.6%) for 3,563 yards, 21 touchdowns, 11 interceptions, 15 sacks and a final rating of 82.6 . . . His 21 touchdown passes was the fourth fewest of his career in a full season, but his 11 interceptions also was the third fewest of his career in a full season (behind his six INTs as a rookie in 1983 and his nine interceptions in 1996) . . . His 6.71 average yards per gain was the second lowest among the top twenty quarterbacks in the NFL (by rating) and had only five completions of 40 or more yards . . . In his final ten games, Marino was 195-340 (57.4%) for 2,334 yards, 15 touchdowns, and four interceptions, a rating of 88.3 . . . Marino finished fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL in passing with a rating of 82.6 . . . His 531 attempts were second in the AFC and third in the NFL, his 306 completions were second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, his 3,563 passing yards were second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, his 21 touchdown passes were fifth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL, and his 2.1 interception percentage was second lowest in the AFC and fourth in the NFL . . . Marino's 13-yard completion to Jim Jensen in the second quarter on Nov. 25, 1990 at Cleveland gave Marino over 30,000 career yards passing, becoming the 11th quarterback in NFL history to throw for 30,000 yards . . . Marino reached the 30,000 yard mark in 114 career regular season games, reaching that milestone faster than any QB in league history . . . The previous record for fastest to reach 30,000 yards was 131 games by former San Diego Charger QB Dan Fouts, although Warren Moon later reached that plateau in 125 games in 1992:

Did not throw for 400 or more yards in any game in 1990, but did have two 300-yard efforts, on Dec. 9th vs. Philadelphia (365 yards), and in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo (323 yards) . . . Marino had a span of 99 straight pass attempts without throwing an interception, from the first quarter on Oct. 18th vs. New England to the second quarter on Nov. 11th at the N.Y. Jets . . . After throwing an interception in that Jets contest, then went another 91 pass attempts until his next interception, in the first quarter on Dec. 2nd at Washington . . . Overall during that entire span, starting on Oct. 18th and ending on Dec. 2nd (covering five full games and parts of two others), he had 191 pass attempts and threw just one interception . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low 15 times in 1990 for 90 yards in losses . . . Overall, Dolphins quarterbacks were sacked 16 times in 1990, the ninth year in a row that the Dolphins allowed the fewest sacks in the league (a streak that ended in 1991), including each of Marino's first eight years with the club . . . Marino had one carry for 14 yards to lead the Dolphins in rushing on Nov. 19, 1990 vs. the L.A. Raiders . . . It was the first time in his career that he led the Dolphins in rushing in a single game . . . Marino scored one touchdown rushing, coming on a two-yard run in the Divisional Playoff game at Buffalo on January 12th . . . In the 1990 regular season, Marino led the Dolphins back in the final period at New England (from 20-24 to 27-24), vs. the N.Y. Jets (from 13-16 to 20-16) and vs. the Philadelphia Eagles (10-20 to 23-20 in overtime) . . . In Miami's 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 15, 1991, Marino led the Dolphins back from a 16-3 fourth quarter deficit by completing all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and a pair of scores . . . Marino's rally from the 13-point deficit against the Chiefs was the largest fourth-quarter comeback of his career; prior to the Chiefs game, Marino's largest comeback was 11 points (17-28 to 31-28) against the San Diego Chargers on October 16, 1988 . . . In his two playoff games in 1990, Marino was 42-79 (53.2%) for 544 yards, five touchdowns and two interceptions, a rating of 85.6 . . . In the playoffs, Marino had a string of 11 straight pass completions over a two-game stretch . . . Completed his last ten pass attempts against Kansas City Chiefs in AFC First Round Playoff game on Jan. 5th, going 10-10 for 130 yards and two touchdowns (including 8-8 for 101 yards and two TDs in final quarter), and in the next game, in an AFC Divisional Playoff game on Jan. 12th at Buffalo, hit on his first pass attempt before throwing an incomplection . . . Marino's 11 consecutive pass completions is the fourth-longest streak in team history and the longest in Dolphins postseason history . . . Marino was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for December 9-10 after going 27-54 for 365 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in 23-20 overtime win over the Eagles . . . Also was named NFL Player of the Week for the First Round Playoff games (January 5-6) after going 19-30 for 221 yards, two touchdowns, and no interceptions in Miami's 17-16 win over the Chiefs . . . Marino won the Dolphins' Most Valuable Player Award in 1990 in balloting of South Florida media for the eighth straight year . . . Marino also was voted the Dolphins' Outstanding Offensive Back by the media for the eighth consecutive year.

1989 – In 1989, was 308-550 for 3,997 yards with 24 touchdowns and 22 interceptions . . . Had a quarterback rating of 76.9, finishing fifth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL in passing . . . Reached the 100-games played plateau on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the week ending September 18th after going 17-28 for 226 yards, three touchdowns (including his 200th career TD pass) and three INTs on September 17th in New England to lead Miami to a 24-10 win over the Patriots . . . Marino finished first in the AFC and third in the NFL (behind Don Majkowski's 4,318 yards and Jim Everett's 4,310 yards) in passing yardage (3,997), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 599) in attempts (550), first in the AFC and second in the NFL (behind Majkowski's 353) in completions (308), third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL in touchdown passes (24), and first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL (with Vinny Testaverde) in interceptions (22) . . . Marino's 11-yard completion to Mark Duper in the second quarter vs. Cleveland on Oct. 8th put him over 25,000 career yards passing, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone . . . With 3,997 yards passing in 1989, Marino missed his fifth 4,000-yard season by three yards . . . Marino went over the 3,000 yards passing mark on Dec. 3rd at Kansas City, his sixth straight 3,000-yard season . . . Threw for 400 yards once in 1989, accumulating 427 yards passing against the Jets on Sept. 24th, the most yards passing by an AFC quarterback in 1989 . . . Marino threw for 300 or more yards five times in 1989: Dec. 24th vs. Kansas City (339 yards), Dec. 10th vs. New England (300 yards), Nov. 12th at N.Y. Jets (359 yards), Oct. 22nd vs. Green Bay (333 yards), and on Sept. 24th vs. the Jets (427 yards) . . . Marino's five 300-yard games tied him for second with Washington's Mark Rypien for the most 300-yard games in the NFL in 1989, surpassed only by Green Bay's Don Majkowski, who had six 300-yard games . . . His 10-yard touchdown pass to Jim Jensen with 7:15 elapsed in the second quarter on September 17th at New England, was the 200th TD pass of his career, and he became the 13th player in NFL history to throw 200 TD passes . . . Marino reached that plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history; Johnny Unitas, the former record-holder, threw for his 200th touchdown in the 121st game of his career, (later surpassed by Brett Favre's 107 games) while Marino threw his 200th career TD pass in his 89th career game (covering 3,152 pass attempts):

Threw 22 interceptions in 1989, and his +2 touchdown to interception differential (24 TD passes, 22 interceptions) was the lowest of his career . . . Marino was sacked an NFL-low ten times in 1989 for a total of 86 yards in losses . . . When Bills NT Jeff Wright tackled Marino for an 11-yard loss on Oct. 29th, it stopped the Dolphins' NFL record of 19 consecutive games (the last 12 games in 1988 and the first seven in 1989) without allowing a quarterback sack, covering 775 total passes, including 759 attempts by Marino (as well as 11 by Ron Jaworski, three by Scott Secules, and one each by Troy Stradford and Jim Jensen) . . . The last time Marino had been sacked prior to the Bills game was on September 25, 1988 at Indianapolis, when he was sacked by Duane Bickett of the Colts in the third quarter of that game . . . Had two rushing touchdowns in 1989, on Oct. 15th vs. Cincinnati and on Dec. 10th vs. New England . . . They were the fourth and fifth rushing TDs of his career . . . His TD against the Bengals came on a one-yard bootleg with 6:42 elapsed in the third quarter . . . It was his first rushing touchdown since December 7, 1987 vs. the N.Y. Jets in Miami . . . In 1989, Marino (who already held the Dolphins team record for touchdown passes entering the season) broke Bob Griese's club career records in attempts, completions, and yards . . . On Sept. 24th against the Jets, Marino broke Griese's team record of 1,926 completions and on Oct. 8th vs. Browns, his 20-yard pass to Fred Banks in overtime broke Griese's team record of 25,092 career passing yards . . . Griese played 14 NFL seasons (1967-80), while Marino was finishing his seventh year in the league . . . Was 8-16 for 128 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions Nov. 26th vs. Pittsburgh . . . His eight completions and his 16 pass attempts at the time were both the second-lowest single-game figures of his career . . . Suffered a contusion of his right AC joint (located in the shoulder) in the second quarter on a hit by Carnell Lake, forcing him to leave the game for good with seven minutes left in the third quarter . . . It was the first time Marino was forced to leave a game due to an injury since he suffered a left knee sprain in the fourth quarter at Houston on December 4, 1983.

1988 – Was 354-606 for 4,434 yards with 28 touchdowns and 23 interceptions . . . Was sacked six times for 31 yards lost . . . Had a passing efficiency rating of 80.8, finishing fifth in the AFC and tenth in the NFL in passing . . . Led the NFL in attempts (606), completions (354), and yards (4,434), and finished tied for second in the NFL (and tied for first in the AFC with Cincinnati's Boomer Esiason) in touchdown passes (28), behind the Rams' Jim Everett (31) . . . Also finished second in the NFL (and first in the AFC) in interceptions (23), behind Tampa Bay's Vinny Testaverde (35) . . . Threw for over 400 yards twice (521 yards vs. Jets on October 23rd and 404 yards vs. Cleveland on Monday, December 12th), and his 521 yards passing vs. Jets on October 23rd was the highest yardage figure by a QB in 1988 and not only was a new Dolphins single-game record, but it also is the fourth highest single game passing yardage total by a QB in NFL history:

TOP FIVE PASSING YARDAGE GAMES IN NFL HISTORY

PLAYER	ATT-COM	YARDS	TDs	RESULT/OPPONENT	DATE
Norm Van Brocklin, Rams	41-27	554	5 TDs	Won vs. N.Y. Yanks	9/28/51
Warren Moon, Houston	45-27	527	3 TDs	Won vs. K.C.	12/16/90
Boomer Esiason, Arizona	59-35	522	3 TDs	Won vs. Wash.	11/10/96

Phil Simms, Giants	62-40	513	1 TD	Lost vs. Cin.	10/13/85

In that October 23rd game vs. the Jets, Marino also set a team record with 60 attempts (completing 35) and tied a team record with five interceptions . . . It was his first-ever game of five interceptions; his previous high had been four interceptions, twice (vs. San Francisco on November 28, 1986, and vs. Atlanta on November 30, 1986) . . . Had two games of four or more touchdown passes: November 27th at Jets (five TD passes) and December 12th vs. Cleveland (four TDs) . . . His five-TD game at the Jets was the fifth five-plus TD game of his career and his first since December 14, 1986 . . . Marino's first TD pass on December 12th vs. Cleveland was his 193rd career TD pass, breaking Bob Griese's Dolphins team record of 192 career touchdown passes . . . Had a ratio of one sack every 101 pass attempts (606 attempts/six sacks) . . . Was not sacked in his last 12 games, with his last sack coming on September 25th at Indianapolis . . . Carried the ball 20 times for minus-17 yards . . . Made the first opposition fumble recovery of his career on December 12th vs. Cleveland . . . Had three sub-50 percent completion percentage games (September 4th at Chicago, October 9th at the Raiders, and November 27th at the Jets) . . . Became the 45th quarterback in NFL history to go over 20,000 career yards passing, reaching that milestone September 18th vs. Green Bay . . . With his 4,434 yards passing, Marino went over 4,000 yards in a season for the fourth time . . . Enjoyed the finest game percentage wise (81.3) of his career on December 4th vs. Indianapolis, hitting on 26 of 32 passes for 304 yards and three TDs with only one interception . . . Threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ferrell Edmunds at the Jets on November 27th, the longest pass play of the season and tied for the fourth longest pass play in Dolphins history . . . On September 25th at Indianapolis, Marino was sacked four times for only the third time in his career . . . Against the Bears at Chicago on September 4th, had a then-career low nine completions, while his 113 yards passing was the third lowest figure of his career.

1987 – Led AFC in attempts (444) and completions (263) . . . Was second in NFL in attempts behind Neil Lomax (463) and third in completions behind Lomax and Montana (266) . . . Finished second in AFC in passing with an 89.2 rating behind Bernie Kosar (95.4) . . . Placed fourth in league passer rating . . . Was behind Boomer Esiason (3,321) in AFC passing yards with 3,245 yards . . . Led AFC in touchdowns with 26 (Montana topped league with 31) . . . Did not play in three replacement games, breaking his string of 50 straight starts . . . Had a streak of 30 consecutive games with at least one TD pass stopped at Buffalo on November 29th, marking the end of the second-longest string in NFL history behind Johnny Unitas' 47 straight games with a TD pass.

1986 – Led AFC in passer rating (92.5); second in league to Tommy Kramer (92.6) . . . Only QB in league to throw TD pass in every game in '86 . . . Threw for 4,746 yards, the third-highest total in NFL history . . . Threw 44 TDs in '86, the second-highest total ever behind his own 48 . . . Set an NFL record of three consecutive seasons throwing for 30 or more touchdown passes (a record Brett Favre broke in 1997) . . . At one point, had 103 straight pass attempts without interception . . . Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week following week 15 (OT win over Rams in Anaheim) when he hit on 29 of 46 passes for 403 yards and five TDs, including a 20-yard toss to Mark Duper in OT for the win . . . Tabbed as AFC's Player of the Month for November when in five games he completed 122 of 198 passes (61.6%) for 1,510 yards (302 per-game average) and 16 TDs . . . Had longest pass completion in league (85 yards for TD to Duper vs. Houston, 11/2/86) . . . Tied team record, set personal high with six TD passes versus Jets (9/21/86) . . . With his second touchdown pass on September 7th at San Diego, he set an NFL record for 100 career TD passes in the fewest amount of games to start a career, reaching that milestone in his 44th contest, breaking the previous mark (53 games) held by Johnny Unitas . . . Went over 15,000 yards passing in career versus Atlanta (11/30/86) . . . For first time in career, threw four INTs in a game; did it twice, vs. 49ers (9/28) and Atlanta (11/30).

1985 – Finished fourth in AFC in passing; fifth in league . . . Led league in yards (4,137), completions (336) and touchdowns (30) . . . Was second in AFC in attempts behind John Elway (605) . . . Threw for over 300 yards six times; Dolphins won all six games . . . Was 45 of 93 for 486 yards, three TDs and three INTs in two playoff games.

1984 – Had sensational season in '84; named in nationwide poll by CBS and The New York Times as the most popular pro football player in America despite second-year status . . . Led NFL in attempts (564), completions (362), yards (5,084), average gain per pass attempt (9.0), percentage of TDs per attempt (8.5), TDs (48) and rating (108.9) . . . His yards, TDs and completions were new NFL records . . . His completions record was later broken by Warren Moon in 1991 . . . Marino's 48 touchdowns are more than 24 of Miami's 25 other quarterbacks have thrown in their Dolphin careers . . . Only Bob Griese (192) threw for more touchdowns in his career than Marino recorded in 1984 . . . In addition, Marino's 5,084 yards in 1984 are more than 23 of those quarterbacks threw in their Dolphin careers, surpassed only by Griese (25,092 yards) and David Woodley (5,928) . . . Threw four TDs versus Patriots (10/21), breaking Bob Griese's single-season team record for TD passes in just eight games . . . In game number nine, broke Griese's seasonal team mark for passing yards that was set in '68 . . . Set AFC Championship game records by throwing for 421 yards and four TDs in 45-28 win over Pittsburgh on 1/6/85 . . . In Super Bowl XIX, completed 29 of 50 pass attempts for 318 yards and one TD.

1983 – Enjoyed unparalleled success for first-year QB in '83 . . . Named Rookie of the Year and was first rookie QB named to start in Pro Bowl . . . Amazingly, accumulated all stats and honors despite playing only the equivalent of 10 games . . . Miniscule interception rate of 2.0 shattered Bob Griese's '71 team record of 3.4 . . . Led AFC in passing with 96.0 rating; first rookie QB since 1970 league merger to lead a conference in passing (fifth in NFL history) . . . Third in league behind Steve Bartkowski (97.6) and Joe Theismann (97.0) . . . Tied for fourth in AFC in TDs with 20 . . . In relief appearance against Raiders (9/19), engineered TD drives on first two possessions as an NFL quarterback . . . Made first start in overtime loss to Buffalo (10/9) and was 19 of 29 for 322 yards and three TDs . . . At one point, threw 95 passes without an INT and tossed just three in 242 attempts . . . First play as an NFL QB was a sideline pass completion thrown to Mark Duper for nine yards at the Raiders (9/19) . . . Marino's first NFL TD came at the end of his first drive in the league: a six-yarder to TE Joe Rose . . . Marino's first NFL INT came in New Orleans (10/2) as Reggie Lewis returned it 27 yards for a TD . . . Suffered left knee sprain in fourth quarter at Houston (12/4) and missed last two regular-season games (Strock quarterbacked Dolphins to wins in both) . . . With knee brace, returned to complete 15 of 25 in playoff loss to Seattle . . . First-round draft choice (27th overall and sixth QB, behind John Elway, Todd Blackledge, Jim Kelly, Tony Eason, and Ken O'Brien) of Miami in 1983.

COLLEGE

Had record-setting career at University of Pittsburgh from 1979-82 . . . In four seasons at Pitt, completed 693 of 1,204 passes (57.5) for 8,597 yards, 79 touchdowns and 69 interceptions . . . Graduated as Panthers' record-holder in passing yards for season (2,876 in 1981) and career (8,597); in passes attempted and completed for season (226 of 380 in 1981) and career (693 of 1,204), and in touchdown passes for season (37 in 1981) and career (79) . . . Graduated as school's all-time total offense leader with 8,290 yards compared to 6,526 of runner-up Tony Dorsett (Dallas/Denver) . . . Along with Dorsett, Hugh Green (Tampa Bay/Miami) and Bill Fralic (Atlanta) is one of only four players to have Pitt jersey retired . . . Finished college career ranked on NCAA all-time lists as fifth in passing yardage, fourth in completions and fourth in TD passes . . . During tenure at hometown school, Panthers posted records of 11-1, 11-1, 11-1 and 9-3, including four bowl appearances (Fiesta, Gator, Sugar and Cotton) . . . In senior season, stats show 221 completions in 378 attempts (58.4) for 2,432 yards, 17 TDs and 23 interceptions, including Pitt's 7-3 Cotton Bowl loss to SMU . . . DOLPHIN FACT

Heading into 1999, Miami has not been shut out at home in regular season or playoff action since October 25, 1970, against the Cleveland Browns (28-0), the second-longest such streak in the AFC. The Denver Broncos have never been whitewashed in Mile High Stadium since the team began play in the AFL in 1960.

DOLPHIN FACT

Miami owns an 8-2 record in games following a bye week. In 1990, Miami followed a bye with a 17-10 win over New England. In 1991, the Dolphins returned to action with a 10-6 win at Indianapolis. In 1992, Miami opened the season with a bye (due to Hurricane Andrew) and came back with a 27-23 win at Cleveland. In 1993, the Dolphins had two bye weekends and rebounded with a 22-13 win over Buffalo and a 41-27 win over Indianapolis. In 1994, the Dolphins came back from a bye weekend and won by a 23-3 score at New England. In 1995, the Dolphins returned to action with a 26-23 win at Cincinnati. Miami lost for the first time after a bye when they dropped a 22-15 decision to Seattle in 1996. In 1997, Miami followed a bye with a 17-14 win over Kansas City. In 1998, the Dolphins dropped a 20-9 decision at the New York Jets following the open weekend. Miami is 4-4 in games preceding the bye week.

In 1999, the Dolphins will take on the Arizona Cardinals at home on September 19 before the bye and return from the off-week on October 4 at home against the Buffalo Bills on a Monday night.

DOLPHIN FACT

The 1972 Dolphins continue to hold the distinction of being the only unbeaten, untied team through the playoffs. Miami went a perfect 17-0 in winning Super Bowl VII. In that season, the Dolphins became the only team to lead the NFL in scoring offense and defense in the same season since the 1970 merger of the AFL and NFL.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS - AT INDIANAPOLIS (SEPT. 6): Caught two passes for 14 yards and surpassed Duriel Harris into fifth on the team's career receiving list . . .

VS. BUFFALO (SEPT. 13): Led the Dolphins in both receptions and yardage with five catches for 60 yards . . .

VS. PITTSBURGH (SEPT. 20): Caught three passes for a team-high 36 yards and was awarded an offensive game ball. . .

AT JACKSONVILLE (OCT. 12): Led team with seven receptions for 68 yards in a Monday night game. . .

VS. NEW ENGLAND (OCT. 25): Topped team's receiving chart with six catches for 77 yards. . . In the process, moved past Tony Nathan into fifth on the Dolphins' all-time receiving yardage list. . . Five of his six receptions went for first downs. . .

VS. INDIANAPOLIS (NOV. 8): Led Dolphins in receiving with nine receptions for 132 yards and two touchdowns . . . Nine catches tied for his most during the regular season in his career and now is tied for second . . . Yardage total is the third-highest output of his career during the regular season . . . It represented the seventh 100-yard receiving game of his career in the regular season and his eighth overall, including playoffs . . . 117 yards came in the first half, marking the first time that a Dolphin notched 100 receiving yards in a half since McDuffie had 100 yards in the second half on November 23, 1997, at New England . . . Also marked the third multiple-touchdown game of his career . . . First touchdown of the game came on a 61-yard grab from Dan Marino in the first quarter . . . Not only was it the 300th reception of his career during the regular season, but it was the longest catch of his career, surpassing his previous long of 55, which he accounted for on October 27, 1997, against Chicago . . . Seven of his nine catches were converted into first downs . . . Was awarded an offensive game ball for his performance . . .

AT CAROLINA (NOV. 15): Caught a team-high seven passes for 96 yards and earned an offensive game ball . . .

AT NEW ENGLAND (NOV. 23): Led Dolphins in receiving and receiving yardage with eight catches for 86 yards in a Monday night game . . . Eight receptions is tied for the third-highest total in his career during the regular season . . .

VS. NEW ORLEANS (NOV. 29): Topped Dolphins' receiving chart with nine catches for 102 yards and three touchdowns, marking the first three-TD game of his career . . . Scores came on catches of 22, seven and nine yards, all from Dan Marino . . . Nine catches matched the second-highest single-game total of his career . . . It marked the eighth 100-yard receiving game of his career during the regular season and ninth overall, including playoffs . . . The three touchdowns also were a career-high, surpassing his previous best of two, which he had accomplished on three other occasions (including once in 1998) . . . It was the first time that a Dolphin had three touchdown catches in a game since Mark Ingram grabbed four scores on November 27, 1994, at the N.Y. Jets . . . McDuffie's second touchdown of the game, a seven-yard reception in the fourth quarter, was the 400th touchdown pass in Dan Marino's career . . . His third score of the afternoon, a nine-yarder in the fourth quarter, was the 25th receiving touchdown of his career, tying him with Bruce Hardy for fifth on the Dolphins' all-time list . . . Seven of his nine receptions went for first downs . . . Was awarded an offensive game ball for his performance in the Saints game . . . Returned five punts for 84 yards, a 16.8-yard average, including a long of 39, the longest punt return by a Dolphin in 1998 . . .

AT OAKLAND (DEC. 6): Led Dolphins with five receptions for 45 yards . . . Returned three punts for a 7.7-yard average with a long of 19 . . .

VS. N.Y. JETS (DEC. 13): Led the Dolphins in both receiving and receiving yardage with 11 catches for 105 yards and a touchdown . . . Eight of his 11 catches went for first downs . . . His touchdown came on a three-yard reception from Dan Marino . . . His reception total marked a new regular season career-high, and matched an overall personal-best that he first set in a First-Round Playoff game at Buffalo on December 30, 1995 . . . Reception total also is the second-highest single-game figure in club history during the regular season, surpassed only by Jim Jensen's 12 catches at New England on November 6, 1988 . . . It marked the ninth 100-yard receiving game of his career during the regular season and his tenth overall, including playoffs . . . His TD catch was the 26th of his career, moving him past Bruce Hardy into sole possession of fifth place on the Dolphins' all-time list. . .

VS. DENVER (DEC. 21): Tied for the team-lead with six receptions, totaling 57 yards . . .

AT ATLANTA (DEC. 27): Had five catches for 82 yards and a touchdown, which came on a 12-yard grab from Dan Marino . . . His second catch of the contest, a 28-yard reception on the first play of the second quarter, was his 87th catch of the year, eclipsing Mark Clayton's single-season record for receptions of 86, which Clayton set in 1988 . . . Four of McDuffie's five catches were converted into first downs . . .

PLAYOFFS: McDuffie started both playoff games following the 1998 season and led the team with 15 receptions for 171 yards . . . Also returned one punt for 20 yards . . . In a First-Round Playoff game vs. Buffalo (1/2/99), caught six passes for 53 yards, while also adding one punt return for 20 yards . . . In Divisional contest at Denver (1/9/99), registered nine receptions for 118 yards . . . Both figures rank as the second-most of his playoff career, trailing only the 11 catches and 154 yards for which he accounted in a First-Round Playoff contest at Buffalo on December 30, 1995 . . . In his career, has started all six playoff games in which he has appeared . . . Has caught 36 passes for 402 yards and a touchdown . . . Also has brought back seven punts for 80 yards, an 11.4-yard average, with a long of 20 . . . Reception total is the second-most in Dolphins playoff history, trailing only Tony Nathan, who notched 65 catches in 11 games . . . His yardage total is fifth-most on the club's all-time playoff list:

PRO CAREER

1998 — Started all 16 regular season games, 15 at left defensive end and one on the right side. . . Also opened both playoff games at right end . . . Finished the regular season with 51 total tackles and two sacks . . . Tackle total ranked tenth on the squad . . . Mixon became the first Dolphins rookie defensive lineman to start every regular season game since Bob Baumhower and A.J. Duhe both opened all 14 regular season contests in 1977 (John Bosa started all 12 non-strike games as a rookie in 1987) . . . Made NFL debut in a starting role at Indianapolis (9/6) and had four tackles . . . Recorded a season-high seven stops at N.Y. Jets (10/4) . . . Had three tackles, including a seven-yard sack of QB Mark Brunell, in a Monday night game at Jacksonville (10/12), marking the first sack of his NFL career . . . Was credited with three tackles vs. New England (10/25), when he was awarded a defensive game ball . . . Registered two tackles, including a sack, vs. New Orleans (11/29) . . . Tied for second on the team with seven tackles in season finale at Atlanta (12/27) . . . Second-round draft choice (49th overall) of Miami in 1998 . . .

ROOKIE SACK TANDEM: When Mixon's sack total is combined with fellow rookie lineman Lorenzo Bromell's eight, Miami had the top rookie sack tandem in the NFL in 1998:

TOP NFL ROOKIE SACK TANDEM IN 1998

TEAM	PLAYER	SACKS	PLAYER	SACKS	TOTAL
MIAMI	LORENZO BROMELL	8.0	KENNY MIXON	2.0	10.0
Green Bay	Vonnie Holiday	8.0	Billy Lyon	1.0	9.0
Dallas	Greg Ellis	3.0	Michael Myers	3.0	6.0
Cincinnati	Brian Simmons	3.0	Takeo Spikes	2.0	5.0

Only one tandem per team is included, therefore top tandems do not include Jude Waddy of Green Bay (1.0) and Steve Foley of Cincinnati (2.0).

PLAYOFFS: Started both playoff games following the 1998 season at right end . . . Tallied six tackles and a pass defended . . . Made NFL postseason debut in a starting role in First-Round matchup vs. Buffalo (1/2/99) . . . Registered three tackles and a pass defended . . .

GAME HIGHLIGHTS: Rushed for 37 yards on ten carries and first career touchdown, against N.Y. Jets (9/18) . . . Saw extensive action at Minnesota (9/25) in place of an injured Terry Kirby and led team in rushing with 22 yards on six carries and a score and added one catch for nine yards . . . Came off bench to lead team with 73 yards on 18 carries and added three catches for minus-two yards at Cincinnati (10/2) . . . Made first NFL start, at Buffalo (10/9), and had team-high 91 rushing yards on 15 carries with long of 27 yards . . . Earned game balls for both offense and special teams against L.A. Raiders (10/16) with 150 rushing yards on 30 carries, while also recovering a fumble off a Tim Brown punt return that eventually led to a Miami touchdown . . . Rushing total was most by a Dolphins player since Sammie Smith gained 159 yards at New England on September 9, 1990 . . . Parmalee's 30 rushing attempts is the fourth highest single-game total in Dolphins history (behind 33 carries by Larry Csonka against Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII on January 13, 1974; 33 carries by Karim Abdul-Jabbar vs. Pittsburgh on September 20, 1998; and 31 carries by Mercury Morris at Green Bay on October 5, 1975) . . . Had second consecutive 100-yard game, at New England (10/30), with 123 yards on 25 carries and added four receptions for 21 yards . . . Marked the ninth time in team history a runner had consecutive 100 rushing yard games, tying the club record (the last was Mark Higgs in 1991) and his total of 273 yards rushing in those two contests set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, surpassing the previous two-game best of 258 rushing yards by Mercury Morris in successive games in 1973 . . . Had team-high 81 yards on 22 carries and added two catches for 11 yards against Indianapolis (11/6) before being forced from game permanently in second half with right knee and shoulder injuries . . . Missed contest against Chicago (11/13) due to a knee injury . . . Returned to starting role at Pittsburgh (11/20) and gained 29 yards on 16 carries . . . Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week with 19 carries for 127 yards and one touchdown and adding two catches for 32 yards and a touchdown against Kansas City (12/12) . . . It was his first time winning that honor, and was just the second time a Dolphins running back had captured that award (Troy Stradford was named as the Offensive Player of the Week following the 11th weekend of the 1987 season) . . . Closed regular season against Detroit (12/25) with 18 carries for 39 yards and three touchdowns and added five catches for 47 yards . . . Tied a team record for most rushing touchdowns in a game, which was accomplished 12 previous times, most recently by Sammie Smith against New England on December 10, 1989 . . . Started both playoff games . . . Led team in rushing with 73 yards on 25 carries and one touchdown, and added four catches for 42 yards . . . Rushed for 57 yards on 18 carries and scored one touchdown, and added two catches for 34 yards in First-Round Playoff game against Kansas City (12/31) . . . Recorded 16 yards on seven carries in Divisional Playoff game at San Diego (1/8/95).

1993 – Played in all 16 games . . . Finished with four carries for 16 yards and one reception for one yard . . . Tied for second on team with ten special teams tackles . . . Recorded only carries of the season, at San Diego (12/27), by gaining 16 yards on four carries, including a long run of 12 yards . . . Also recorded first career NFL reception with one catch for a one-yard gain against Chargers.

1992 – Played in ten regular season games and one playoff contest as a rookie . . . Saw action as a reserve running back and kickoff returner . . . Signed by Miami as an undrafted free agent on May 1, 1992 . . . Rushed six times for 38 yards with a long of 20 yards . . . Added seven special teams tackles and 14 kickoff returns for 289 yards for a 20.6 average and a long of 32 yards . . . Waived on final roster cut on August 31 . . . Signed for team's practice squad on September 1 . . . Activated by team on October 21 after running back Aaron Craver was placed on Injured Reserve . . . Saw first NFL action, vs. Houston (10/22) . . . Had only rushing attempts of regular season, at Indianapolis (11/8), with six carries for 38 yards . . . Saw action in AFC Divisional Playoff game vs. San Diego (1/10/93) and rushed five times for 18 yards with a long of six yards . . . Was de-activated on January 16, 1993, and missed AFC Championship game.

PRO CAREER

1998 – Played in all 16 regular season games, starting 12 of them ... Finished with 19 yards rushing and a touchdown on six attempts and 17 receptions for 97 yards ... Also notched one tackle on special teams. ... Appeared in both playoff games, including one start ... Tied for team-lead with two receptions, totaling ten yards, in season-opener at Indianapolis (9/6) ... Caught three passes for a season-high 28 yards, including a season-long 24-yard reception, at New England (11/23) ... Rushed twice for a season-high 12 yards, including a one-yard touchdown run, vs. N.Y. Jets (12/13), marking the first rushing touchdown of his NFL career ... His 11-yard run in the Jets contest was his longest of the year and the second-longest of his career ...

PLAYOFFS: Played in both postseason games following the 1998 season, starting one of them ... Rushed for four yards on three carries and caught three passes for 23 yards ... Opened First-Round Playoff game vs. Buffalo (1/2/99) ... Rushed for seven yards on two attempts ... Also ran for a two-point conversion following a Karim Abdul-Jabbar TD run ... Had three receptions for 23 yards in Divisional contest at Denver (1/9/99) ... Has appeared in three playoff games in his career, starting two of them ... Has rushed for two yards on four attempts and caught three passes for 23 yards.

1997 – Played in six games with five starts ... Missed ten contests with a knee injury ... Finished the year with seven yards rushing on three carries, and five receptions for 35 yards ... Started each of the first two games at fullback ... Left contest vs. Tennessee (9/7) early in first quarter with a right knee injury ... Had a season-long 17-yard reception before leaving the game ... Underwent surgery on September 7 to repair a tear of the medial retinaculum (the band of connective tissue that attaches to the medial structures of the knee joint, including the patella and the patellar tendon) of his right knee ... The surgery was performed by Dolphins team physicians Dr. John Uribe and Dr. Dan Kanell at HealthSouth Doctor's Hospital in Coral Gables ... Was inactive each of the next ten weeks ... Returned to action at Oakland (11/30) in a starting role at fullback ... Opened three of the final four regular season contests ... Started First-Round Playoff game at New England (12/28) ... Had one carry for minus-two yards.

1996 – Started all 16 games at fullback as a rookie ... Finished with 27 yards rushing on seven carries and was third on team in receptions and fourth in receiving yardage with 33 catches for 354 yards and two touchdowns ... Led the Dolphins in receiving twice and in reception yardage once ... Caught four passes in a game on three occasions ... Along with Karim Abdul-Jabbar, it marked the first time in Dolphins history that two rookies started in the backfield on opening day (against New England, 9/1) . . . Along with Daryl Gardener and Zach Thomas, it was the first time since 1970 that the Dolphins started four rookies in the season-opener . . . Proved to be an integral blocker for Abdul-Jabbar, who rushed for 1,116 yards, the second-highest total among NFL rookies in 1996 and the third-best performance ever by a Dolphins player . . . Led team in both receptions and receiving yardage with six catches for 77 yards in season-opener against New England (9/1) . . . Had a 52-yard catch in that contest, marking the longest reception by a Miami running back since Sammie Smith had a 53-yard catch against Indianapolis on December 30, 1990 . . . Hauled in a 74-yard touchdown reception from Dan Marino against N.Y. Jets (9/15), marking the longest reception ever by a Dolphins running back, and the second-longest reception by a Dolphins rookie in club history, surpassed only by tight end Ferrell Edmunds' 80-yard touchdown reception as a rookie on November 27, 1988 . . . Season-high rushing total of 16 yards occurred at Buffalo (10/13), when he carried the ball just once . . . Had 16-yard scoring reception against Dallas (10/27) . . . Fourth-round draft choice (118th overall) of Miami in 1996.

PRO CAREER

1998 – Played in all 16 regular season games for the first time in his six-year NFL career . . . Started two contests . . . Had the most productive season of his NFL career as he caught 43 passes for 603 yards and five touchdowns . . . All three figures ranked third on the team . . . With a 14.0-yard average per reception, has put together a mark of 14.0 or better in that category in each of his three seasons with the Dolphins and in four of his six NFL seasons ... Caught three passes for 42 yards, including a 17-yard scoring reception from Dan Marino, vs. Buffalo (9/13) ... The touchdown was the only one of the game for the Dolphins in a 13-7 victory ... Hauled in three passes for 20 yards, including an eight-yard TD catch, the following week vs. Pittsburgh (9/20) ... It marked the first time in his career that he scored touchdowns in consecutive contests ... Grabbed four passes for 69 yards in a Monday night game at Jacksonville (10/12) ... Reception total in that game is tied for the fifth-highest total of his career ... Yardage figure was his third-best of the season and sixth-highest of his career ... Had four catches for 37 yards vs. New Orleans (11/29) ... Talled four receptions for 52 yards vs. N.Y. Jets (12/13) ... Turned in the best outing of his NFL career in Monday night game vs. Denver (12/21) ... Tied for team-lead with six receptions, led club with 136 receiving yards, marking the first 100-yard receiving game of his career ... Also scored three touchdowns, the first multiple-TD game of his career ... The three touchdown catches are tied for the third-highest single-game total in Dolphins history ... Coupled with O.J. McDuffie's three TD catches against New Orleans three weeks earlier (11/29), it was the first time that two Dolphins had accounted for three or more touchdown catches in a game in the same season since 1994 when Irving Fryar had three TD catches on September 4 versus New England, and Mark Ingram accounted for four receiving scores on November 27 at the N.Y. Jets ... Thomas' touchdowns against the Broncos came on receptions of nine, 56, and 17 yards, all from Dan Marino ... The 56-yarder represented a season-long and is the second-longest reception of his career ... Six receptions matched a personal single-game high which he first established against New England in a Monday night game on December 22, 1997 ... Recorded four catches for 79 yards in season finale at Atlanta (12/27) ... His yardage total in that game was his second-highest of the season and of his career ...

PLAYOFFS: Started both playoff games following the 1998 season ... Finished third on the team in the postseason with seven catches for 67 yards ... Had one receiving score as well, the only one during the 1998 playoffs for the Dolphins ... Caught four passes for 36 yards, including an 11-yard touchdown reception from Dan Marino, in First-Round victory over Buffalo (1/2/99) ... The score was the first of his NFL playoff career ... Has started all three postseason contests in which he has appeared during his career ... Has totaled 10 receptions for 125 yards and one touchdown.

1997 – Played in 12 regular season games with six starts ... Finished with 28 receptions for 402 yards and two touchdowns ... Reception total tied for fifth on the team, yardage figure ranked fourth and two receiving scores were third-most ... Reception and yardage totals both marked career-highs at that point, while his two touchdowns equaled a career-best at the time that he first established in his rookie season of 1993 as a member of Tampa Bay ... Was inactive for each of the first four contests ... Saw initial action of the year vs. Kansas City (10/5), when he caught three passes for 43 yards ... Made his first start of the season at N.Y. Jets (10/12), and caught five passes for a season-high 75 yards, including a 22-yard touchdown catch from Dan Marino ... Hauled in four passes for 53 yards at New England (11/23) ... Season-long catch of 26 yards came vs. Detroit (12/7), when it marked his only reception of the game ... Tied for team-lead with a career-best six catches, totaling a team-high 64 yards, in season finale vs. New England (12/22) ... Also had an eight-yard touchdown grab from Marino in the contest ... Started First-Round Playoff game at New England (12/28), and caught three passes for a team-high 62 yards, including a long reception of 42 yards.

PRO CAREER

1998 – Signed a five-year contract on February 12, 1999 . . . Started all 16 regular season games at middle linebacker . . . Finished the year with 160 total tackles (124 solo), two sacks for 16 yards lost, three interceptions for 21 yards in returns, including two for touchdowns, two forced fumbles and ten passes defended . . . Marked the third straight year in which he led the team in tackles, just the fourth Dolphin to achieve that feat and the first since Bryan Cox did it from 1992-95 . . . Tackle total was the seventh-highest single-season mark in club history . . . Thomas now owns three of the nine-highest single-season tackle totals in team history . . . Led the Dolphins' tackle chart on ten occasions over the course of the season, including nine games with double-digit tackle marks . . . Was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Month for September when he totaled 37 tackles, a sack, an interception return for a touchdown and two passes defended, in helping Miami to a 3-0 record during the month.

Thomas returned two interceptions for touchdowns on the year . . . He had a 17-yard return for a score against Pittsburgh on September 20 when he picked off a Kordell Stewart pass, and brought another one back one yard for a touchdown on December 6 at Oakland when he snared a Donald Hollas pass . . . In his career, Thomas now has returned three interceptions for touchdowns, tied with Dick Anderson for the most in Dolphins' history . . . In fact, Thomas has three of the six interception returns for touchdowns by a linebacker in club history, the other three being by Tom Erlandson (26 yards at Denver on December 4, 1966), A.J. Duhe (35 yards in the AFC Championship game against the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983) and Robert Jones (14 yards at Oakland on December 6, 1998) . . . Thomas is the only linebacker and, along with DE Bill Stanfill (two), one of only two non-defensive backs in team history to return two or more interceptions for touchdowns . . . Thomas' two interception returns for scores in the same season is tied with three others for the most in team history . . . Those three are Bill Stanfill (1969), Dick Anderson (1973) and Mike Kozlowski (1983). . . Of the group, Thomas is the only linebacker . . . Over the past three seasons, Thomas' three interception returns for touchdowns are tied for the second-highest total in the NFL over that time span, and of that group, Thomas is the only non-defensive back:

1997 – Started all 15 games in which he played at middle linebacker . . . Was inactive for the season-opener vs. Indianapolis (8/31) while still recovering from a fractured left fibula sustained in a preseason game against Denver in Mexico City (8/4) . . . Still led the team in tackles for the second straight year, with 149 total (107 solo), marking the second consecutive season in which he topped the 100-tackle plateau . . . That figure is now the ninth-most in franchise history . . . Also came up with a half-sack, an interception and ten passes defended, which were second-most on the squad and first among linebackers . . . Added one stop on special teams . . . Led the team in tackles on eight occasions, and finished with double-digit tackle totals nine times . . . Made regular season debut vs. Tennessee (9/7) and was second on the team with ten tackles . . . Led club with 11 stops at Green Bay (9/14) . . . Topped team with 12 tackles at Tampa Bay (9/21), when he picked off a Trent Dilfer pass and returned it ten yards for his only interception of the year . . . Tallied a team-high 11 tackles at N.Y. Jets (10/12) . . . Recorded a team and season-high 16 tackles and two passes defended vs. Chicago (10/27) . . . Registered a team-high 11 tackles and two passes defended vs. N.Y. Jets (11/9) . . . Led Dolphins with 14 tackles, including a half-sack, at Oakland (11/30) . . . Partial sack was shared with Tim Bowens and resulted in a Dolphins touchdown as Bowens stripped the ball from Jeff George in the end zone following a ten-yard loss, and Bowens recovered for the score . . . Matched that tackle total the following week with 14 stops vs. Detroit (12/7) . . . Recorded a team-high 13 tackles at Indianapolis (12/14) . . . Started First-Round Playoff game at New England (12/28) at middle linebacker . . . Amassed a team-high 12 total tackles.

DOLPHINS 24, INDIANAPOLIS 15
 September 6, 1998

RCA Dome
 Indianapolis, IN

Miami recorded its seventh straight victory on opening day, marking the team's first win at the RCA Dome since the 1993 season-opener. The Dolphins scored their first points of 1998 on their initial drive of the season when Olindo Mare capped a 16-play, 76-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The march, which consumed 9:19 of the clock, saw Dan Marino complete six of eight passes for 35 yards, including a 16-yard strike to Lamar Thomas on third-and-11 from the Dolphins' 19-yard line. Karim Abdul-Jabbar also rushed for 19 yards on the drive and rookie John Avery busted loose for an 18-yard run to the Colts' 12-yard line on his first NFL carry. The Colts got to the Dolphins' 30-yard line on their first series of the game, but had the drive thwarted when Shawn Wooden stripped the ball from Zack Crockett and Brock Marion recovered at the Dolphins' 24. Indianapolis tied the game on a Mike Vanderjagt 51-yard field goal, 4:07 into the second quarter. The key play was a 42-yard completion from Peyton Manning to Marvin Harrison to the Dolphins' 38-yard line. Miami notched its first touchdown of the year when Marino connected with Oronde Gadsden for a 44-yard touchdown strike on the ensuing series, with 7:59 left in the second quarter. For Gadsden, it was his first NFL reception in his first NFL game. On the next play from scrimmage, Terrell Buckley intercepted a Manning pass and returned it 12 yards to the Colts' four-yard line. Two plays later, Karim Abdul-Jabbar gave the Dolphins a 14-point advantage with a four-yard TD run. The Colts got to the Dolphins' 25-yard line in the third quarter, but Miami's defense came up with their third turnover of the game when Daryl Gardener recorded his first career interception and returned it to the 22-yard line. The Colts got to within 11 points when Vanderjagt hit his second field goal of the game, from 27 yards out, 47 seconds into the fourth quarter. Indianapolis had to settle for another Vanderjagt field goal, this one from 20 yards out with 3:53 remaining, after they had a first down from the Dolphins' 11-yard line. They began the drive at the Dolphins' 41-yard line after Bradford Banta recovered a Charles Jordan fumbled punt. The Dolphins got the ball back at their own 23-yard line with 3:42 to play, and were able to run 2:21 off the clock before having to punt. The key play was a 16-yard run by Abdul-Jabbar on second-and-seven from the Dolphins' 26-yard line. The Colts got the ball back at their own four with 1:32 to play and no timeouts after Patrick Surtain downed a Klaus Wilmsmeyer 45-yard punt. On the second play, Terrell Buckley stepped in front of a Manning pass and raced 21 yards for a touchdown, giving the Dolphins a 15-point margin with just 1:19 left in the game. The Colts registered their only touchdown of the game on a six-yard pass from Manning to Harrison as time expired.

GAME 2

DOLPHINS 13, BUFFALO 7

September 13, 1998

Pro Player Stadium

Miami, FL

The Dolphins tied for the second-best mark in club history with eight sacks, and the defense held Buffalo to just 78 yards of total offense in the second half en route to a 13-7 victory. The win was Miami's fifth straight in home openers, and their fourth consecutive victory at home over the Bills. Neither team could get into the opponents' territory in a scoreless first quarter. In fact, that did not happen until midway through the second quarter when Rob Johnson connected with Eric Moulds for a 19-yard completion to the Dolphins' 37. Three plays later, Johnson and Moulds hooked up for a 13-yard completion to the Dolphins' 28-yard line on third-and-14. On fourth-and-one, Johnson eluded the Miami rush and found Moulds in the end zone for a 28-yard TD strike. The Dolphins got the ball back at their own 20 with 5:20 to play in the half. Dan Marino engineered a nine-play, 80-yard drive that used 4:21 of the clock and ended with a 17-yard scoring pass to Lamar Thomas. On the march, Marino completed all six of his pass attempts, for 86 yards. He had a pair of key third-down completions, a 19-yard strike to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-14 from the Dolphins' 16-yard line, and an 18-yard completion to Thomas on third-and-10 from the Dolphins' 35. On the next play, Marino hit Cronde Gadsden for a 22-yard completion to the Bills' 25-yard line. The score occurred two plays afterward. Miami took the lead on their second possession of the second half when they put together a 10-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 5:45 of the clock and was capped by an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal. The drive, which started at the Dolphins' four-yard line, saw Karim Abdul-Jabbar rush for 41 yards on four attempts. Patrick Surtain came up with his first career interception on Buffalo's second play of the fourth quarter. That coupled with a 15-yard unnecessary roughness penalty on Buffalo, gave Miami the ball at the Bills' 16-yard line, and set up a Mare 27-yard field goal four plays later. Buffalo could not get into Dolphins' territory on either of their final two series of the game. The key drive, however, was the one the Dolphins put together in between. That possession saw Miami amass 40 yards on 11 plays, and most importantly, chew up 6:39 of the clock. Miami converted two third-down conversions on the march, and got another first down on a third-down play courtesy of a Buffalo offside penalty.

DOLPHINS 21, PITTSBURGH 0
September 20, 1998

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded their first shutout in the regular season since 1992, and their first at home since 1987 with a 21-0 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers before a paid crowd of 73,948 at Pro Player Stadium. It also marked the fourth time in the last five seasons that Miami has opened with three straight victories. Two of the Dolphins' three touchdowns on the day came as a result of Steelers turnovers. Pittsburgh had an opportunity for the first points of the day on the first play of the second quarter, but Kenny Mixon blocked a 47-yard field goal attempt by Norm Johnson. After the Dolphins could not get into Steelers territory in the first quarter and on their first possession of the second period, they put together an impressive 11-play, 64-yard drive that used 9:48 of the clock and ended with a Karim Abdul-Jabbar three-yard touchdown run. Dan Marino completed all five of his passes, totaling 57 yards, on the march. Included in that total was a 10-yard completion to Lamar Thomas on third-and-two from the Steelers' 27-yard line. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 16 yards, including a five-yard gain on third-and-two from the Steelers' nine-yard line. On the first play from scrimmage following the touchdown, Sam Madison picked off a Kordell Stewart pass and returned it 13 yards to the Steelers' 24-yard line. Miami capitalized six plays later when Marino connected with Thomas for an eight-yard TD strike on third-and-goal with 2:39 left in the first half. The pass was tipped by Steelers cornerback Dewayne Washington into Thomas' hands. The second half was played in a steady rain which turned into a torrential downpour by the fourth quarter. The only score of the half came when Zach Thomas stepped in front of a Stewart pass and scampered 17 yards for the second touchdown of his career. Madison accounted for his second interception of the game in the fourth quarter, sealing the Dolphins' shutout.

N.Y. JETS 20, DOLPHINS 9
October 4, 1998

Giants Stadium
East Rutherford, NJ

The Jets snapped the Dolphins' four-game winning streak in this series with a 20-9 victory before a crowd of 75,257 at Giants Stadium. Miami scored first, with 39 seconds left in the first quarter on an Olindo Mare 46-yard field goal. The field goal capped a seven-play, 33-yard drive, which included a 19-yard completion from Dan Marino to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Jets' 30-yard line. The Jets took a lead they would not relinquish, 5:29 into the second quarter, on a 10-yard touchdown pass from Vinny Testaverde to Keyshawn Johnson on third-and-nine. The Jets extended their lead on a John Hall 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the first half. The score culminated a nine-play, 60-yard drive that used 3:29 of the clock. New York took a 17-3 advantage with 3:33 to play in the third quarter on a 6-yard touchdown run by Curtis Martin on third-and-goal. The key play on the drive, which covered 43 yards in eight plays, was a 16-yard completion from Testaverde to Keith Byars on fourth-and-one from the Dolphins' 22-yard line. The march began following a Victor Green interception of a Dan Marino pass. Miami recorded its only touchdown of the game on a two-yard pass from Marino to Troy Drayton with 5:42 to play. Two plays earlier, Marino hit Bernie Parmalee for an 11-yard completion on fourth-and-10 from the Jets' 12-yard line, keeping the 14-play, 74-yard march alive. The Dolphins had started the drive at their own 26 after Shane Burton blocked a 44-yard field goal attempt by Hall. The two-point conversion rush attempt by Olindo Mare was unsuccessful. New York got the ball back at their own 25 with 5:31 left in the game. They were able to use 4:54 of that remaining time, and the 11-play, 68-yard drive ended with a 25-yard field goal by Hall.

GAME 5

JACKSONVILLE 28, DOLPHINS 21
October 12, 1998

Jacksonville, FL

Jacksonville broke open a 21-21 tie with 2:36 to play in the game to record a victory in the first-ever game between these two teams in front of 74,051 fans at Jacksonville's ALLTEL stadium and a national television audience on Monday Night Football. The Jaguars opened the scoring on the first play from scrimmage when Fred Taylor busted loose for a 77-yard touchdown run, the third-longest ever against the Dolphins. The Jaguars went up by 14 points 29 seconds into the second quarter when Taylor scored his second touchdown of the game, a two-yard run which capped a six-play, 53-yard drive. The Dolphins cut the lead in half when Dan Marino hit a wide open Troy Drayton in the end zone for a two-yard scoring pass on third-and-goal. The touchdown capped a 12-play, 69-yard drive that used 6:50 of the clock. Marino accounted for several key completions on the march including a 23-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden and a 26-yard strike to Lamar Thomas. Overall, Marino hit on all five of his passes, for 63 yards during the drive. Terrell Buckley intercepted a Mark Brunell pass on the ensuing series, giving the Dolphins the ball at the Jaguars' 36. The Dolphins could not capitalize, however, as on the next series Aaron Beasley picked off a Marino pass and returned it 34 yards to the Jaguars' 44-yard line. Jacksonville had a chance to build on their lead, but Mike Hollis missed wide right on a 45-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the first half, two plays after Tavian

Banks scampered for a 51-yard run to the Dolphins' 31-yard line. Miami tied the game on the initial possession of the second half when Karim Abdul-Jabbar culminated a nine-play, 55-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run, the 29th rushing touchdown of his career, tying him with Mercury Morris for second on the Dolphins' all-time list. The score came two plays after Jaguars safety Travis Davis was called for pass interference in the end zone. The key play on the drive was a 25-yard completion from Marino to Ed Perry on third-and-17, followed by a 15-yard unnecessary roughness penalty on the Jaguars, putting Miami at the Jacksonville 22. The Dolphins took the lead with 3:28 left in the third quarter when Marino and Drayton hooked up for the second time in the game, from 15 yards out. The touchdown capped a nine-play, 63-yard drive in which Marino completed all five of his passes, totaling 59 yards. The Jaguars tied the game 3:05 into the fourth quarter on a 23-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to Keenan McCardell. Jacksonville's scoring drive started at the Dolphins' 40-yard line after they pinned Miami deep in its own territory. The Dolphins had a chance to re-gain the lead, but Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 54-yard field goal attempt with 2:44 remaining. On the next play from scrimmage, Brunell connected with McCardell once again, this time for a 56-yard touchdown pass and the winning points. Miami got the ball back at their own 34-yard line with 2:36 to play. They got as far as the Jaguars' 38-yard line before Tony Brackens stripped the ball from Marino, and Brackens recovered the fumble at the Jaguars' 48-yard line.

DOLPHINS 14, ST. LOUIS 0
October 18, 1998

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded a 14-0 shutout, their second in as many home games and the first time in franchise history that they have notched shutouts in back-to-back home games, with a 14-0 win over the St. Louis Rams before a paid crowd of 65,418 at Pro Player Stadium. The teams played to a scoreless first quarter. The closest either club got to a score was when the Dolphins got to the Rams' 21-yard line before Billy Jenkins intercepted a Dan Marino pass in the end zone. St. Louis' deepest penetration in the first half was to the Dolphins' 49-yard line, before being forced to punt. Miami broke the tie with six seconds remaining in the first half when Marino hit Oronde Gadsden for a one-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal. The score capped an 11-play, 46-yard drive that began following a 31-yard punt return by Terrell Buckley. Three plays prior to the score, Rams cornerback Todd Lyght was called for pass interference in the end zone, giving Miami a first-and-goal from the one-yard line. The Rams made it into Dolphins territory on each of their first two possessions of the second half, but were turned back on downs both times. Miami took a 14-point lead 4:39 into the fourth quarter on a 19-yard scoring pass from Marino to rookie running back John Avery, the first touchdown of Avery's career. The touchdown culminated a 10-play, 80-yard march which used 5:37 of the clock. Fifty yards on the drive came via the ground, including 34 by Karim Abdul-Jabbar (six atts.) and 16 by Avery (two atts.). St. Louis got as far as the Dolphins' 20-yard line on the ensuing series before a fourth down pass by Tony Banks fell incomplete. The Rams threatened to end their scoring drought when they got to the Miami 44 on their final series of the game, but Dolphins cornerback Patrick Surtain intercepted a Banks pass on second-and-six with 4:09 to play. The Dolphins controlled the clock for 9:57 of the fourth quarter, during which time they amassed 84 yards rushing on 15 attempts.

GAME 7

DOLPHINS 12, NEW ENGLAND 9 (OT)
October 25, 1998

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins won for the fourth straight time at home in 1998, and in the process continued to deny their opponents a touchdown at Pro Player Stadium, where they extended their streak to 14 straight quarters without yielding a touchdown, with a 12-9 overtime win over the New England Patriots. The Dolphins' defense came up big early in the game as each of New England's first three drives started in Miami territory. But the Patriots came away empty-handed each time. The Dolphins took a 3-0 lead on an Olindo Mare 48-yard field goal, 4:34 into the second quarter, capping a 12-play, 59-yard drive. Dan Marino completed five of his six passes on the march, totaling 61 yards. New England had a chance to tie the game on the ensuing series, but Adam Vinatieri was short on a 45-yard field goal attempt. Vinatieri answered with a 41-yard field goal with 6:10 remaining in the third quarter, the first score by a Dolphins opponent at Pro Player Stadium in 13 quarters. The drive started at the Dolphins' 28 after Ty Law intercepted a Marino pass. Vinatieri gave the Patriots a 6-3 edge 5:50 into the fourth quarter on a 30-yard field goal, four plays after a 38-yard pass interference penalty put the Patriots at the Dolphins' 11-yard line. The score started a string of four straight series with a field goal. Miami knotted the score at six apiece on Mare's 38-yard field goal with 5:07 to play. That drive began at the Dolphins' 46-yard line following a 32-yard kickoff return by John Avery. The Patriots got the ball back at their own 21 with 5:07 remaining in the game and embarked on a 10-play, 61-yard drive that ended with a Vinatieri 36-yard field goal with 2:13 to play, giving New England a 9-6 lead. The key play was a 47-yard completion from Drew Bledsoe to Tony Simmons on third-and-eight, giving the Patriots the ball at the Dolphins' 17-yard line. Avery returned the kickoff after the score 37 yards to the Dolphins' 41-yard line. Miami then drove to the Patriots' seven-yard line, setting up Mare's third field goal of the game, a 25-yarder with 49 seconds left to tie the game. A 28-yard completion from Marino to Oronde Gadsden put the Dolphins at the Patriots' 21, and a 16-yard strike to Bernie Parmalee gave Miami a first-and-goal from the five-yard line. The Dolphins got the ball first in overtime, and started at their own 15-yard line. A 16-yard pass interference penalty on third down put them at their own 31-yard line. Two plays later, Marino hit McDuffie for a 25-yard gain to the Patriots' 40-yard line. Six plays and one first down afterwards, Mare gave the Dolphins their first victory over New England since 1996 with a 43-yard field goal, 4:36 into the overtime period.

GAME 8

BUFFALO 30, DOLPHINS 24
November 1, 1998

Bills Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Bills defeated the Dolphins for the second straight time in Buffalo on the strength of 16 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to erase a 24-14 deficit and give the Bills a 30-24 win before 79,011 at Bills Stadium. Buffalo drove into Dolphins territory on the opening series of the game, but could not convert as Steve Christie missed wide left on a 49-yard field goal attempt. Following the missed field goal, the Dolphins drove the length of the field in 11 plays, using 6:24 of the clock, with Dan Marino hitting Oronde Gadsden for a 12-yard touchdown pass on third-and-10. Marino completed five of six passes, totaling 43 yards on the drive, including a trio of third down completions. The score also marked the Dolphins' initial first-quarter touchdown of 1998, and their first touchdown in the opening quarter against the Bills since 1993, a span of ten games. The Bills got the ball at the Dolphins' 34-yard line after they stopped Miami on fourth-and-inches, and then embarked on a seven-play drive that ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Doug Flutie to Jay Riemersma, snapping the Dolphins string of nine straight quarters in which they had held their opponents without a touchdown. Miami responded with a 10-play, 74-yard drive that used 5:54 of the clock and ended with a Karim Abdul-Jabbar one-yard scoring run, the 30th rushing touchdown of his career, and his 31st overall score. It moved him into sole possession of second on the Dolphins' all-time rushing touchdown chart, and tied him with Jim Kwik for eighth on the club's all-time touchdown list. The key plays on the march were a pair of completions from Marino to Gadsden, for 29 and 27 yards, both of which converted third downs. Buffalo tied the score once again, with 1:02 left in the first half, when Flutie and Riemersma combined for their second score of the day, this time from 16 yards out. Miami went back on top on the opening series of the second half when John Avery scored the first rushing touchdown of his career, from one-yard out, capping a nine-play, 71-yard drive that used 4:52 of the clock. The score was set up by a 31-yard run by Abdul-Jabbar to the Bills' seven-yard line two plays earlier, which came on third-and-one. Olindo Mare gave Miami a ten-point lead on a 38-yard field goal 1:21 into the final frame, four plays after Terrell Buckley recovered an Antowain Smith fumble at the Bills' 28. Buffalo got to within three points of the lead on the very next series when Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 48-yard scoring strike. Two plays afterward, Ted Washington stripped the ball from Marino and Phil Hansen recovered at the Dolphins' 13. Four plays later, Christie tied the game on a 22-yard field goal. The Bills took their first lead of the game with 1:58 remaining in the game on Christie's 36-yard field goal, which culminated an 11-play, 54-yard drive that consumed 6:19 of the clock. Buffalo extended its lead with 23 seconds left to play, when Christie converted his third field goal, this one from 25 yards out, four plays after the Bills stopped the Dolphins on fourth down from their own 12. Miami's final attempt fell short as Marino completed a 41-yard pass to O.J. McDuffie to the Bills' four-yard line on the final play of the game, following a 55-yard kickoff return by John Avery.

DOLPHINS 27, INDIANAPOLIS 14
November 8, 1998

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded their fifth straight home victory to open the season on the strength of a 20-point first half and defeated the Indianapolis Colts by a 27-14 score before a paid crowd of 73,400 at Pro Player Stadium. Miami got on the board first on their fourth play of the game when Dan Marino connected with O.J. McDuffie for a 61-yard touchdown pass, the longest reception in McDuffie's career and the 300th regular season catch of his career. Miami extended its margin on the third play of the second quarter when Marino and McDuffie combined once again, this time for a six-yard score. The touchdown capped a 12-play, 86-yard drive that consumed 8:11 of the clock. Marino completed all five of his pass attempts on the drive, totaling 48 yards. Miami added an Olindo Mare field goal on its following possession, six plays after Sam Madison intercepted a Peyton Manning pass at the Dolphins' 49-yard line. The key play was a 29-yard pass interference penalty on the Colts, putting the Dolphins at the Indianapolis nine-yard line. On their ensuing series, the Dolphins took over at their own 20-yard line with 3:32 left in the first half, and Marino engineered a 12-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a Mare 23-yard field goal as time expired in the half. Marino completed each of his first six passes on the drive, totaling 47 yards. The Dolphins opened a 27-point lead on the second play of the fourth quarter when John Avery scored on an eight-yard run. Avery's run capped a 44-yard drive in which he accounted for 35 yards rushing. The Colts answered on the ensuing series with an 11-play, 71-yard drive that used 7:18 of the clock and ended with a Marshall Faulk six-yard scoring run. The score snapped a string of 17 straight quarters in which the Dolphins had not allowed a touchdown at Pro Player Stadium. Peyton Manning connected with Marcus Pollard for the two-point conversion. Indianapolis notched their second touchdown of the afternoon with 2:20 remaining in the game, on a nine-yard touchdown pass from Manning to Ken Dilger, four plays after Monty Montgomery intercepted a Marino pass and scampered 22 yards to the Dolphins' 22-yard line.

GAME 10

DOLPHINS 13, CAROLINA 9

November 15, 1998

Ericsson Stadium

Charlotte, NC

Miami recorded its first road victory since the season-opener by defeating Carolina in its first-ever visit to Ericsson Stadium by a 13-9 score before a crowd of 67,887. The Dolphins scored the first points of the game on the opening possession on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's one-yard touchdown run, which capped an 11-play, 92-yard drive that consumed 5:58 of the clock, marking Miami's longest scoring drive of the season in terms of yards. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for a total of 55 yards on five attempts on the drive. The Panthers responded with an 11-play, 45-yard drive that ended with a John Kasay 32-yard field goal. The scoring march began at the Panthers' 41 following a Michael Bates 39-yard kickoff return. A Kevin Greene interception of a Dan Marino pass, which was returned 18 yards to the Dolphins' 15-yard line, set up the next score of the game, a 27-yard field goal by Kasay 5:03 into the second quarter, five plays after the turnover. Miami got its next points of the afternoon on an Olindo Mare 22-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. The drive started at the Panthers' 49-yard line after a punt and a 15-yard unnecessary roughness penalty on Carolina. The key play was a 30-yard run by Abdul-Jabbar to the Panthers' eight-yard line. The Panthers got to the Dolphins' 17-yard line on their first possession of the second half, but were stopped on fourth-and-one. Miami took a seven-point lead 48 seconds into the fourth quarter on another 22-yard field goal by Mare. The score culminated a 10-play, 48-yard drive which started at the Dolphins' 47-yard line following a Brian Walker interception of a Steve Beuerlein pass. After stopping the Dolphins deep in their own territory, the Panthers got the ball at the Dolphins' 39-yard line after a 16-yard punt return by Winslow Oliver. That led to Kasay's third field goal of the game, a 43-yarder with 8:45 remaining in the contest. Walker came up with his second interception of the game on Carolina's next series, and the Dolphins were able to run out the final 5:03 of the contest on the strength of a third down conversion and a fourth down conversion. Both came on Marino passes, a 19-yard completion to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-nine from the Dolphins' 41-yard line, and a five-yard strike to Oronde Gadsden on fourth-and-three from the Panthers' 33-yard line. The game marked the 34th time in Dan Marino's career that he did not throw a touchdown pass, and he is now 14-20 in those games, including a 2-0 mark this year.

GAME 11

NEW ENGLAND 26, DOLPHINS 23
November 23, 1998

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, MA

Miami dropped its fourth consecutive contest at Foxboro Stadium when Drew Bledsoe connected with Shawn Jefferson for a 25-yard touchdown pass with just 29 seconds to play to give the Patriots a 26-23 win before a crowd of 58,729. The loss was the third straight by the Dolphins on Monday Night Football, dating back to last year. The Dolphins got the first points of the game on their second possession when Dan Marino hit Oronde Gadsden in stride for a 35-yard touchdown on fourth-and-10. Miami reached Patriots territory on a 26-yard pass from Marino to Troy Drayton on the first play of the drive. The Patriots tied the game on the ensuing series, almost four minutes later, on an eight-yard scoring pass from Drew Bledsoe to Ben Coates. A 38-yard completion from Bledsoe to Jefferson on the initial play of the march put New England in Miami territory, and a 14-yard reception by Coates converted a third-and-one from the Dolphins' 21. Miami regained the lead with 7:05 remaining in the first half when Marino and Gadsden hooked up for an 11-yard touchdown on third-and-seven, capping a four-play drive that began at the Patriots' 37-yard line after Sam Madison intercepted a Drew Bledsoe pass and returned it 31 yards. The Patriots cut their deficit to four points on the following series on an Adam Vinatieri 25-yard field goal with 1:08 left in the first half. The score capped a 14-play, 72-yard drive that used 5:57 of the clock. Bledsoe and Jefferson combined for a 33-yard completion on the first play of the drive, which put New England on the Miami end of the field. Overall on the drive, Bledsoe completed six of his nine passes for 72 yards, and he also ran for a yard on third-and-one. New England got to within one point 5:58 into the third quarter on Vinatieri's second field goal of the night, from 44 yards out, culminating a seven play, 45-yard drive. A 46-yard pass from Bledsoe to Robert Edwards, again on the first play of the drive, put the Patriots at the Dolphins' 25. The Dolphins responded with a nine-play, 71-yard drive that resulted in an Olindo Mare 21-yard field goal with 4:40 left in the third quarter. The Patriots answered on the following series with a 45-yard field goal by Vinatieri, after Bledsoe completed each of his first three passes on the drive, totaling 35 yards. The Patriots took their first lead of the night 5:59 into the final frame on a Vinatieri 24-yard field goal, four plays after Bledsoe hit Tony Carter for a 49-yard strike on third-and-two from their own 37-yard line. The Dolphins took over at the Patriots' 48-yard line after a 31-yard kickoff return by John Avery and a 15-yard penalty on the Patriots. Dan Marino then guided Miami on an eight-play, 48-yard drive that ended with a Karim Abdul-Jabbar four-yard touchdown run, giving the Dolphins a four-point edge with 3:22 to play. But New England put together its fifth straight scoring drive that ended with the game-winning points. The march consumed 15 plays, 80 yards and 2:53 of the clock, and saw the Patriots convert a pair of third downs and two fourth downs. After starting at their own four-yard line with just 29 seconds to play, the Dolphins got as far as the New England 37-yard line before time expired.

GAME 12

DOLPHINS 30, NEW ORLEANS 10
November 29, 1998

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded their first victory over the Saints since 1986, marking their fourth straight win over an NFC team, as they exploded for their largest offensive output of the season with 375 yards in their 30-10 win before a paid attendance of 73,216 at Pro Player Stadium. The Saints' only touchdown of the game came on an interception return, marking the fifth time this year that the Dolphins' defense did not allow a touchdown, four of them coming at Pro Player Stadium. The Saints notched the first points of the game on a Doug Brien 43-yard field goal, 7:57 into the contest. The score occurred five plays after Eric Guliford returned a punt 40 yards to the Dolphins' 43-yard line. Miami tied the score on an Olindo Mare 27-yard field goal, 1:16 into the second quarter, capping a nine-play, 60-yard drive, in which a 27-yard pass from Dan Marino to Troy Drayton put the Dolphins at the Saints' 27-yard line. New Orleans re-gained the lead with 5:43 left in the first half when Rob Kelly picked off a Marino pass and raced 79 yards down the left sideline for a touchdown. Miami answered with an eight-play, 70-yard drive that ended with a 22-yard scoring pass from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-eight, with 1:53 remaining in the half. Sam Madison intercepted a Kerry Collins pass on the next play from scrimmage, giving Miami the ball at the New Orleans 45-yard line with 1:38 on the clock.

The Dolphins traveled to the Saints' 15-yard line before Mare came on to convert his second field goal of the day, a 32-yarder with 41 seconds left in the half. Mare connected on his third try, from 34 yards away, 6:56 into the third quarter, extending the Dolphins' lead to six points. The Dolphins widened the gap on the first play of the fourth quarter when Marino and McDuffie combined for a seven-yard scoring strike, marking the 400th touchdown pass in Marino's career. The play culminated a 10-play, 82-yard drive that used 5:08 of the clock. Miami followed up that series with a nine-play, 35-yard drive that ended with a nine-yard TD connection from Marino to McDuffie on third-and-nine. The Dolphins did not allow the Saints into their end of the field the entire second half, during which time Miami limited New Orleans to just 65 yards of total offense. In fact, the Saints made it into Dolphins territory on just two of their 13 possessions of the game.

DOLPHINS 27, OAKLAND 17
December 6, 1998

Network Associates Coliseum
Oakland, CA

The Dolphins notched their second straight win in Oakland on the strength of a defense that tied a club record with six interceptions on the way to a 27-17 win before 61,254 at Network Associates Coliseum. The defense also kept Raiders quarterbacks on the move all afternoon with eight sacks, which tied for the second-most in team history. The Raiders got the first break of the game when Terry Wooden blocked a Klaus Wilmsmeyer punt, giving the Raiders possession at the Dolphins' seven-yard line. Two plays later, however, Zach Thomas tipped a Donald Hollas pass in the end zone intended for Rickey Dudley, and Sam Madison intercepted. Miami capitalized when Olindo Mare hit a 25-yard field goal, four plays after Karim Abdul-Jabbar broke loose for a 45-yard run to the Raiders' 14-yard line. In addition, Dan Marino connected with O.J. McDuffie for a 21-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Dolphins' 20-yard line. Oakland began the following drive at their own nine-yard. A Robert Jones sack put Oakland at their own two-yard line and on the next play, Zach Thomas picked off a Hollas pass on third down and returned it one yard for the third interception return for a touchdown of his career and his second this season, with both figures tying team records. Dwight Hollier recovered a Rodney Williams fumble at the Raiders' 22-yard line on the kickoff that followed, leading to a 19-yard touchdown pass from Dan Marino to Oronde Gadsden three plays later. Oakland's first points of the game came on a Greg Davis 40-yard field goal, four plays after Harvey Williams connected with Tim Brown for a 27-yard completion to the Dolphins' 11-yard line. The Dolphins' defense accounted for their second touchdown of the game when Robert Jones intercepted a Hollas pass and returned it 14 yards for his first career touchdown, with 2:38 remaining in the first half. The score was the second by the Dolphins off of an interception on the day and their fourth of the year, both equalling club records. Darrell Russell recovered a Dan Marino fumble at the Dolphins' nine-yard line on Miami's first possession of the second half, leading to a seven-yard touchdown pass from Hollas to Tim Brown two plays later. Following that score, however, the Dolphins' defense went three consecutive series in which they intercepted an Oakland pass. Miami then added three points on a Mare 47-yard field goal with 3:14 left in the game, capping a 10-play, 36-yard drive. The Raiders notched their final score of the day when Wade Wilson hit Brown for a two-yard touchdown pass with just 1:27 on the game clock, culminating a nine-play, 76-yard drive.

N.Y. JETS 21, DOLPHINS 16
December 13, 1998

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

Not only did the Dolphins miss out on a chance to clinch a playoff spot, but they could have taken a one-game lead in the AFC East with just two weeks to play in the season. In an ESPN Sunday night contest, Miami dropped a 21-16 decision to the N.Y. Jets before a paid crowd of 74,369 at Pro Player Stadium. The victory by the Jets was their first in Miami since 1993, the same year they last swept a season series from the Dolphins. Miami took a 3-0 lead following their second series of the game when Olindo Mare converted a 24-yard field goal to cap a 15-play, 73-yard drive that used 7:44 of the clock. Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 34 yards on seven carries on the drive, in which Dan Marino also threw for 49 yards. The Jets answered to take the lead with 1:25 to play in the opening period when Vinny Testaverde found Wayne Chrebet in the end zone for a 12-yard touchdown strike, one play after Testaverde and Chrebet combined for a 52-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Jets' 36-yard line. New York had a chance to go up by ten points with 8:07 left in the second quarter, but Shane Burton blocked a 32-yard field goal attempt by John Hall. After stopping Miami deep in its own territory, the Jets got the ball at their own 44-yard line on their second series of the second half. Testaverde connected with Kyle Brady for a 35-yard completion on the next play from scrimmage, leading to a Curtis Martin nine-yard scoring run three plays afterward, giving New York a 14-3 advantage. The Dolphins got to the Jets 10-yard line early in the fourth quarter, but on third down Victor Green picked off a Marino pass and returned it 87 yards to the Dolphins' nine-yard line. Two plays later, Terrell Buckley intercepted a Testaverde pass in the end zone and brought it back 61 yards to the Jets' 41-yard line. That led to a three-yard TD pass from Marino to O.J. McDuffie five plays later, on third-and-goal. Patrick Surtain recovered the ensuing onside kick. The Dolphins, however, were stopped on fourth-and-one from the Jets' 45. The Jets got to the Dolphins' 27-yard line after taking over on downs, but Trace Armstrong recovered a Martin fumble, putting Miami at their own 34-yard line. Two plays later, though, Chad Cascadden stripped Marino of the ball, recovered and raced 23 yards for a touchdown, with 1:51 remaining. The Dolphins put together a 14-play, 80-yard drive that used 1:48 of the clock and resulted in a Stanley Pritchett one-yard touchdown run, the first rushing score of his NFL career.

GAME 15

DOLPHINS 31, DENVER 21
December 21, 1998

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins clinched the 18th playoff berth in franchise history as they recorded their 34th victory on ABC Monday Night Football, a new MNF record, by defeating the defending Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos by a 31-21 score before a paid crowd of 74,363 at Pro Player Stadium. After falling behind 10-0 in the second quarter, the Dolphins scored 31 of the final 42 points. Denver traveled 46 yards in 13 plays on their initial series of the game, with Jason Elam capping the march with a 52-yard field goal, the longest against Miami in 1998. Broncos quarterback John Elway threw for 37 of the 46 yards on the drive. The Dolphins responded with a 67-yard drive, but could not capitalize when Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 28-yard field goal attempt. Bill Romanowski recovered a Dolphins fumble at midfield 1:14 into the second quarter. From there, the Broncos got to the Dolphins' nine-yard line. On third-and-goal, Elway scrambled and fumbled into the end zone, and the loose ball was recovered by Broncos wide receiver Rod Smith, giving Denver a 10-0 lead. The score remained that way until the Dolphins got the ball at midfield with 1:49 left in the first half. Two plays after Dan Marino connected with Nate Jacquet for a 29-yard completion to the Broncos' 21-yard line on third-and-10, Marino hit Lamar Thomas for a nine-yard touchdown pass. The Broncos took over at their own 31 with 54 seconds remaining in the half. Elway completed three straight passes, totaling 43 yards, putting the Broncos at the Dolphins' 26-yard line and setting up an Elam 44-yard field goal as time expired in the half. Elam missed wide left on a 43-yard field goal attempt following the opening series of the second half. Miami got the ball back at their own 33-yard line and four plays later, Marino and Thomas combined once again for their second touchdown of the game, this time from 56 yards out. Miami took the lead for good on their ensuing series when a five-play, 64-yard drive ended with a 17-yard scoring pass from Marino to Thomas, two plays after Marino hit Troy Drayton for a 21-yard pass to the Broncos' 19-yard line. Miami extended its lead to 15 points at 28-13 when Marino hit Oronde Gadsden for an eight-yard scoring pass on third down, three plays after Sam Madison intercepted an Elway pass and returned it 35 yards to the Broncos' six-yard line. Vaughn Hebron returned the ensuing kickoff 95 yards for a score, and after Bubby Brister combined with Ed McCaffrey for the two-point conversion, the Broncos trailed by seven points at 28-21. The Broncos stopped the Dolphins on the following series after they made it to the Denver 39. But Jerry Wilson picked off an Elway pass at the Broncos' 44-yard line on third-and-10 with 3:17 remaining. That led to a Mare 42-yard field goal with 1:10 to play for the final points of the evening.

ATLANTA 38, DOLPHINS 16 Georgia Dome
Atlanta, GA
 December 27, 1998

Although the Dolphins dropped an interconference matchup for the only time in 1998 with a 38-16 loss to the Atlanta Falcons at the Georgia Dome, a New England loss at the New York Jets gave Miami the number four seed in the playoffs and the right to host Buffalo in a First-Round Playoff game. The Falcons broke on top on the game's first play from scrimmage when Chris Chandler connected with O.J. Santiago for a 62-yard scoring pass. The Falcons notched their second touchdown in as many possessions when Chandler and Santiago hooked up once again, this time from three yards out. The score came one play after Chandler hit Tony Martin for a 53-yard completion on third-and-four from the Falcons' 44-yard line. Atlanta made it a 21-0 game at the 7:00 mark of the first quarter when Ronnie Bradford picked off a Dan Marino pass and raced 11 yards for a touchdown. Miami got its first points of the day when Dan Marino connected with O.J. McDuffie for a 12-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal, 3:14 into the second quarter. The score capped a seven-play, 61-yard drive in which Marino had completions of 28 yards to McDuffie and 21 yards to Lamar Thomas, putting Miami at the Atlanta five-yard line. The Falcons tacked on three more points when Morten Andersen culminated a 13-play, 51-yard drive that used 6:59 of the clock with a 35-yard field goal, 4:47 before halftime. Atlanta converted three third downs on the march. The Dolphins got to the Falcons' nine-yard line with less than two minutes to play in the first half, but Michael Booker intercepted a Marino pass in the end zone to end the threat. Travis Hall recovered a Ron Moore fumble at the Dolphins' 35-yard line on the first series of the second half, and on the next play Steve DeBerg connected with Tony Martin for a 35-yard touchdown strike. Eugene Robinson recovered a John Avery fumble on Miami's next offensive series and returned it six yards to the Dolphins' 36-yard line. Jamal Anderson then busted loose up the middle on the very next play for a 36-yard touchdown run. The Dolphins responded with an 11-play, 71-yard drive that consumed 6:20 of the clock and ended with a Marino three-yard scoring run on third-and-goal. Patrick Surtain recovered the ensuing onside kick at the Dolphins' 43-yard line, leading to a 13-play, 49-yard drive that ended with an Olindo Mare 26-yard field goal with 1:55 left in the third quarter, four plays after Marino hit Oronde Gadsden for a 25-yard completion on fourth-and-10 from the Falcons' 32-yard line.

DOLPHIN FACT

The only player for whom the Dolphins received trade value twice is QB John Stofa. Stofa, who joined Miami as a free agent in 1966, was traded on Dec. 26, 1967, to Cincinnati for first and second round draft choices in 1968. He re-joined the Dolphins as a free agent in 1969 and was traded on Nov. 23, 1971, to Denver for a seventh-round pick in 1972.

In 1998, the Dolphins signed Tennessee guard Kevin Donnalley as an unrestricted free agent. Donnalley was selected by the Titans in the third round of the 1991 draft, with a choice obtained from Miami in exchange for linebacker John Grimsley.

DOLPHIN FACT

Former Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula was one of only four coaches in NFL history to have coached the same team for 20 or more consecutive seasons. Shula (1970-95) completed his 26th season with the Dolphins. Green Bay's Curley Lambeau (1921-49) and Dallas' Tom Landry (1960-88) share the record with 29 seasons each, while Pittsburgh's Chuck Noll (1969-91) and the N.Y. Giants' Steve Owen (1931-53) coached 23 years with their teams.

PRESEASON GAME 1

DOLPHINS 19, WASHINGTON 16
August 8, 1998

Jack Kent Cooke Stadium
Rajon, MD

Miami registered an impressive win in their 1998 preseason opener and their first-ever visit to Jack Kent Cooke Stadium with a 19-16 win over the Washington Redskins. The Dolphins got the first points of the game on their initial series when Olando Mare converted on a 27-yard field goal attempt. The score capped a 15-play, 70-yard drive that used 9:38 of the clock. Dan Marino completed six of seven passes for 58 yards on the march. Marino's totals included a 16-yard completion to Ed Perry to convert a third-and-five, and a 19-yard toss to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven. Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the drive. Mare hit his second field goal of the night in as many tries when he connected on a 44-yarder, 4:25 into the second stanza. As a team, the Dolphins rushed for 53 yards on nine carries on the drive, including 25 yards by Abdul-Jabbar (two atts.) and 21 by Jerris McPhail (five atts.). Mare added a 50-yard field goal with just 26 seconds remaining in the first half. The score came four plays after Kirby Dar Dar forced the ball loose from James Thrash on a punt return, and Bernie Parmalee recovered at the Redskins' 37-yard line. After the Dolphins stopped the Redskins on three straight plays to open the second half, Charles Jordan brought back a Matt Turk punt 53 yards to the Redskins' 15-yard line, setting up a Ray Nealy three-yard touchdown run four plays afterward. Miami notched its final points of the contest on a Mare 46-yard field goal with 3:54 left in the third quarter, four plays after Kenny Mixon intercepted a Jeff Hostetler pass. Washington didn't get on the board until the 13:28 mark of the fourth quarter when Skip Hicks scampered into the end zone from two yards out. Larry Izzo sacked Hostetler on the two-point attempt. Jeff Suave cut the Redskins deficit to ten points on a 30-yard field goal on Washington's next series. Following the Redskins' next possession, Sam Madison intercepted a Trent Green pass, but Chris Thomas forced the ball loose from Madison, and Thomas recovered and brought it back 10 yards to the Dolphins' three-yard line, leading to a three-yard TD pass from Green to Albert Connell with 1:02 remaining. Washington could not come up with the ensuing onside kick. The Dolphins outgained the Redskins 163-42 in the first half. Miami's offense controlled the clock for 20:53 of the first half.

PRESEASON GAME 2

DOLPHINS 14, TAMPA BAY 13
August 13, 1998

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded their second consecutive win to open the preseason with a 14-13 win over Tampa Bay before a crowd of 59,184 in their 1998 home debut. Kicker Olindo Mare surprised the home fans when his initial kickoff of the game was an onside attempt. The kick was recovered by Miami's Patrick Surtain, but the Dolphins were called for offsides. The re-kick was an onside try as well, and Brian Walker recovered for Miami at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. They then embarked on an 11-play, 56-yard drive that consumed 6:49 of the clock and ended with a Mare 22-yard field goal. Quarterback Dan Marino completed all five of his pass attempts, for 48 yards on the march. The Bucs knotted the score at three when Michael Husted connected on a 27-yard field goal, seven plays after John Lynch intercepted a Craig Erickson pass and returned it 28 yards to the Dolphins' 27-yard line. Miami capitalized on a Tampa Bay turnover when Mare hit on a 39-yard field goal, 1:33 prior to the half, giving the Dolphins a 6-3 lead. The score occurred four plays after Larry Izzo recovered a Jacquez Green fumble on a punt return at the Bucs' 26-yard line. The Bucs tied the game once again, on a 51-yard field goal by Peter Elezovic with 2:08 remaining in the third quarter. The score came after Tony Bouie intercepted a Chad May pass at the Bucs' 47-yard line on the previous series. After the Bucs forced the Dolphins into a three-and-out, they took over at their own five-yard line. A nine-play, 95-yard drive that used 5:44 of the clock ensued, ending in a Scott Milanovich to Brice Hunter 17-yard touchdown pass. Milanovich completed both of his pass attempts, totaling 34 yards, and he also scrambled for an eight-yard gain on third-and-five from the Bucs' 49-yard line on the drive. Miami followed with two unsuccessful offensive series before they got the ball at their own 34 with 1:39 left in the game after a Terrell Buckley 13-yard punt return. All three plays that followed were completions from Damon Huard to Oronde Gadsden, with the final one being a 30-yard scoring strike with 1:13 left in the game. The tandem combined for the ensuing two-point conversion, lifting Miami to the victory.

PRESEASON GAME 3

DOLPHINS 21, SAN FRANCISCO 20
August 23, 1998

3Com Park
San Francisco, CA

Rookie running back John Avery rushed for two second-half touchdowns, lifting the Dolphins to a 21-20 come-from-behind victory over the San Francisco 49ers at 3Com Park. The 49ers took a 7-0 lead with 3:45 left in the first quarter when Steve Young found a wide open Terrell Owens for a 72-yard TD. The score came two plays after Lee Woodall recovered a Karim Abdul-Jabbar fumble at the 49ers' 11-yard line. The Dolphins equaled the count at seven apiece 1:02 into the second quarter when Dan Marino hit Charles Jordan in stride for a 37-yard touchdown on third-and-10. The 49ers went back on top with just 1:08 remaining in the first half when Young and Owens again combined for a score, this time from one-yard out. The touchdown pass capped a 12-play, 80-yard drive that used 4:31 of the clock. It came four plays after Young connected with Mark Harris for a 40-yard completion to the Dolphins' three-yard line. The tandem of Young and Owens struck for the third time, 2:47 into the third quarter, on a 26-yard touchdown connection. The score came three plays after Miami cornerback Terrell Buckley was called for a 34-yard pass interference, putting San Francisco at the Dolphins' 32-yard line. The PAT was no good, and it would ultimately cost San Francisco the game. The Dolphins closed the deficit to six points with 3:27 to play in the third quarter on a John Avery two-yard scoring run on fourth-and-goal. The scoring drive started at the 49ers' 36-yard line after Shawn Wooden intercepted a Jim Druckenmiller pass and returned it seven yards. The score occurred four plays after Dan Marino hit Lamar Thomas for a 26-yard completion to the 49ers' nine-yard line. Miami took its first lead of the game 2:57 into the fourth quarter when Avery broke loose down the left sideline for a 71-yard touchdown run. The 49ers were not able to get into Dolphins' territory on any of their final five series of the game, covering the entire fourth quarter.

PRESEASON GAME 4

DOLPHINS 21, GREEN BAY 7
August 28, 1998

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins capped the fourth perfect preseason in team history and the first since 1981 with a defensive performance that limited the Packers to just 39 yards rushing on 20 carries in a 21-7 win at Pro Player Stadium. Miami scored on the initial possession of the game when Karim Abdul-Jabbar capped a 12-play, 55-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run on third-and-goal. The drive started at the Dolphins' 45-yard line following a 41-yard kickoff return by John Avery. Dan Marino completed all three of his passes totaling 27 yards, and Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 23 yards on the march. The Packers got to the Dolphins' 23-yard line on the ensuing series, but Tim Bowers recovered a Brett Favre fumble. Jonathan Brown picked up an Avery fumble at the Dolphins' 11-yard line with 6:40 left in the second half. After Miami held Green Bay to one yard over the next three plays, Ryan Longwell's 29-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right. Green Bay got into Miami territory late in the first half, but Jason Taylor intercepted a Doug Pederson pass and returned it 38 yards to the Packers' 26-yard line. Abdul-Jabbar then carried the ball on five straight plays, the final one being a one-yard run for his second score of the night, with just 29 seconds remaining in the first half. On their opening possession of the second half, the Dolphins put together an 11-play, 45-yard drive that used 4:57 of the clock and ended with a four-yard scoring strike from Damon Huard to Hendrick Lusk. The march began at the Packers' 45-yard line following a 16-yard punt return by Terrell Buckley. The key play was a 31-yard completion from Huard to Oronde Gadsden, putting the Dolphins at the Packers' 14-yard line. The Packers spoiled the Dolphins' shutout hopes when Matt Hasselbeck connected with Ronnie Anderson for a 31-yard touchdown strike with 4:40 to play in the contest, culminating a two-play drive. One play earlier, Hasselbeck hit William Henderson for a 27-yard completion.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl. In 21 years, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record.

In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March, 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl has been the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

Marino finishes the afternoon 30 of 50 for 448 yards and six TDs. The six TDs are a personal high for Marino and tie the team record held by Bob Griese. Mark Duper (154) and Mark Clayton (174) each have over 100 yards receiving in the game. Standout LB Hugh Green suffers a knee injury which sidelines him for the season.
 - Oct. 12 – In what was billed as "Marino-Kelly I," the Dolphins and Dan Marino (24 of 41 for 337 yards) defeat the Buffalo Bills and Jim Kelly (20 of 28 for 218 yards, two INTs) 27-14 at the Orange Bowl.
 - Nov. 24 – The N.Y. Jets enter the Orange Bowl with a nine-game winning streak and the league's best record at 10-1. They leave with a 45-3 loss as Lorenzo Hampton rushes for 148 yards and two TDs on 19 carries (7.8 average) including a 54-yard TD run. Hampton's 100 yards snap a streak of 36 regular-season games (41 overall) for Miami without a 100-yard rusher. Marino completes a personal-high 80.6 percent of his passes (29 of 36) for 288 yards and four TDs.
 - Nov. 25 – Less than 24 hours after the memorable 45-3 win over the Jets, General Manager Mike Robbie announces at a press conference that Don Shula has signed a multi-year contract to remain as head coach.
 - Dec. 14 – Dan Marino sets an NFL career record with the seventh 400-yard game of his career as he passes for 403 yards in a thrilling 37-31 overtime win in Anaheim, Calif., over the playoff-bound L.A. Rams. Marino completes 29 of 46 with five TDs, including a 20-yarder to Mark Duper in OT to win the game. Marino is named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts.
 - Dec. 22 – The Dolphins play their final game in the Orange Bowl – a 34-27 loss to the New England Patriots. New England captures the AFC East title with the win. The Dolphins finish 21 years in the Orange Bowl with an impressive 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. Marino sets NFL single-season records for completions (378) and attempts (623).

- Jan. 10 – John Offerdahl is named Old Spice NFL Rookie of the Year
- Jan. 20 – Tom Olivadotti, an assistant for the Cleveland Browns, is named Defensive Coach for Miami. He is put in charge of the overall defense with the prime responsibility of pass defense. Chuck Studley is re-assigned as Linebacker Coach, with prime responsibility of run defense. Linebacker Coach Bob Matheson resigns.
- Jan. 27 – Former Dolphin greets Larry Csonka and Jim Langer are among a group of seven named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They join Paul Warfield as the only members of the franchise to earn the honor, with induction scheduled for August 8.
- Aug. 16 – The Dolphins play host to the Chicago Bears in the first game ever played in Joe Robbie Stadium. The date marks the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphin franchise. The Bears put a damper on the festive evening with a 10-3 preseason victory before 63,451. QB Dan Marino (dislocated ring finger on right hand) and LB John Offerdahl (torn right bicep) suffer injuries. Marino is out for three weeks; Offerdahl will miss the first six regular-season games.
- Sept. 22 – NFL Players Association goes on strike; the Dolphins' home contest with New York Giants (first regular-season game in Joe Robbie Stadium) on September 27 is cancelled because of strike.
- Oct. 4 – The Dolphins' "replacement" team takes the field for the first time, traveling to Seattle to meet the Seahawks. The Dolphins lose, 24-20.

- Oct. 11 – Miami's replacement team records a 42-0 shutout victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in the first regular-season game played in Joe Robbie Stadium. Safety Liffort Hobley (two interceptions, 55-yard fumble recovery for a TD, four tackles, two passes defended) is named AFC defensive player of the week for his efforts. Don Shula and Joe Robbie are given game balls by the replacement team following the contest in honor of Miami's first win in the new stadium. The next week (October 18), the replacement team loses its last game, 37-31 in overtime, to the N.Y. Jets at the Meadowlands.
- Oct. 25 – After four missed weeks of action (one game cancellation, three replacement games), the regular Dolphin players return to action. Miami loses 34-31 in overtime at home to the Buffalo Bills. The 21-point comeback by Buffalo is the best ever by an opponent against a Dolphins team.
- Nov. 1 – Don Shula wins his 250th regular-season game as the Dolphins defeat Pittsburgh 35-24 at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Nov. 29 – The Dolphins suffer their first shutout loss (27-0 at Buffalo) since December 12, 1982 – the famous snowpocalypse game at New England (3-0). The game also sees the end of Dan Marino's streak of 30 straight games with at least one touchdown pass. His string is second all-time to Johnny Unitas' 47.
- Dec. 20 – Miami picks up its final win of 1987 with a 23-21 victory over Washington at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins lose the following week (December 28) in the '87 finale to New England, 24-10, at home. The Redskins, meanwhile, go on to win Super Bowl XXII, 42-10 over Denver.
- Dec. 30 – RB Troy Stradford is named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press.

- July 11 – Training camp opens for the Dolphins at St. Thomas University as Head Coach Don Shula welcomes 109 players – the largest group of players in Shula's tenure as Dolphin head coach.
- July 31 – The Dolphins make their first ever trip abroad and take on the San Francisco 49ers at Wembley Stadium in London for the third-annual American Bowl. Miami comes from behind to defeat the 49ers, 27-21, before 70,535 British fans to open the pre-season.
- Sept. 18 – Miami registers its first win of the season in a 24-17 triumph over the Green Bay Packers. It marks Miami's 18th win in 23 home openers, including 13 straight years, and a 17-2 record under Don Shula. Dan Marino goes over the 20,000-yard mark in career passing yardage and becomes only the 45th quarterback in NFL history to do so.
- Oct. 9 – The Dolphins reverse history by defeating the Raiders, 24-17, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. It marks Miami's first win ever against the Raiders in their home stadium and the Dolphins' first victory over the Raiders in 10 years. The game is played in 96 degree heat – the warmest game in Dolphins' history.
- Oct. 16 – Miami wins its third consecutive game of the season as the Dolphins defeat the San Diego Chargers, 31-28. Quarterback Dan Marino throws for 329 yards and moves into sole possession of second-place on the NFL's career 300-yard passing games list with his 27th such game (behind only Dan Fouts with 51).
- Oct. 23 – Dan Marino records the second-best single-game passing yardage total in NFL history – 521 yards (Norm Van Brocklin holds the single-game record of 554 yards) and completes 35 of a team record 60 attempts, all to no avail as the N.Y. Jets defeat the Dolphins, 44-30, at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Oct. 30 – Shula Bowl III – Head Coach Don Shula and his assistant head coach and son, David Shula, are on the opposite side of the field of Mike Shula, a coaches' assistant for Tampa Bay, as the Dolphins defeat the Bucs, 17-14, in Tampa Stadium.
- Dec. 12 – Dan Marino becomes the first quarterback in NFL history to pass for over 4,000 yards four times in a career in the Dolphins' 37-31 win over Cleveland. He also throws for his 193rd career touchdown, setting a new Dolphin record and surpassing the total of former quarterback Bob Griese, who had previously held the mark. Marino tops the record that took Griese 14 seasons to accomplish in only six-plus seasons. Also, receiver Mark Clayton surpasses Nat Moore in the record books as he catches a pass in his 37th consecutive game.

- Jan. 22 – Joe Robbie Stadium hosts Super Bowl XXIII only two-and-a-half years after its initial opening. San Francisco comes back in the final minutes of the game to defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 20-16. The game marks the first time since Super Bowl XIII (January 21, 1979) that the NFL's championship game is played in Miami.

- Sept. 10 – Jim Kelly scores on a two-yard run on the game's last play to give the Buffalo Bills a 27-24 win over the Dolphins. The loss dropped Miami's record in season openers to 10-13-1 and in home openers to 18-5-1 and it also snapped a 13-game winning streak in home openers, which had been the NFL's longest active home opener winning streak.
- Sept. 17 – In Miami's 24-10 win at New England, Dan Marino throws his 200th career touchdown pass, becoming the 13th player in NFL history to throw for 200 TDs. It was just his 89th career game, and he reaches the 200 touchdown pass mark faster than any quarterback in NFL history.
- Oct. 8 – In Miami's 13-10 overtime win vs. Cleveland, Dan Marino goes over 25,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 25th player in NFL history to reach the 25,000 yards passing milestone. Marino also breaks Bob Griese's Dolphin team record of 25,092 career passing yards.
- Nov. 5 – Sammie Smith rushes for 123 yards in Miami's 19-13 win over the Indianapolis Colts, the third best single game rushing total ever by a Dolphin rookie. It also breaks a 27-game streak in which the Dolphins did not have a running back gain 100 or more yards.
- Nov. 12 – Pete Stoyanovich kicks a team-record 59-yard field goal in a 31-23 victory over the New York Jets, a kick that also tied the third longest field goal in NFL history.
- Nov. 19 – Miami defeats Dallas 17-14 in Shula Bowl IV, as Don Shula extends his record to 4-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time Shula was opposed by son Dave, the Assistant Head Coach of the Cowboys. The win also was the Dolphins' sixth win in their last seven games and moved them into a first-place tie with the Buffalo Bills atop the AFC East.
- Dec. 3 – Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year in Miami's 26-21 loss at Kansas City. It was his sixth season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Dan Fouts' NFL record of six 3,000 yard seasons.
- Dec. 24 – The Dolphins are eliminated from playoff contention with a 27-24 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs in the season finale at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is played in 40-degree weather, the coldest home game in the history of the Dolphins.

- Sept. 9 – Sammie Smith rushes for an opening-day record 159 yards and a touchdown as the Dolphins break a five-year losing streak in season openers with a 27-24 win at the New England Patriots.
- Sept. 16 – Team founder Joe Robbie is the first enshrinee on the "Dolphin Honor Roll" at Joe Robbie Stadium. In addition, the Dolphins end a six-game losing streak to the Buffalo Bills and move into undisputed first place in the AFC East for the first time since Week 15 of the 1985 season with a 30-7 triumph. It is also Don Shula's 200th career regular season win as head coach of the Dolphins.
- Oct. 18 – In Miami's 17-10 win over the New England Patriots, Don Shula coaches in his 400th career regular season game as a head coach in the NFL.
- Nov. 19 – During halftime of Miami's 13-10 loss to the Los Angeles Raiders, the team's four Hall of Fame enshrinees, Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer and Paul Warfield, are inducted into the "Dolphin Honor Roll."
- Nov. 25 – Miami improves its record to 9-2 and clinches the team's first winning season since 1987 with a 30-13 win over the Cleveland Browns. Also, Dan Marino goes over 30,000 yards passing in his career, becoming the 11th player in NFL history to reach the 30,000-yard mark. It is just his 114th career game, and he reaches the 30,000-yard plateau faster than any quarterback in NFL history.
- Dec. 9 – The Dolphins earn a 23-20 overtime win over the Philadelphia Eagles and clinch the team's first playoff berth since 1985.
- Dec. 16 – In Miami's 24-17 win over the Seattle Seahawks, Dan Marino goes over 3,000 yards passing for the year. It is his seventh season passing for 3,000 yards and he ties Joe Montana's NFL record of seven 3,000-yard seasons.
- Dec. 19 – Richmond Webb becomes the first rookie offensive tackle – and second rookie offensive lineman overall – to be selected to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl contest.
- Dec. 23 – Dan Marino throws his 20th touchdown pass of the season in Miami's 24-14 loss at the Buffalo Bills. It is his eighth season with 20 or more touchdown passes and he ties Johnny Unitas' NFL record of eight 20-plus touchdown seasons.

- Jan. 5 – The Dolphins return to the playoffs after a four-year absence with a 17-16 win over the Kansas City Chiefs in Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Pete Stoyanovich sets an NFL playoff record with a 58-yard field goal.
- Jan. 12 – Miami drops a 44-34 playoff decision at the Buffalo Bills. The two teams combine for 78 points – the highest scoring non-overtime playoff game in history. The only higher scoring playoff was Miami's 41-38 overtime loss to the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 2, 1982.
- Jan. 24 – Monte Clark, the Dolphins director of pro personnel, announces his resignation.
- Jan. 27 – Larry Csonka is named to the NFL's all-time Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team.
- Feb. 2 – Richmond Webb is named NFL Rookie of the Year by The Sporting News.

- March 26 – The Robbie Family and Wayne Huizenga purchase 107 acres of land adjacent to Joe Robbie Stadium for additional parking and future development.
- May 23 – At the NFL owners meetings in Minneapolis, Joe Robbie Stadium is selected as the site for Super Bowl XXIX (1995).
- Aug. 3 – The Dolphins make the longest road trip in team history as they travel 14,912 round-trip miles to Tokyo to take on the Los Angeles Raiders at the Tokyo Dome in American Bowl '91. Miami comes from behind to defeat the Raiders, 19-17, before 51,122 Japanese fans.
- Aug. 20 – Dan Marino signs a five-year contract extension to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.
- Sept. 22 – Don Shula captures the 300th win of his coaching career with Miami's 16-13 win over the Green Bay Packers. With career coaching win number 300, Shula joins the immortal George Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more games.
- Nov. 10 – In Miami's 30-20 win over New England, both Mark Duper and Mark Clayton surpass Nat Moore's team record of 7,547 career receiving yards. Duper is the first to move past Moore with a 17-yard reception in the first quarter, while Clayton passes Moore with a 32-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.

- Nov. 18 – During halftime of Miami's 41-27 loss to the Buffalo Bills, former Dolphin great middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.
- Nov. 24 – The Dolphins record a 16-13 overtime win at Chicago in 27-degree snowy weather, only the second win ever for the Dolphins in their nine games in which the temperature has been 27 degrees or colder.
- Dec. 1 – Dan Marino sets an NFL record as he goes over 3,000 yards passing in a season for the eighth time in his career in Miami's 33-14 win over Tampa Bay. Marino entered the 1991 campaign with seven such seasons and was tied with Joe Montana for the record.
- Dec. 9 – Miami defeats Cincinnati 37-13 in Shula Bowl V as Don Shula extends his record to 5-0 in Shula vs. Shula contests. This time, Shula teamed with son Mike, a Dolphins coaches assistant, and was opposed by son David, the receivers coach for the Bengals. In the contest, Dan Marino set an NFL record by throwing his 20th touchdown pass of the season. It is his ninth season with 20 or more touchdown passes. He entered 1991 with eight such seasons and was tied with Johnny Unitas for the record. Also, Mark Clayton breaks Nat Moore's team record for career TDs (75) and career receiving scores (74) with a 16-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter to give Clayton his 76th career score (75 catch, one punt return) and 75th receiving TD.
- Dec. 15 – Pete Stoyanovich breaks Garo Yepremian's single-season team record of 28 field goals in Miami's 38-30 loss to the San Diego Chargers. Stoyanovich boots his 29th of the year with a 24-yarder in the first quarter. He would go on to hit on 31 field goals during the 1991 season which tied for the league high with Washington's Chip Lohmiller.
- Dec. 22 – The Dolphins drop a 23-20 overtime decision to the New York Jets in a winner-take-all battle for the AFC's final wild card spot. Miami takes a 20-17 lead with just 44 seconds left in regulation on a one-yard scoring toss from Dan Marino to Ferrell Edmunds. However, the Jets move the ball and tie the game at 20-20 on a 44-yard field goal by Raul Allegre with no time left on the clock. New York wins the game in overtime on a 30-yard field goal by Allegre.

- Feb. 1 – Former Dolphin All-Pro center Dwight Stephenson rejoins Miami as assistant offensive line coach.
- Feb. 3 – Hall of Fame defensive tackle Joe Greene is named as the Dolphins' defensive line coach. Greene replaced Dan Sekanovich, who announced his resignation.
- May 20 – Dolphins sign a long-term agreement to build a new training facility at Nova University in Davie, to be ready by the start of the 1993 training camp.
- June 1 – Charley Winner announces his retirement as Miami's Director of Player Personnel. Winner, who had served 37 years in the NFL as a coach and administrator, originally joined the Dolphins in 1981.
- June 4 – Tom Heckert is named as the Dolphins' Director of Player Personnel. Heckert had worked the previous three years as Miami's Director of College Scouting.
- June 12 – Tom Braatz, a 27-year NFL executive with the Atlanta Falcons and Green Bay Packers, is named as Miami's Director of College Scouting.
- July 17 – Don Shula signs a two-year contract extension to continue as the Dolphins' Head Coach through the 1994 season. The extension takes effect at the conclusion of Shula's current contract which expires following the 1992 season.
- Aug. 16 – The Dolphins travel 9,908 round-trip miles and earn a 31-27 preseason win over the Denver Broncos before a crowd of 60,813 fans at Berlin's Olympic Stadium. The game marks the third time overall and second consecutive season that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 3-0 in games played on foreign soil. The Dolphins join the L.A. Rams as only teams which have recorded wins in contests played in each of the three American Bowl sites (London, Tokyo and Berlin).
- Aug. 31 – Miami's season opening contest, scheduled for September 6 at Joe Robbie Stadium against the New England Patriots, is rescheduled for October 18, the National Football League announces. The date change is made in the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew, which struck the South Florida area on August 25. Both teams originally were off that weekend, based on the NFL's 16-games-over-17-weeks schedule which allows each team one bye during the season. The Patriots and Dolphins will have their Open Week on September 6, which marks the beginning of the 1992 regular season.

- Sept. 29 – The Dolphins dip into the free agent market and sign perennial all-pro tight end Keith Jackson.
- Oct. 4 – The Dolphins improve to 4-0 and take over sole possession of first place in the AFC East for the first time in 34 weeks with a 37-10 win over the Buffalo Bills at Rich Stadium. The win snaps Miami's six-game losing streak to the Bills at Rich Stadium. The Dolphins' last triumph in Buffalo was a 34-24 win on November 16, 1986. With the win, Miami moves ahead of the second-place Bills (4-1) in the AFC East for the first time since the second week of the 1990 season. Individually, safety Louis Oliver records three interceptions and returns one of his INTs for a 103-yard touchdown. Oliver's return ties for the NFL's all-time longest interception return with a 103-yard return by San Diego's Vencie Glenn against Denver on November 29, 1987.
- Oct. 18 – Dan Marino throws four touchdown passes as Miami earns a 38-17 win over the Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium in a game that is rescheduled from September 6 due to the effects of Hurricane Andrew. Marino throws four-or-more touchdowns in a game for the 17th time in his career and ties the all-time NFL record for most career games with four or more touchdown passes with Johnny Unitas.
- Nov. 8 – The Dolphins record a 28-0 win at the Indianapolis Colts. Miami's shutout is the first by the team since October 11, 1987, when the Dolphins posted a 42-0 win over the Kansas City Chiefs in a replacement contest at Joe Robbie Stadium. In addition, it is the first Dolphin shutout in a non-replacement game since December 22, 1985, in a 28-0 win over the Buffalo Bills in the Orange Bowl and the first road shutout since September 4, 1983, in a 12-0 win at the Buffalo Bills in Rich Stadium.
- Nov. 16 – During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 26-20 loss to the Buffalo Bills, the 1972 Miami Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII, are honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.
- Dec. 14 – Miami reverses history by earning a 20-7 win over the Los Angeles Raiders on Monday Night Football at Joe Robbie Stadium. The contest marks the Dolphins' first win over the Raiders in a game played in Miami since a 23-6 triumph on December 10, 1978, in the Orange Bowl.
- Dec. 20 – The Dolphins clinch the team's second trip to the playoffs in the last three seasons with a 19-17 come-from-behind win over the New York Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino throws the 290th touchdown pass of his NFL career and ties Johnny Unitas for second place on the NFL's all-time touchdown pass list.
- Dec. 23 – Dan Marino is named to his team-record seventh Pro Bowl team. He breaks the former team record of six Pro Bowl appearances which he shared with Bob Griese, Bob Kuechenberg and Jim Langer. In addition, Marino is named as a starter in the NFL's annual all-star game for the fifth time in his career and he ties the team record held by Jim Langer.
- Dec. 27 – The Dolphins clinch the AFC East title with a 16-13 overtime win over the New England Patriots at Foxboro Stadium. Miami closes the regular season with an 11-5 record and coupled with Buffalo's 27-3 loss at Houston later in the day, the Dolphins win the team's first division championship since 1985. In addition, the win marks the 300th regular season victory of Dolphins' Head Coach Don Shula's coaching career.

- Jan. 10 – The Dolphins earn a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory is the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on Jan. 2, 1972; a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on Jan. 16, 1983; and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on Dec. 29, 1984.
- Jan. 17 – The 1992 season comes to a close. Miami suffers five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team drops a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship contest before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The attendance of 72,703 marks the largest crowd to witness a Dolphin game at JRS. The previous high was 71,224 which was set the previous week on January 10 to witness the Dolphins' 31-0 win over San Diego in an AFC Divisional Playoff game.
- Jan. 26 – Kim Helton is named the team's offensive line coach. John Sandusky, who served as assistant head coach/offensive line, remains with the team as assistant head coach and assumes the responsibility of coaching the tight ends. In addition, assistant offensive line coach Dwight Stephenson resigns to pursue his interests in the construction and real estate business.
- Jan. 30 – Former Dolphins great Larry Little is among a group of five named to the 'Pro Football Hall of Fame. The former Dolphin guard becomes the fifth player in Miami history to earn the honor, joining RB Larry Csonka, QB Bob Griese, C Jim Langer and WR Paul Warfield.

- Feb. 7 — The Dolphin coaching staff leads the AFC to a 23-20 overtime win over the NFC in the Pro Bowl contest played in Honolulu, Hawaii.
- Feb. 11 — Mike Shula resigns as a coaches assistant and is named as tight end coach of the Chicago Bears.
- Feb. 22 — Tony Nathan, who spent the past five years as a coaches' assistant on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, is promoted to offensive backs coach. In addition, Carl Taseff, who served as the team's offensive backs coach since joining the Dolphins in 1970, will become more active in other areas of the football operation, including personnel scouting and evaluation, and will maintain a continued involvement in various coaching responsibilities.
- May 21 — Kim Helton resigns as offensive line coach to become head coach at the University of Houston. John Sandusky, who served as offensive line coach from 1976-92, resumes his offensive line coaching responsibilities.
- June 1 — Rich McGeorge is named as assistant offensive line/tight ends coach of the Dolphins.
- June 4 — Dolphins hold last practice session at St. Thomas University, which had served as host to team's training facility since July 12, 1970.
- July 11 — Ribbon cutting ceremonies officially open the Dolphins' new training facility on campus of Nova University in Davie, Fla.
- Sept. 12 — Dan Marino surpasses the 40,000-yard passing mark during Miami's 24-14 loss to the N.Y. Jets. He joins Fran Tarkenton (47,003), Dan Fouts (43,040) and Johnny Unitas (40,239) as the only quarterbacks to gain 40,000 passing yards. Marino attains the 40,000-yard mark in only 153 regular-season games and accomplishes the feat faster than any QB in league history. The previous record for fastest ascent to 40,000 yards was 168 games by Dan Fouts.
- Oct. 10 — Scott Mitchell comes off the bench and replaces an injured Dan Marino (torn Achilles in right foot) and throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 24-14 win at the Cleveland Browns. Mitchell enters the game just before halftime and completes 10 of 16 passes for 118 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Mitchell is named as AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Browns. Marino is placed on Injured Reserve on October 13 and misses the remainder of the season.
- Oct. 24 — Dan Marino misses his first starting assignment in 145 consecutive non-replacement regular season games as Miami earns a 41-27 win over Indianapolis. The game marks the first career NFL start at quarterback for Scott Mitchell as he hits on 12 of 19 passes for 190 yards with a touchdown. Mitchell becomes the eighth player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins since Don Shula was named head coach in 1970.
- Oct. 31 — Don Shula wins the 324th game of his coaching career and ties George Halas for the all-time record for most wins by an NFL head coach as Miami earns a 30-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Shula achieves the coaching milestone in his 31st year (482nd game) of his NFL coaching career as compared to 40 seasons (506 games) for Halas to accomplish the feat. On the field, Scott Mitchell throws for 344 yards and three touchdowns and becomes the first Dolphin quarterback other than Dan Marino to pass for over 300 yards and throw three or more touchdown passes since David Woodley gained 408 yards and threw three scores on October 25, 1981, at the Dallas Cowboys.
- Nov. 14 — The Dolphins endure another quarterback injury as Scott Mitchell suffers a separated shoulder during Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia. The win enables Don Shula to record the 325th triumph of his coaching career as he becomes the winningest coach in NFL history surpassing George Halas. In the contest, Doug Pederson replaces Mitchell and enters the game in the third quarter with Miami trailing 14-13. He guides the Dolphins to a pair of field goals and the defense holds the Eagles scoreless in the second half to garner the victory.
- Nov. 21 — Steve DeBerg becomes the third player to start at quarterback for the Dolphins in 1993 as he throws for 252 yards and a pair of touchdowns to lead Miami to a 17-13 win over New England. DeBerg, the NFL's oldest player, had joined the team just 11 days prior to the Pats game and was forced into his first start in place of the injured Scott Mitchell.
- Nov. 25 — The Dolphins post a come-from-behind 16-14 win over the defending and eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys on Thanksgiving Day on a sleet covered field at Texas Stadium. Miami improves 3-0 on Thanksgiving as the team had posted victories at St. Louis (55-14 on November 24, 1977) and at Dallas (14-7 on November 22, 1973). In the contest, Miami trails 14-13 with just 15 seconds left in regulation and Pete Stoyanovich's 41-yard field goal attempt for the win is blocked by the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones. However, Dallas' Leon Lett attempts to pick up the loose ball and fumbles and Miami's Jeff Dellenbach recovers the ball on the one-yard line with three seconds remaining. Stoyanovich converts on his second chance and boots a 19-yard field goal on the game's final play to win the contest. The win improves Miami's record to an NFL best 9-2, but the team will fail to win another game during the remainder of the season.

- Dec. 5 — Miami drops a 19-14 decision to the New York Giants at Joe Robbie Stadium. The Dolphins fall to 12-1 at home against teams in the NFC East since the NFL merger in 1970 and 11-1 at home against opponents from the AFC since the team moved to Joe Robbie Stadium in 1987. The last team to defeat the Dolphins in an inter-conference game played in Miami was the Atlanta Falcons who earned a 20-14 win on November 30, 1986, in the Orange Bowl.
- Dec. 13 — During halftime ceremonies of Miami's 21-20 loss to Pittsburgh, former Dolphin great and Hall of Famer Larry Little is honored and inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll.
- Dec. 14 — Don Shula is named Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year. He is the first professional coach to receive the honor.

- Jan. 2 — The Dolphins lose by a 33-27 count in overtime at New England. It is the fifth consecutive loss for the Dolphins and the team is eliminated from the playoffs later in the day as the Raiders rally from a 17-point deficit to win over Denver and qualify for the playoffs.
- Jan. 24 — The trustees of the Miami Dolphins sign a definitive agreement with H. Wayne Huizenga to purchase the Robbie family's interests in the Dolphin franchise. The agreement also includes an option for Huizenga to purchase the Robbies' interest in Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Feb. 8 — Joel Collier joins the Dolphins as a staff assistant, replacing Carl Taseff.
- March 16 — John Gamble is named as the Dolphins' strength coach.
- March 23 — The National Football League clubs approve transfer of the majority interests in the Miami Dolphins from the Robbie family to H. Wayne Huizenga at the annual league meetings in Orlando, Fla.
- June 28 — H. Wayne Huizenga's purchase of the Robbie Family's remaining 85% of the Miami Dolphins as well as their 50% share of the Joe Robbie Stadium is finalized. The closing leaves Huizenga with 100% ownership of both the Dolphins and Stadium.
- July 8 — The Dolphins and WIOD Radio (610 AM) announce the hiring of Bill Zimpfer as the team's play-by-play announcer and "Voice of the Dolphins." Zimpfer replaces Rick Weaver, who had served as play-by-play announcer for the Dolphins since 1970 and announced his retirement at the club's annual awards dinner on May 6, 1993. Zimpfer joins former Dolphin tight end and color analyst Jim Mandich in the broadcast booth.
- July 21 — H. Wayne Huizenga announces that he has entered into a new agreement with Head Coach Don Shula that extends through the 1996 season. Under the new contract extension, Shula assumes the position of Vice President/Head Coach, and also adds an ownership interest in the team.
- Sept. 4 — Dan Marino throws for 473 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 39-35 win over the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium. Marino sets an NFL record by throwing for four or more touchdown passes in a game for the 18th time in his career, breaking his tie with Johnny Unitas, and also throws the 300th touchdown pass of his career to join Fran Tarkenton (343 touchdowns) as the only quarterbacks in NFL history with 300-plus career touchdowns.
- Oct. 2 — Shula Bowl VI makes sports history as it marks the first time in the history of the four major American professional sports (football, baseball, hockey and basketball) that a father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 6-0 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach with a 23-7 win over the Bengals.
- Oct. 16 — Bernie Parmalee receives two game balls — one for offense and one for special teams — for his performance in Miami's 20-17 overtime win against the Los Angeles Raiders. Parmalee rushes for 150 yards on 30 carries and adds a pair of tackles and a fumble recovery on special teams. In addition, the Dolphins reverse history in the all-time series against the Raiders as Miami records wins in consecutive games against the Raiders for the first time in the history of the series. Miami earned a 20-7 win over the Raiders on December 14, 1992, in the last meeting between the two teams.
- Oct. 30 — The Dolphins earn a 23-3 win at the New England Patriots to sweep the season series over the Patriots for the fifth time in the last six years and win for the 11th time in the last 12 games played between the two teams. The win improves Miami to 6-0 in games following a bye weekend. In addition, Bernie Parmalee gains 123 rushing yards and ties the all-time team record for consecutive 100-yard performances. His 273 rushing yards in consecutive games surpasses the previous best of 258 yards rushing by Mercury Morris who accomplished the feat with 197 yards against New England on September 30, 1973, and 61 yards at the New York Jets on October 7, 1973.

- Nov. 13 - Chicago's Kevin Butler boots a 40-yard field goal with 54 seconds left in regulation and James Williams deflects a Dolphins field goal attempt with just seven seconds remaining in the game to give the Bears a 17-14 win over the Dolphins in Shula Bowl VII. Miami Head Coach Don Shula battles his son and Bears tight ends coach Mike Shula in the contest and it marks the first time that the elder Shula lost a game in which one of his sons, David or Mike, were either players or assistant coaches on the opposing NFL team.
- Nov. 27 - Mark Ingram catches four touchdown passes, including the game winner with just 22 seconds left in regulation, to lead the Dolphins to a come-from-behind 28-24 win over the New York Jets at Giants Stadium. The Dolphins trail by an 18-point margin midway through the third period (24-6) before rebounding to outscore the Jets by a 22-0 edge to win the game. Ingram's four touchdowns and 24 points in the game tie the team's single-game records with Paul Warfield's four touchdowns (all receiving) and 24 points against Detroit on December 15, 1973.
- Dec. 7 - Don Shula suffers a torn Achilles' tendon in his right leg and undergoes surgery on the injury on December 9 by Dr. Peter Indelicato and Dr. Dan Kanell. He misses a regular season practice for the first time in his 25 seasons with the team. Shula returns to practice on December 10 and coaches for the remainder of the season on a golf cart.
- Dec. 12 - Bernie Parmalee rushes for 127 yards and scores a pair of touchdowns (one rushing and one receiving) as the Dolphins clinch a playoff spot with a 45-28 win over the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins his 318th career regular season game and ties George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Center Dwight Stephenson is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during halftime ceremonies.
- Dec. 25 - The Dolphins earn a 27-20 win over the Detroit Lions and clinch the AFC East title. Miami and the New England Patriots both finish with 10-6 records, however the Dolphins win the division title by virtue of a two-game head-to-head sweep over New England during the 1994 season. Dolphins Head Coach Don Shula wins the 319th regular season game of his coaching career and surpasses George Halas (318 regular season coaching wins) for the all-time record for most career regular season wins by an NFL coach. Miami plays on Christmas Day for the second time in team history with the only other Christmas game for the Dolphins being the longest game in NFL history as Miami earned a 27-24 playoff win in double overtime at Kansas City on December 25, 1971.
- Dec. 27 - Defensive tackle Tim Bowens is named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press. He becomes the first Dolphins player to win A.P.'s defensive rookie award since A.J. Duhe in 1977.
- Dec. 31 - Dan Marino throws a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game is billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lives up to its pregame hype. Marino completes 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana counters by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. Marino sets an NFL playoff record as he throws for a touchdown pass in his 11th consecutive post-season game and moves past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak in NFL post-season history.

- Jan. 9 - Natrone Means rushes for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the San Diego Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Dan Marino drove the team to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left was wide right.
- Jan. 18 - Assistant head coach/offensive line John Sandusky announces his retirement. A veteran of over three decades of NFL coaching (he concluded his 36th season in 1994), Sandusky was one of only two coaches to serve as offensive line coach on a Don Shula coached team. Sandusky was offensive line coach with the Colts (1963-69) and Dolphins (1976-94) under Shula, while Monte Clark coached the offensive line with the Dolphins under Shula from 1970-75.

- Feb. 6 — Monte Clark is named as the team's offensive line coach. Clark enters his third tour of duty with the Dolphins, re-joining the team after having served as head offensive line coach at Stanford University during 1993-94.
- Feb. 9 — Dolphins Executive Vice President and General Manager Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract to remain in that capacity through the 1996 season.
- May 19 — The Miami Dolphins sign a two-year agreement with WCMQ radio (1210 AM) to be the Spanish radio outlet for Dolphins games. WCMQ replaces WQBA radio, which had been the team's Spanish station for the previous 13 seasons.
- Sept. 3 — The Dolphins open the season with an explosive offensive display in a 52-15 win over the N.Y. Jets at Joe Robbie Stadium. The 52 points are the second-highest single-game total in team history (behind 55 points at St. Louis on November 24, 1977). In addition, the game is played in 94-degree weather, making it the warmest home game in team history.
- Oct. 1 — The Shula coaching family again makes sports history as father and son battle as head coaches with Don Shula and the Dolphins taking on his son, Head Coach David Shula, and the Cincinnati Bengals. The elder Shula improves to 7-1 when coaching against teams which feature one of his sons as a coach with a 26-23 win at the Bengals.
- Oct. 8 — Dan Marino passes Fran Tarkenton (3,686 completions) to become the NFL's all-time leader in career pass completions with a six-yard toss to fullback Keith Byars during the Dolphins' 27-24 overtime loss at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Marino suffers knee and hip injuries which force him to miss the next two games (at New Orleans and at the N.Y. Jets).
- Oct. 30 — The Dolphins earn their first home win over the Buffalo Bills since the 1990 season with a 23-6 triumph at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's last home win against Buffalo was a 30-7 victory on September 10, 1990. The game marks the first time that the Dolphins have held the Bills without a touchdown since Miami dropped a 9-6 decision at Rich Stadium on September 11, 1988.
- Nov. 12 — Dan Marino becomes the NFL's all-time career passing yardage leader as he jumps past Fran Tarkenton (47,003 career yards) with a nine-yard pass to Irving Fryar in the first quarter of the Dolphins' 34-17 loss to the New England Patriots at Joe Robbie Stadium.
- Nov. 26 — Dan Marino tosses a six-yard touchdown pass to fullback Keith Byars with 1:03 remaining in the first half for his 343rd career scoring pass and becomes the NFL's all-time touchdown pass leader (surpassing Fran Tarkenton's 342 TDs) during Miami's 36-28 loss at Indianapolis.
- Dec. 11 — Guard/Tackle Bob Kuechenberg is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll during half-time ceremonies of Miami's 13-6 win over Kansas City at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the contest, Dan Marino breaks the last of Fran Tarkenton's major passing records (6,467 career attempts) with an incomplete pass attempt to wide receiver Randal Hill in the fourth quarter. In addition, the game is a sellout and marks the second consecutive season and fourth time overall (also 1972-73) that every home game has been sold out and it is just the second time in team history (also 1973) that every game has been sold out before the television blackout deadline.
- Dec. 24 — The Dolphins post a 41-22 win at St. Louis to finish the regular season with a 9-7 record and clinch a playoff berth for the second consecutive season later in the day as the Denver Broncos come from behind late in the contest to win at Oakland and eliminate the Raiders from playoff consideration.
- Dec. 30 — Miami's season ends following a 37-22 loss in an AFC First-Round Playoff Contest in Buffalo. The game is an offensive shootout as the teams combine for an NFL post-season record of 1,038 yards. Dan Marino leads the Dolphins by completing 33 of a career-high 64 pass attempts for 422 yards and a pair of scores, while WR O.J. McDuffie sets team playoff records with 11 catches for 154 yards.

- Jan. 5 — Don Shula, the winningest coach in the history of the NFL, moves from his role as head coach of the team as he assumes another role within the Dolphins organization. He continues to serve as a partner to owner H. Wayne Huizenga and becomes Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors in addition to his status as a part-owner of the team. Shula leaves the sidelines with an overall record 347-173-6 in his 33 years as a head coach, including the last 26 years with the Dolphins (1970-95). He won Super

- Bowl titles with Miami in 1972 and 1973, posting a combined 32-2 record in those two seasons, and his 1972 team went 17-0, the only undefeated season in NFL annals.
- Jan. 11 – Jimmy Johnson signs a four-year contract to become head coach of the Dolphins, becoming the third head coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Johnson joins the team with one of the most successful coaching records in football on both the professional and collegiate levels before spending the previous two years as an NFL analyst for FOX Sports. He is the first head coach in football history to win both a Super Bowl title (Dallas, 1992 and 1993) and a national collegiate championship (Univ. of Miami, 1987).
 - Jan. 16 – Dolphins owner H. Wayne Huizenga announces that Eddie Jones has been named President and Chief Operating Officer of the team, and Jimmy Johnson has been named as the club's General Manager/Head Coach. Jones had spent the last six seasons with the team as the club's Executive Vice President and General Manager.
 - Jan. 17 – The Dolphins name Cary Godette (defensive line), Pat Jones (tight ends) and Bill Lewis (defense nickel package) to the coaching staff. Prior to joining the Dolphins, Godette, who replaces Joe Greene, had served as defensive line coach for the Carolina Panthers in 1995, Jones was head coach at Oklahoma State University from 1984-94, and Lewis was head coach at Georgia Tech University from 1992-94.
 - Jan. 19 – Kippy Brown joins the Dolphins coaching staff as running backs coach, replacing Tony Nathan. Brown had served as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1995) and N.Y. Jets (1990-92).
 - Jan. 24 – Bob Ackles is named as the Dolphins Director of Football Operations. Ackles joins the team after serving as Director of Football Administration for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1995 and working three years with the Arizona Cardinals as Director of College Scouting (1992-93) and Assistant General Manager (1994).
 - Feb. 16 – The Dolphins name Larry Beightol as assistant head coach/offensive line, replacing Monte Clark. In addition to his coaching the offensive line, Beightol also assumes additional administrative responsibilities involving the entire football staff. Beightol joins the Dolphins after having served as offensive line coach with the Houston Oilers (1995), N.Y. Jets (1990-94), San Diego Chargers (1989), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-88) and Atlanta Falcons (1985-86).
 - March 1 – The Dolphins name Kevin O'Neill as head athletic trainer and Brad Roll as assistant strength and conditioning coach.
 - April 23 – Dan Marino, who broke every significant passing record in NFL history during the 1995 season, signs a three-year contract through the 1998 season to remain as quarterback of the Miami Dolphins.
 - April 26 – The Jimmy Johnson era officially begins as the Dolphins take the field for the first time in mini-camp under the new Dolphins head coach.
 - Aug. 26 – Pro Player, a sports apparel company, enters into a ten-year agreement with Joe Robbie Stadium, home of the Dolphins since 1987, to re-name the stadium Pro Player Park. The deal is worth $2 million annually over the term of the contract.
 - Sept. 1 – The Dolphins defeat the New England Patriots, 24-10 at Pro Player Park, in Jimmy Johnson's debut as head coach. Of the three head coaches in team history, Johnson is the only one to record a victory in his initial game. Also, rookie running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 115 yards and a TD on 26 carries in Miami's victory over the Patriots, the first Dolphin rookie since Sammie Smith on November 5, 1989, against Indianapolis to rush for 100 yards. He also becomes the first player in Dolphins history to rush for 100 yards in his NFL debut.
 - Sept. 10 – Pro Player Park is re-named Pro Player Stadium.
 - Sept. 15 – On his 35th birthday, quarterback Dan Marino throws for 257 yards and three touchdowns as the Dolphins defeat the New York Jets, 36-27, at Pro Player Stadium. One of the scoring passes is a 74-yard strike to rookie fullback Stanley Pritchett, the longest completion to a Dolphins running back in team history. The win marks the third straight year and fourth time in the last five campaigns that Miami has opened the regular season with three consecutive victories.
 - Oct. 27 – Quarterback Dan Marino plays in his 191st regular season game, against Dallas at Pro Player Stadium. In the process, he breaks Bob Kuechenberg's club career record for regular season games played of 190. The game is witnessed by 75,651 fans, the highest attendance figure in Pro Player Stadium history. The previous high was 75,129 for Super Bowl XXIII between San Francisco and Cincinnati on January 22, 1989. The former record for a Dolphins game was 73,080 for a November 20, 1995 contest against San Francisco.
 - Oct. 29 – WQAM Radio (560 AM) signs a five-year contract for broadcast rights to the Dolphins, Florida Marlins and Florida Panthers. Dolphins football will be aired on WQAM through the year 2001. The Dolphins' flagship station had been WIOD Radio since the team's inception in 1966.

- Oct. 31 — At the NFL fall meetings in New Orleans, the league awards the 1999 Super Bowl to the city of Miami. The game will be played at Pro Player Stadium.
- Nov. 10 — A 36-yard completion to O.J. McDuffie in the second quarter puts quarterback Dan Marino over the 50,000-yard mark for his career, the first quarterback in NFL history to reach that plateau. His eight-yard completion to Fred Barnett in the second quarter is the 4,000th completion of Marino's career, also making him the first quarterback in league history to achieve that feat. These accomplishments occur in a 37-13 victory over Indianapolis at Pro Player Stadium.
- Nov. 17 — The Dolphins defeat the Houston Oilers, 23-20 at the Astrodome, the 50th career regular season victory for head coach Jimmy Johnson.
- Nov. 25 — At halftime of a 24-17 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers on Monday Night Football at Pro Player Stadium, former Head Coach Don Shula is inducted into the Dolphin Honor Roll. In that game, running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 57 yards on 16 attempts, breaking the club's rookie rushing record of 711 formerly held by Andra Franklin (1981).
- Dec. 16 — On Monday Night Football, the Dolphins record a 16-14 victory over Buffalo at Pro Player Stadium, marking the first time since 1986 that Miami has swept the season series from the Bills. It's also the first time since December 22, 1985, that the Dolphins have defeated Buffalo in the month of December or January, snapping a seven-game losing streak against Buffalo in such games.
- Dec. 22 — In a season-ending 31-28 win at the New York Jets, running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar rushes for 152 yards and a TD on 30 carries. His performance is the fifth-highest single-game total in franchise history, and the second-most by a rookie. It is his fourth 100-yard rushing game of the year, establishing a new club rookie standard, also tying for the second-best mark in team annals. In the process, he also surpasses the 1,000-yard rushing plateau for the season, the sixth Dolphins player to achieve that feat and the first since Delvin Williams in 1978. Abdul-Jabbar's 1,116 rushing yards is the third-best single-season total in team history. He scores on a 17-yard run in the third quarter, his 11th rushing touchdown of the year, tying Ron Davenport's club rookie record, first achieved in 1985.

- Jan. 14 — Miami Dolphins unveil a modified team logo and new uniforms for the 1997 season. The basic logo and team colors remain the same. The sunburst on the logo is more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeters, while the dolphin's features are accentuated by navy highlights. The home and road jerseys added a script "Dolphins" below the collar, and several subtle accents were added to the uniform to highlight and strengthen the team's traditional colors.
- Jan. 25 — Former head coach Don Shula (1970-95), the NFL's all-time winningest coach with 347 victories, is selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.
- March 11 — At the NFL spring meetings in Palm Desert, Calif., the NFL Owners approve limited cross ownership, finalizing H. Wayne Huizenga's ownership of the Dolphins.
- March 21 — Eddie Jones signs a two-year contract extension, which runs through 1998, to remain as the team's president and chief operating officer.
- April 17 — Les Koenning, wide receivers coach at Texas A&M the previous three seasons, is named as an offensive assistant.
- April 18 — The Dolphins unveil the first "official" mascot in team history during a press conference at the team's training facility. He makes his public debut on April 19 at the team's Draft Day party at Pro Player Stadium.
- June 3 — Doug Blevins is named as the team's kicking coach.
- June 4 — "T.D." is picked as the name of the Dolphins official team mascot, it is announced at the team's annual Awards Banquet. Sarah Fernandez and her two sons, Nelson and Vincent, win the "Name the Mascot" contest, and receive two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego.
- June 13 — Dan Marino signs a one-year contract extension through the 1999 season.
- July 26 — Don Shula becomes the sixth former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Mike Haynes, Wellington Mara and Mike Webster.
- Aug. 16 — The Dolphins travel to Mexico City and earn a 38-19 preseason win over the Denver

Broncos before a crowd of 104,629 fans at Estadio Guillermo Canedo. The attendance is the most to ever witness a Dolphins game, surpassing the previous high of 103,667 that saw Miami's 27-17 loss to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983, in the Rose Bowl. The game marks the fourth time overall that the Dolphins have travelled abroad to play a preseason contest and the win improves Miami's record to 4-0 in games played on foreign soil. Miami's previous American Bowl games had been in London (1988), Tokyo (1991) and Berlin (1992). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.

- Aug. 31 - The Dolphins defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 16-10, at Pro Player Stadium in their 1997 season-opener. It's the Dolphins' first-ever regular season game in month of August. It also marks their sixth consecutive opening-day victory.
- Oct. 5 - The Dolphins defeat the Kansas City Chiefs, 17-14, at Pro Player Stadium, marking the 300th victory in franchise history, including playoffs. The Dolphins become the second team from the old AFL to reach the 300-win plateau. The Oakland Raiders were the first.
- Oct. 27 - After the Dolphins built a 33-18 fourth-quarter lead, the Chicago Bears stormed back for 18 unanswered points, including a Jeff Jaeger 35-yard field goal with 5:35 remaining in overtime, to come away with a 36-33 victory on a Monday night at Pro Player Stadium. It equaled the fourth-largest comeback win ever against Miami. The game originally was scheduled to be played on Sunday, October 26, but was pushed back due to Game 7 of the Marlins-Indians World Series.
- Nov. 17 - At halftime of a 30-13 win over the the Buffalo Bills on Monday Night Football at Pro Player Stadium, the Dolphins honor the 25th anniversary of the 1972 Dolphins team, holders of the only perfect season in NFL history and winners of Super Bowl VII.
- Nov. 23 - RB Karim Abdul-Jabbar scores three rushing touchdowns in a 27-24 loss to the Patriots in Foxboro. His third touchdown of the game came on a one-yard run in the fourth quarter. It was his 13th rushing TD of the year, a new Dolphins record. His 12 rushing scores had been tied with Mercury Morris, Don Nottingham and Larry Csonka.
- Nov. 30 - The Dolphins record a 33-15 victory over the Raiders at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. It's the first-ever win by Miami against the Raiders in Oakland after Miami had dropped each of their previous eight meetings there.
- Dec. 14 - The Dolphins are shut out, 41-0, by the Indianapolis Colts in the RCA Dome. The shutout snaps a streak of 162 consecutive games - the second longest active streak in the NFL at the time - in which the Dolphins had scored. The last time Miami had been held scoreless was on November 29, 1987, in a 27-0 loss at the Buffalo Bills.
- Dec. 22 - In the season finale against New England at Pro Player Stadium, left tackle Richmond Webb starts his 110th consecutive regular season game, a new Dolphins record. His 109 straight starts were tied with Jim Langer.
- Dec. 28 - The Dolphins drop a 17-3 decision to the New England Patriots in Foxboro in an AFC First-Round Playoff game, Miami's first postseason appearance under Head Coach Jimmy Johnson.

- Jan. 24 - Former Dolphins center Dwight Stephenson (1980-87) is among a group of five who are elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.
- Feb. 11 - Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson announces the following changes to the team's coaching staff: Kippy Brown, the Dolphins' running backs coach for the last two years, is named as offensive coordinator, replacing Gary Stevens; Larry Seiple, formerly the club's wide receiver coach, handles the quarterbacks; Joel Collier, a defensive assistant since 1994, coaches the running backs; Robert Ford, tight ends coach with the Dallas Cowboys since 1991, takes over as Miami's wide receivers coach; and Randy Shannon, an assistant at the University of Miami (Fla.), serves as a defensive assistant on the staff.
- March 23 - Jimmy Johnson signs a one-year contract extension to remain the Dolphins General Manager and Head Coach through the year 2000. Johnson originally signed a four-year contract with the club on January 21, 1996.
- Aug. 1 - Center Dwight Stephenson becomes the seventh former Dolphin to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is inducted along with Anthony Munoz, Mike Singletary, Tommy McDonald and Paul Krause.
- Sept. 6 - The Dolphins defeat the Indianapolis Colts, 24-15, at the RCA Dome, marking Miami's seventh straight opening day victory.

- Sep. 20 - The Dolphins shut out the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-0, at Pro Player Stadium. It marks Miami's first shutout under Head Coach Jimmy Johnson and their first since November 8, 1992, when they defeated the Colts, 28-0, at the RCA Dome.
- Nov. 29 - In a 30-10 victory over the New Orleans Saints at Pro Player Stadium, quarterback Dan Marino throws three touchdown passes, all to O.J. McDuffie. The second one, a seven-yard strike in the fourth quarter, was the 400th TD pass of Marino's career, the first quarterback in NFL history ever to reach that plateau.
- Dec. 21 - The Dolphins record a 31-21 victory over the Denver Broncos at Pro Player Stadium in front of an ABC Monday Night Football audience. The win is Miami's 34th on Monday night, as they surpassed Oakland as the winningest team in MNF history.
- Dec. 27 - In a season-ending 38-16 loss to the Falcons in Atlanta, wide receiver O.J. McDuffie catches five passes for 82 yards. His second reception of the afternoon, a 28-yard catch in the second quarter, is his 87th of the season, surpassing Mark Clayton (86 in 1988) as the Dolphins' single-season reception leader. McDuffie finishes the year with an NFL-high 90 receptions, the first Dolphin ever to lead the league in this category.

- Jan. 2 - The Dolphins defeat the Buffalo Bills, 24-17, in an AFC First-Round Playoff game at Pro Player Stadium. It represents Miami's first-ever playoff win under Head Coach Jimmy Johnson, and their first since December 31, 1994, when they posted a 27-17 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in a First-Round contest at Pro Player Stadium.
- Jan. 14 - Dave Wannstedt, head coach with the Chicago Bears from 1993-98, is named the Dolphins' assistant head coach.
- Jan. 21 - Paul Boudreau is named offensive line coach, replacing Larry Beightol.
- Mar. 2 - Eddie Jones signs a three-contract to remain as the team's President and Chief Operating Officer.
- June 15 - Dan Marino signs a two-year contract extension through 2001.

DOLPHIN FACT

Running back Bernie Parmalee holds the team record for rushing yardage in consecutive games. Parmalee gained 150 yards on 30 carries against the L.A. Raiders on October 16, 1994, and followed that performance with a 123-yard effort on 25 carries at New England on October 30. His 273 rushing yards in those two games set a team record for rushing yards in consecutive games, surpassing the previous best of 258 yards rushing by Mercury Morris accomplished with 197 yards against New England on September 30, 1973, and 61 yards at the New York Jets on October 7, 1973.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 21, MIAMI 14
December 27, 1970

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

December 25, 1971

Kansas City Municipal Stadium
Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0
January 2, 1972

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin nine in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

DALLAS 24, MIAMI 3

January 16, 1972

Tulane Stadium

New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17
December 31, 1972

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7
January 14, 1973

Memorial Coliseum
Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards — the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff — to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10
December 30, 1973

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 40 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7

January 13, 1974

Rice Stadium
Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 28, MIAMI 26
December 21, 1974

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

HOUSTON 17, MIAMI 9
December 24, 1978

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF

PITTSBURGH 34, MIAMI 14
December 30, 1979

Three Rivers Stadium
Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 41, MIAMI 38 (OT)
 January 2, 1982

Orange Bowl
 Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Charger quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Charger tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked - a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 13
January 8, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

MIAMI 34, SAN DIEGO 13

January 16, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average – while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphin offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphin QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Charger kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Charger 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphin rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 14, N.Y. JETS 0
January 23, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17
January 30, 1983

Rose Bowl
Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20
December 31, 1983

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 31, SEATTLE 10
December 29, 1984

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 45, PITTSBURGH 28

January 6, 1985

Orange Bowl

Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16
January 20, 1985

Stanford Stadium
Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play - Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play - 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, CLEVELAND 21
January 4, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Revez put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 14
January 12, 1986

Orange Bowl
Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mose Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, KANSAS CITY 16
January 5, 1991

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 44, DOLPHINS 34

January 12, 1991

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SAN DIEGO 0
January 10, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BUFFALO 29, DOLPHINS 10
January 17, 1993

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, KANSAS CITY 17
December 31, 1994

Joe Robbie Stadium
Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped their lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown pass. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took their first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 22, DOLPHINS 21

January 9, 1995

Jack Murphy Stadium

San Diego, CA

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee — in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

1995 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

BUFFALO 37, DOLPHINS 22
December 30, 1995

Rich Stadium
Orchard Park, NY

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead enroute to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with current teammate Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set a new NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 at the midway point of the first quarter with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass to cap a short three-play, 62-yard drive midway through the second quarter. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins then attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a new club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

1997 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

NEW ENGLAND 17, DOLPHINS 3
December 28, 1997

Foxboro Stadium
Foxboro, MA

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Supr Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. Marino's 13 straight playoff games with a touchdown is an NFL record. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Corey Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Chris Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions - getting as far as the 45 and 43 - but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

1998 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BUFFALO 17
January 2, 1999

Pro Player Stadium
Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then lateraled the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

1998 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DENVER 38, MIAMI 3
January 9, 1999

Mile High Stadium
Denver, CO

Miami failed to score a touchdown in its second straight road playoff game, as they dropped their seventh consecutive postseason road game overall, with a 38-3 loss to the Broncos at Mile High Stadium. After stopping the Dolphins on the first series of the game, the Broncos took over at their own eight and embarked on a 14-play, 92-yard drive that used 7:56 of the clock and ended with a Terrell Davis one-yard touchdown run with 5:55 left in the opening quarter. Davis ran for 38 yards on seven carries on the drive, and John Elway completed five of six passes for 48 yards. Denver took a two-touchdown advantage before the first quarter was over when Davis scored on a 20-yard run with 1:02 remaining in the opening period. The touchdown came three plays after Elway connected with Ed McCaffrey for a 33-yard completion to the Dolphins' 33-yard line. Miami answered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 5:55 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 22-yard field goal, 4:53 into the second quarter. Dan Marino completed six of seven passes for 55 yards on the march. Denver scored a touchdown on their third consecutive series when Derek Loville ran it in from 11 yards out with 4:39 left in the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 87-yard drive that used 5:28 of the clock. As a team, the Broncos rushed for 62 yards on the drive, including 47 yards by Davis. Davis broke loose for a 62-yard run to the Dolphins' 18-yard line on the first play of the second half, leading to a Jason Elam 32-yard field goal four plays afterward. Denver opened a 28-point advantage 1:37 into the fourth quarter when Elway combined with Rod Smith for a 28-yard touchdown strike. The Broncos finished off the scoring when Neil Smith recovered an Oronde Gadsden fumble following a reception and rumbled 79 yards for a touchdown.

SPORTS ILLUSTRATED SPORTSMAN OF THE YEAR

1993 - Don Shula

DOLPHIN FACT

In the 33-year history of the franchise, the Dolphins have had four dual 100-yard rushing games. Two of the dual 100-yard games were accounted for by the tandem of Larry Csonka and Jim Kick (both in 1971). The most recent game in which the Dolphins had two runners surpass the 100-yard mark occurred on October 5, 1975 at Green Bay when Mercury Morris rushed for 125 yards on 31 attempts, while Don Nottingham ran for 102 yards and three touchdowns on 21 carries.

DOLPHIN FACT

In home openers, Miami is 26-6-1 (.803). In road openers, the Dolphins are 18-14-1 (.561).

In addition, the Dolphins own a 25-4 (.862) record in home openers since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, which is the best of any NFL club over that time span, ahead of the Raiders (23-5-1, .810) and Broncos (also 23-5-1)

DOLPHIN FACT

Jimmy Johnson was named General Manager/Head Coach of the Miami Dolphins on January 11, 1996, and became the third coach in club history, joining George Wilson (1966-69) and Don Shula (1970-95). Excluding the NFL's two newest expansion teams, the Dolphins have had the NFL's low total of three head coaches in the history of their club.

DOLPHINS IN THE HALL OF FAME

DON SHULA

Head Coach (1970-95)
Vice Chairman (1996-99)

Born: 1/4/30

College: John Carroll '51

Player: 1951-57 • Assistant Coach: 1960-62

Head Coach: 1963-95 • Year Inducted: 1997

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on January 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

Starting with the 1996 season, Shula has served as Vice-Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, having been named to that position on January 5, 1996. This year marks his 30th season with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named Head Coach of the club in 1970.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995 he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On November 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only five coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any other coach, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least ten games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (1976, 1988) in that span. He averaged more than ten wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games each.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on February 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Baltimore Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He was the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 through 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules as well as regulations designed to improve the safety of playing conditions.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was further honored by being selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little, and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) in the same day.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way, and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On May 17, 1994, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its athletic complex the Don Shula Sports Center. Shula also has received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami, and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personifies those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful enterprises, Don Shula's Hotel and Golf Club along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, Inc.

Shula's oldest son David, 40, and his wife Leslie have three sons, Danny, Christopher, and Matthew. David served as the Head Coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played Dave Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 in Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the first time ever in professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. Dave currently is Executive Vice President of Don Shula Steakhouse, Inc.

Shula's other son Mike, 34, was named as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1996 after spending the three previous seasons as tight ends coach of the Chicago Bears.

Mike and Dave Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has three children, Alex, Lindsey, and Tyler, and is married to Steve Cohen. Another daughter, Sharon, currently serves as the Director of Development of the Don Shula Foundation. Youngest daughter Annie lives in the Miami area.

Shula and his wife, Mary Anne, reside in Miami and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. They were married on October 16, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children and nine grandchildren.

SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on November 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On December 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on December 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

NFL: 1968-74, 1976-79

Dolphins: 1968-74, 1979

Year Inducted: 1987

#39

Larry Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphin coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 20th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

BOB GRIESE

Quarterback

Born: 2/3/45

College: Purdue '67

NFL: 1967-80

Dolphins: 1967-80

#12

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. In 1990, he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on Nov. 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Joe Robbie Stadium.

He had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

After becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

JIM LANGER

Center

Born: 5/16/48

College: South Dakota St. '70

NFL: 1970-81

Dolphins: 1970-79

#62

Jim Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, in 1972 he won the starting job, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). He played in a club-high 128 straight games during his career and also had a team-record 109 consecutive starts (a record since broken by Richmond Webb in 1997). Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royaltown, Minn., home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

Guard

Born: 11/2/45

College: Bethune-Cookman '67

NFL: 1967-80

Dolphins: 1969-80

Year Inducted: 1993

#66

A rumbling giant in the Dolphin trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins' "perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphin player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions.

DWIGHT STEPHENSON

Center

Born: 11/20/57

Dwight Stephenson spent his entire career with the Dolphins, and was considered by many to be the "best at his position ever" in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87), and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His four Pro Bowl starts is tied for the third-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records. His playing career ended prematurely after suffering torn anterior cruciate and lateral collateral ligaments in his left knee against the New York Jets on December 7, 1987, when he was hit unexpectedly by Marty Lyons on a New York fumble return. Stephenson's greatest honor during his playing days came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects, the first Dolphin to win that award. Stephenson also served as an Assistant Offensive Line Coach on Don Shula's Dolphin staff in 1992. Before joining the Dolphins as a second round draft choice in 1980, he had an outstanding college career at Alabama, where he was called "the greatest center I have ever coached" by the late Paul

"Bear" Bryant. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his sixth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on five occasions. In 1990, he also was voted as the center on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on December 12, 1994, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

PAUL WARFIELD

Paul Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns (1964-69), Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs – good enough to place him 14th on the team's all-time receiving list. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to the AFC squad twice with the Browns. Warfield, one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Ingram) in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland (1976-77). His career receiving totals in the NFL are: 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs. His 85 touchdown catches is tied for the sixth highest career total in NFL history. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Pro Player Stadium.

RETIRED JERSEY #12

Bob Griese's No. 12 jersey became the first Dolphin number to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet. Heading into the 1998 season, his No. 12 is the only Dolphin number to be honored in that fashion.

No other player in the history of the Dolphins, either before or after Griese, wore No. 12 in regular season play.

Griese was further recognized when he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990.

ALL-TIME ROSTER

(1966-98 - Players must participate in at least one regular-season game to qualify)

• Arizona (0-7) is the only NFL team that has faced Miami on more than one occasion but never beaten the Dolphins. Miami has also never lost to the Baltimore Ravens or the Carolina Panthers, holding a 1-0 advantage over both teams.

• These teams have not faced off in Miami since the Dolphins defeated the Cardinals 23-3, on November 9, 1990.

• Only three Miami players on the 1999 training camp roster were with the team in 1990, the last time the Dolphins and Cardinals met in South Florida - quarterback Dan Marino, wide receiver Tony Martin and tackle Richmond Webb.

• Dolphins General Manager/Head Coach Jimmy Johnson, who spent five years in the NFC East as Head Coach of the Dallas Cowboys (1989-93), holds an 8-3 career record against the Cardinals. Johnson was 7-3 versus the Cardinals as Head Coach of the Cowboys and is 1-0 against Arizona with Miami.

• After splitting the two regular season contests in 1998, the Dolphins lead the all-time regular season series 42-23-1, including wins in five of the last eight matchups.

• With a 24-17 win at Pro Player Stadium on January 2, 1999, the Dolphins claimed their first postseason victory over the Bills. Prior to that game, Buffalo held a 3-0 advantage over Miami in the playoffs.

• Last season was the 11th time the teams split in the 33-year history of the series. The home teams were victorious in eight of those eleven seasons, while the road teams came out on top on only three occasions.

• Miami holds a four-game winning streak over the Bills at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins longest home winning streak over Buffalo was 16 games, from 1967-1979. Overall, Miami is 23-9-1 against the Bills at home during the regular season, and 1-1 in postseason games played in Miami.

• The Dolphins hold a 19-14 advantage in regular season games decided in Buffalo. However the Bills have emerged victorious in both playoff contests. Miami has posted a regular season mark of 15-11 at Ralph Wilson Stadium.

• Miami set the NFL record for consecutive wins over one team with 20 against Buffalo, from 1970-79.

• This game marks Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson's return to Texas Stadium for the first time since his days as Dallas' Head Coach, a position he held from 1989-93. Johnson's record while at the helm in Dallas was 44-36 in the regular season and 7-1 during the postseason, including two Super Bowl Championships. His record in Texas Stadium during that period was 27-16, including a 3-0 slate in the playoffs. Including playoffs, Johnson has won 22 of the last 25 games he has coached in Texas Stadium.

• The Dolphins and Cowboys have faced off eight times in regular season play with Miami leading the series 6-2. Miami and Dallas also met in Super Bowl VI in New Orleans on January 6, 1972, with the Cowboys earning a 24-3 victory in the Dolphins first trip to the NFL's championship contest.

• This will be the Dolphins fourth Thanksgiving Day appearance, and the third against the Cowboys. Miami faced Dallas on Thanksgiving Day in 1973 and 1993, and squared off against the St. Louis Cardinals on Thanksgiving in 1977. The Dolphins are 3-0 in Thanksgiving Day games.

• This will be the second consecutive year that the Dolphins and Broncos square off in the regular season. In 1998, Miami handed Denver a 31-21 loss at Pro Player Stadium. Overall, Miami and Denver have played a total of ten games, including one playoff contest, with the Dolphins leading the series 6-3-1. The Broncos won the only playoff game with a 38-3 victory last season to advance to the AFC Championship Game.

• Prior to last season's meeting, the Dolphins and Broncos had not faced each other since September 29, 1985, as Miami defeated Denver 30-26. That game was also the last time the Dolphins traveled to Mile High Stadium for a regular season contest.

• Although the Dolphins have appeared on ABC Monday Night Football an NFL-high 60 (34-26) times and Denver has played on Monday night on 40 (18-21-1) occasions, this will be only the second meeting between the two teams under the Monday night spotlight. Last season's December 21 game was the only other time Miami and Denver faced off on a Monday night.

• When the Dolphins and Broncos meet this season, it will mark the fifth straight year and 15th time in team history that Miami has faced the defending Super Bowl Champions.

• Miami swept the season series in 1998 and now has won four of the last five meetings between these teams and 32 of the last 43 contests. The Dolphins are 20-10 against the Colts since the organization moved to Indianapolis in 1984.

• The Dolphins ended a four-game losing streak in Indianapolis with their 1998 season opening victory at the RCA Dome. Miami has topped Indianapolis in eight of the last ten meetings at Pro Player Stadium. Overall, the Dolphins are 22-7 against the Colts during the regular season in Miami and 8-4 at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins are 1-0 in playoff meetings. Miami is 17-12 on the road versus the Colts, including a 9-6 mark in Indianapolis.

- The Dolphins are 19-20 in domed stadiums, including a 1-1 mark in 1998. Overall, they are 9-6 against Indianapolis (RCA Dome), 6-6 against Houston (Astrodome), 1-2 against Detroit (Silverdome), 1-3 against New Orleans (Superdome), 1-1 against Seattle (Kingdome), 0-1 against Atlanta (Georgia Dome), 0-1 against Minnesota (Metrodome) and 1-0 against St. Louis (Trans World Dome).

- Dan Marino has faced the Colts 31 times in his career and owns a 21-10 record as a starter. Marino has a better touchdown to interception differential with a +33 (49 TDs to 16 INTs) against the Colts than against any other opponent. Overall, he has connected on 575 of 954 passes (60.3%) for 6,831 yards.

- Dolphins wide receiver O.J. McDuffie has had a great deal of success against the Colts throughout his six-year career. McDuffie has registered more touchdowns (six), receiving yards (617) and receptions (45) against the Colts than against any other NFL team. In the Dolphins most recent matchup against Indianapolis, on November 8, 1998 at Pro Player Stadium, McDuffie hauled in nine passes for 132 yards and two touchdowns, including a career-long 61-yard score en route to a 27-14 Miami victory.

- Miami split the 1998 series with New England and has now captured 14 of the last 20 regular season games between these teams. The Dolphins began playing the Patriots twice a year during the regular season in 1967 and have split the series 16 times during that span. Miami has swept the regular season series 11 times while New England has owned the series on four occasions. In 1966 and 1982 the teams faced off only once during the regular season, with the Patriots emerging victorious on both occasions.

- The Dolphins have recorded victories in eight of the last ten games against the Patriots at Pro Player Stadium. Overall, the Dolphins are 26-7 against the Patriots in games decided in Miami, including a 25-6 mark in the regular season. Their record versus New England at Pro Player Stadium is 8-4. The Dolphins are 13-19 against the Patriots in New England during the regular season, including a 12-17 register at Foxboro Stadium.

- Miami's longest win streak against New England is nine games, which occurred with season sweeps from 1989-92, while the Patriots' longest streak versus the Dolphins is six games from 1986-88.

- On October 25, 1998, Olindo Mare kicked a 43-yard field goal in overtime to give the Dolphins a 12-9 victory over the visiting Patriots. It was the fifth overtime game played in this series and Miami is now 4-1 against New England in overtime games.

- The Dolphins and Saints have faced off on 12 occasions during the preseason with Miami holding an 8-4 advantage, including wins in four of the last six contests. The Saints won the most recent preseason game as they defeated the Dolphins 17-3 on August 27, 1992, at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium.
- This will be the seventh time the Dolphins and Saints meet in Miami for a preseason game. The Dolphins have won four of the previous six preseason contests played in South Florida between these clubs. Four games in this series were played in New Orleans, with Miami winning all four, and two games were played on neutral ground, both of which were claimed by the Saints.
- The last Saints preseason win in Miami was on August 13, 1983 as New Orleans defeated the Dolphins by a 19-17 score. In that game, Dolphins rookie quarterback Dan Marino completed 13 of 17 pass attempts for 114 yards with no touchdowns and one interception.

- The Jets swept the 1998 series, however the Dolphins lead the all-time regular season series 34-31-1. Miami is 1-0 versus the Jets in post-season. New York captured each of the first eight contests in this series, but the Dolphins have gone 34-23-1 since.
- With the Jets winning both games in 1998, this regular season series has resulted in a sweep in seven out of the last nine years. In addition to last season, New York captured the series in 1991 and 1993. Miami swept both regular season games in 1990, 1994, 1996 and 1997. The Dolphins and Jets split the series in 1992 and 1995, with the home team winning each game.
- The Dolphins have registered victories in seven of the last ten meetings. The Jets hold an 18-15 advantage in games played in New York, including a 9-6 mark at Giants Stadium. The Dolphins are 19-13-1 in regular season play and 1-0 in the postseason against the Jets in Miami. They are 7-5 versus the Jets at Pro Player Stadium with wins in five of the last seven matchups. Prior to 1998, the last Jets victory in South Florida came on September 12, 1993 as New York handed the Dolphins a 24-14 loss.

• In regular season action, Miami Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino has thrown for more touchdown passes (69) and yards (8,141) against the Jets than against any other NFL team. In his last eight games against New York, Marino has thrown 18 touchdowns and just eight interceptions. Over his last 13 outings against the Jets, Marino has had 28 touchdown passes and 11 interceptions, and has thrown at least two touchdown strikes in ten of those 13 games. In addition, his career single-game highs for attempts (60 on 10/23/88; tied at New England 11/23/97), yards passing (521 on 10/23/88), touchdown passes (six on 9/21/86) and interceptions (five on 10/23/88) all came against the Jets. In his career, Marino has posted a record of 17-11 as a starter against New York. He has completed 608 of 1,033 (58.9%) passes for 8,141 yards with 69 touchdowns and 31 interceptions for a quarterback rating of 93.7.

• Marino has more fourth quarter comeback wins against New York (five) than against any other NFL team during his 15-year NFL career.

• Oakland leads the all-time regular season series 15-7-1, while also holding a 2-1 edge in playoff competition. With last years' 27-17 win however, the Dolphins have now captured two games in a row over the Raiders and five of the last seven contests. In addition, Miami has now won the last two games played in Oakland after the Raiders claimed the first eight contests played there in this series.

• This is the fourth straight season in which the Dolphins will face the Raiders at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. It will mark only the second time in franchise history that Miami has faced a non-divisional opponent in four straight regular season road games. The Dolphins traveled to Houston five seasons in a row from 1966 to 1970 to square off with the Oilers.

• The Raiders own the best all-time series record of any NFL team against Miami, with a 17-8-1 mark.

• In last season's 27-17 win over the Raiders, the Dolphins defense recorded eight sacks and intercepted six passes, returning two for touchdowns. The six interceptions tied a club record and the eight sacks is tied for second-most in team history.

• Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino's first NFL regular season action came against the Raiders, on September 19, 1983, at the L.A. Coliseum, when he completed 11 of 17 passes for 90 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions in a reserve role in Miami's 27-14 loss. In ten career games against the Raiders, nine as a starter, Marino has completed 196 of 347 passes for 2,356 yards with 18 touchdowns and 11 interceptions.

- The Dolphins and Eagles have squared off a total of nine times with Miami holding a 6-3 advantage in the series. These teams last met on October 20, 1996 as Philadelphia overcame Miami by a 35-28 margin at Veterans Stadium. Prior to that contest, the Dolphins had won five straight games in the series.
- This game will be the Eagles first visit to South Florida since December 9, 1990, when the Dolphins earned a 23-20 overtime win. The Eagles have never beaten the Dolphins in Miami.
- In seven of the nine games played between these clubs, the home team has been victorious, with both road victories being by the Dolphins - a 19-14 decision on November 14, 1993 and a 28-10 victory on December 13, 1987 - over the Eagles at Veterans Stadium.

- San Diego leads the all-time series 12-8, including a 10-6 advantage in the regular season, and has won five of the last seven regular season meetings. The Dolphins, however, won the last meeting on November 5, 1995 by a 24-14 margin at Qualcomm Stadium.
- Miami has faced San Diego only twice during the preseason, with the games being played in the first two years of the franchise's existence, 1966 and 1967. San Diego captured both contests. In both of those seasons, the teams also met in the regular season, just as they will this year.
- The last time the Dolphins hosted the Chargers during the regular season, Miami came away with a 31-28 win on October 16, 1988. In regular season home games, Miami is 3-3 all-time against San Diego. The Dolphins hold a 2-1 advantage over the Chargers in post-season games played in South Florida.

- The Dolphins have faced the Titans 25 times, including one playoff contest, and lead the all-time regular season series 13-12. Tennessee won the only postseason game, a 17-9 victory on December 24, 1978 at the Orange Bowl. The 24 regular season meetings are the most Miami has played against a non-divisional opponent. In addition, 25 total contests tie the Titans with the Raiders for the most overall games played by the Dolphins against a non-divisional opponent in team history.
- The Dolphins have captured the last three meetings between these teams, including wins in each of Head Coach Jimmy Johnson's first two seasons with the club (1996 and 1997).
- Each of the past four games in this series have been decided by four points or less, including the most recent meeting, a 16-13 overtime victory by Miami on September 7, 1997 at Pro Player Stadium.

- This is the first regular season meeting between the Dolphins and Redskins since Miami claimed a 17-10 victory over Washington on October 4, 1993 at Pro Player Stadium. The last time these teams squared off in Washington for a regular season matchup was on December 2, 1990 as the Redskins defeated the Dolphins by a 42-20 margin.
- The last time Miami won a regular season contest at Washington was on September 2, 1984, as Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino passed for 311 yards and five TDs en route to a 35-17 triumph in the season opener.
- The game will mark the Dolphins first regular season visit to Jack Kent Cooke Stadium.
- Miami and Washington have battled in two Super Bowls. The Dolphins won Super Bowl VII on January 14, 1973, by a 14-7 score to preserve the NFL's only perfect season. The teams battled again for the NFL crown in Super Bowl XVII on January 30, 1983, with Washington winning the contest by a 27-17 score.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WQAM

The 1999 Miami Dolphins' season marks the third with WQAM (560 AM) serving as the flagship station for the Dolphins' radio network. This year the network has over 20 stations covering more than 70 markets in Florida.

WQAM is known for its outstanding sports programming, and is one of the leading sports and entertainment radio stations in the country. In addition to the Dolphins games, WQAM also broadcasts the games of the Florida Marlins and the Florida Panthers. WQAM is the home of the popular "First Team" morning show of Jeff DeForrest, ex-Dolphin Joe Rose, and Steve Goldstein. Miami's leading talk show "The Neil Rogers Show" is heard mid-days. Hank Goldberg handles the afternoon and hosts the weekly "Jimmy Johnson Show" with Dolphins Head Coach Jimmy Johnson. Former Dolphins Jim Mandich and Kim Bokamper also host talk shows. WQAM carries extensive Dolphins programming on game-days, beginning with a five-hour pre-game show and culminating with a two-hour post-game wrapup. WQAM also broadcasts live from the team's training camp and carries comprehensive Dolphins updates during the season.

Handling the play-by-play and entering his sixth season as "The Voice of the Dolphins" is Bill Zimpfer. Zimpfer, 43, joined the Dolphin broadcasts in 1994, after six years (1988-93) as play-by-play announcer for the Penn State football network. During the football off-season, Zimpfer also serves as morning sports anchor for WOGL-FM in Philadelphia. He resides with his wife and family in East Greenville, Pa.

Joining Zimpfer in the booth is analyst and ex-Dolphins favorite Jim Mandich. Mandich, in his eighth year as the color commentator on Dolphin game broadcasts, was a member of the Dolphins' 1972 club that was the NFL's only undefeated team. In his eight seasons as a Dolphins tight end (1970-77), Mandich caught 121 passes for 1,406 yards (11.6 yards per catch) with 23 touchdowns and ranks 21st in Dolphins team history in receiving and is tied for 19th in club annals in scoring with 138 points.

WQBA

For the 16th time in the last 18 years, the Dolphins' South Florida Latin fans will be able to follow the team home and away on WQBA (1140 AM). The 1997 season marked a return of the Dolphins' Spanish broadcast to WQBA following a two-year absence. The Dolphins and WQBA signed a three-year agreement to broadcast the team's games beginning with the 1997 season.

Rene Giraldo, who has been part of the Spanish broadcasts of Dolphins games for all 18 years, will handle the play-by-play for his 15th straight year after previously serving as a color analyst. He will be joined by color analyst Roly Martin, also a long-time member of the Dolphins' Spanish broadcast team. WQBA's Dolphins game-day broadcasts will begin with a 30-minute pre-game show and will conclude with a post-game show featuring interviews from the team's locker room.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

All four of the Dolphins preseason games in 1999 will be broadcast in Miami on WFOR-TV (Channel 4). In addition, those games also will be telecast by WTVX-TV (Channel 34) in West Palm Beach.

The Dolphins will make their first appearance of the preseason on Friday, August 13th, when they host the New Orleans Saints at Pro Player Stadium. That game will be telecast live at 7:30 p.m. if it is sold out 72 hours in advance of game time; otherwise it will be broadcast on a delayed basis beginning at 9:30 p.m.

WFOR-TV will then telecast live the Dolphins next game, against the San Diego Chargers in San Diego at Qualcomm Stadium, beginning at 11:00 p.m. Eastern time.

The Dolphins will return to Pro Player Stadium on Saturday, August 28th to host the Detroit Lions at 7:00 p.m. WFOR will telecast the game live if it is sold out 72 hours in advance of game time; otherwise it will be broadcast on a delayed basis beginning at 9:00 p.m.

The Dolphins final preseason game of the year, at Lambeau Field against the Green Bay Packers on September 2nd, will be televised live by WFOR beginning at 8:00 p.m. Eastern time.

Long-time CBS-TV sports commentator Verne Lundquist will be in his first season handling the play-by-play for the Dolphins preseason games. Lundquist currently does play-by-play for CBS on its NFL regular season package. In addition to performing NFL play-by-play duties for TNT's national telecasts from 1995-97, Lundquist held a previous stint at CBS, from 1982-95. During that time, he worked on the network's coverage of the NFL, NBA, college basketball, golf and the Olympics. Former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Famer Bob Griese, a member of ABC-TV's broadcast team for college football, will be a color analyst along with Nat Moore, the Dolphins' third all-time leading receiver. WFOR's Jim Berry, Kim Bokamper and Joe Zagacki will host the pre-game show, which airs 30 minutes prior to the actual game broadcast. Mac McDonald returns as executive producer and Mike Horvath as producer for WFOR-TV.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Written credential requests must be made at least four working days in advance to: Harvey Greene, Vice President - Media Relations, Miami Dolphins, 7500 S.W. 30th Street, Davie, FL 33314 (954/452-7010). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the press gate, located outside Gate G of Pro Player Stadium, on the day of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' media relations department. Credentials WILL NOT be issued to freelance photographers unless granted special approval by the Dolphins. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench area.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Pro Player Stadium press box, enter at Gate G. Go through two sets of doors and take the elevator to the third floor. Exit elevator and the broadcast booths are to the right. For the print section, make a left and exit the broadcast booth box into the club lounge area. Go 50 yards to the staircase and go to the lower level of the club lounge. The entrance to the print press box is just beyond the bottom of the stairs. Only credentials issued by the Dolphins or the Professional Football Writers of America will be honored for admittance to Pro Player Stadium.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials, granting locker room access or those stamped with "Locker Room Access," will be admitted. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game. Both teams' locker rooms are located on the ground level on the west side of the stadium. From the print press box, take the elevator to the ground level. Out of the elevator, bear right and go through the double doors to the corridor. Bear left to the Dolphins' locker room and continue past the Dolphins' locker room to reach the visitor's locker room. The interview room is on the right.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Coach Johnson will hold his post-game press conference immediately following the conclusion of the game in the interview room, which is located on the ground level in the west side of the stadium.

PARKING: Press parking at Pro Player Stadium is very limited. All parking requests must be directed to Harvey Greene, Vice President - Media Relations, (954/452-7010).

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone line must order it directly from Thania Diaz, BellSouth Special Accounts at (954) 958-4154. Instruments can be ordered from the Dolphins' media relations department, (954/452-7010).

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Dolphin home game. The transmission representative is Tim Lippman, 8467 N.W. 61st Street, Tamarac, FL 33321 (954/720-9070; FAX: 954/720-0725).

FIELD ACCESS: Only working newspaper and TV photographers and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Press box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, except when there are less than six minutes remaining in the game.

ADVANCING: Generally, the Dolphins request that the opposing team's media relations representative visit training camp on Wednesday to coincide with the weekly media conference call.

PRACTICE: Regular-season practice sessions usually are held at 2:00 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday, and at 11:00 a.m. on Friday and Saturday (home games). Practices normally are closed to out-of-town media (and, except for the final 15 minutes, all local media) unless special permission is granted by the coaching staff. To request permission, or to arrange any interviews, contact the Dolphins' media relations department. The team locker room is open to the media for 45 minutes (lunchtime) Monday and Wednesday through Friday. The players are off on Tuesdays.

FOR MORE INFO: For more information on the Dolphins, contact the media relations department: Harvey Greene, Vice President - Media Relations; Neal Gulkis, Media Relations Coordinator; Seth Levit, Media Relations Assistant; and Gayle Baden, Administrative Assistant. Office phone is (954) 452-7010 and (954) 452-7000-switchboard.

TRAINING CAMP: The Dolphins practice at Nova University during both the preseason and regular season. The campus is located in Davie at 7500 S.W. 30th Street.

DIRECTIONS

FT. LAUDERDALE TO TRAINING CAMP: From the north, take I-95 South to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO TRAINING CAMP: From the airport, take 836 West to 826 North. Follow 826 North to exit for Florida Turnpike North. Take Turnpike North to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.

FROM THE SOUTH TO TRAINING CAMP: From the south, take I-95 North to I-595 West. Take I-595 West to University Drive exit. Proceed off exit and turn left onto University Drive (going south). Go past three traffic lights to S.W. 30th Street and turn left. Entrance to facility is 300 yards on right.

FT. LAUDERDALE TO STADIUM: Take I-595 West to Florida Turnpike South. Take Turnpike South nine miles to Exit 2 (N.W. 199th Street/Honey Hill Road). Proceed off exit to 199th Street and make right. Enter parking Gate 4.

MIAMI AIRPORT TO STADIUM: Take I-95 North to Ives Dairy Road. Proceed west for five miles (name of road changes to 199th Street) and stadium is on right. Enter parking Gate 4.

DOLPHINS ON THE INTERNET

All the information you need to read and hear about the Miami Dolphins in 1999 can be obtained on the Dolphins web site, located at <http://www.miamidolphins.com>. Miami's official home page contains useful information that is updated on a daily basis throughout the year. Releases, rosters, statistics, depth charts and updated biographies are just a few of the things that are featured. In addition, the site is updated daily with sound bites from Head Coach Jimmy Johnson and Dolphin players. The quality of sound will enable not only fans to hear what the Dolphins are saying, but also can be used by the media. Pre-game and post-game analysis begins in preseason, and on gamedays, the site contains an analysis of the action on the field as it is happening, as well as photos throughout the course of the contest. Fans can submit questions and comments about the team daily. Live chats with Dolphin players, coaches and front office staff will be conducted twice a month. Other information on the Dolphins, in addition to the latest on the National Football League and the other 30 teams, can be accessed through the NFL's home page on <http://www.nfl.com>.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

AC Joint – Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct – Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion – Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess – An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adduct – Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.

Achilles' Tendon – The tendon at the back of the heel.

Adhesion – Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids – Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic – Exercise without use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercises.

Anaphylactic Shock – Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome – Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament – A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory – Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Anterogram – A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram – X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope – An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Articular Cartilage – Cartilage lining the opposing surfaces of bones.

Aspiration – The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis – Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avulsion – The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Baker's Cyst – Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Brachial Plexus – Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.

Bruise – A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Burner – Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.

Bursa – A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Capsule – An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan – Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from X-ray data.

Cellulitis – Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae – Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Charley Horse – A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture – Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia – A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavical – The collar bone; the bone connecting the breastbone with the shoulder blade.

Colles' Fracture – A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.

Concentric Muscle Contraction – A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion – An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids – Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Cortisone – An anti-inflammatory medication.

Costochondral – Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryokinetics – Treatment with cold and movement.

Cryotherapy – A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Debridement – The removal of foreign material and dead or damaged tissue.

Degenerative Joint Disease – Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament – Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle – Muscles at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral – A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction – An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; oft times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis – Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Edema – Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion – Accumulation of fluid, in various spaces in the body, or the knee itself. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS) – An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG) – Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis – Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride – "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Fascia – A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.

Fat Percentage – The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur – Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula – Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility – The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise – General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Fracture – Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress, or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb – Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glycogen – Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury – A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury – A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury – A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Hamstring – Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps – Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion – Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke – Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup – Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hematoma – Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer – Contusion to the iliac crest.

Hot Pack – Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus – Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy – Treatment using water.

Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band – A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Impingement Syndrome – Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.

Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, sweating, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Internal Rotation – Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) – Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Lesion – Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament – Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae – Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Malleolus – Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) – Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle and to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.

Medial Retinaculum – The band of connective tissue that attaches to the medial structures of the knee joint, including the patella and patellar tendon.

Meniscectomy – An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus – Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Myositis – Inflammation of a muscle.

Necrotic – Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene – Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation and heat retention to the area.

Neuritis – Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic – Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Parasthesia – Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patella ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."

Patellar Femoral Joint – Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalacia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.

Peroneal Muscles – Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the knee. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phlebitis – Inflammation of a vein.

Plantar – Pertaining to the sole of the foot.

Plantar Fascia – The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica – Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles "Quads" – A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography – Taking of X-rays.

Radius – Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain – Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Retraction – The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff – Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infra-spinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome – A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) Tendinitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) Fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm.; and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm. or more.

Sacrum – Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula – Shoulder blade.

Sciatica – Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve – Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Sorbothane – An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm (Theory) – Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spleen – Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylolisthesis – Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis – Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain – Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum – The breast bone.

Steroids – Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances. See Anabolic steroids and cortical steroids.

Stinger – Common term for plexus trauma in the neck.

Strain – Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture – A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-ray – A continual X-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching – Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Talus – The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate – A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals – Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneal, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) – The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon – Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow – General term for lateral elbow pain.

Thoracic – Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulate with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome – A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia – Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph – A special type of X-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea – The windpipe.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS) – An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process – Small lateral projection off the right side and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius – Flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps – Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Turf Toe – Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.

Ulna – Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve – Nerve in elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

Valgus – Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus – Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasoconstriction – Decrease of local blood flow.

Vasodilation – Increase of local blood flow.

"Wind Knocked Out" – Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Wrist – The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetral, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma – The cheekbone.

1999 NFL INSTANT REPLAY SYSTEM

The NFL's replay system, which will be used first in the preseason, uses digital computer technology, not video tape as was employed from 1986-91 when the NFL used replay to assist officiating. The new system affords quicker access to replays because there is no tape ("non-linear") to re-wind.

The system will be initiated by challenges from the head coaches (two per game) in all but the final two minutes of each half, and by the replay official in the booth in the final two minutes and overtime. The booth will operate under a "two-minute" mode the entire game, lining up replays of every play in case a challenge is issued.

The four individuals in the replay booth will be the "replay assistant," "technician," "video operator" and "communicator." The replay assistant is the direct and only link to the referee on the field. In the final two minutes of each half and overtime, he will make the decision on whether a play should be reviewed. He will have a football officiating background, either as a former on-field NFL official, a recently retired college official, or a current NFL Europe League official. There will be 16 replay assistants for the season. The replay assistant and video operator will be assigned as a team to a different game location each week.

The system begins with the replay booth receiving a "live" feed from the network television control truck covering the game.

The "technician" in front of the live-feed monitor cues up the live play by pressing the "make play" button on his console as the ball is snapped. That automatically puts the play on a "touch-screen monitor" positioned in front of the replay assistant. When a replay comes up from the truck, the technician presses a "make replay" button and that automatically pops up on the touch-screen monitor. The monitor can accommodate six replay angles of a single play.

The "replay assistant" is positioned in front of the touch-screen monitor. This person decides which replays will be relayed to the field monitor for review by the referee after a coach's challenge is issued, and whether an official's time-out will be called for a play review in the final two minutes of each half and overtime.

The "video operator," at the instruction of the replay assistant, will tap the touch-screen monitor (similar to a bank's automatic teller machine that prompts commands by the tapping of its screen) to transfer one of the replays to the booth's third monitor that is positioned between him and the replay assistant. The video operator can control the speed of the playback on this monitor by the turn of a dial. This is the monitor on which the replay assistant will view all replays. The video on this monitor is what the referee on the field will see.

The "communicator" is the replay booth's "eyes to the field." While the technician, replay assistant and video operator are doing their jobs, the communicator, stationed in back of the other three, is watching the field. He will advise the replay assistant – who is busy viewing the monitor -- that "they're in the huddle," "they're on the line" and "the ball is snapped" so the replay assistant will know that the next play has started, negating the possibility of a replay. He will also report to the replay assistant if an official ruling (e.g. holding, illegal procedure, etc.) has been made on the field following a play that might eliminate the need for a replay.

The communicator also is the timer of the 90 seconds allocated to the referee to make a decision on a replay. Once 90 seconds are reached, the communicator will hit a red button on the console in front of the replay assistant that will automatically shut off the field-level monitor, signaling to the referee that the 90 seconds has expired and the review is over. The referee must then announce his decision.

If needed, the communicator will also explain a referee's ruling to the TV truck and to the teams' public relations directors in the press box for dissemination to the media.

A "buzzer system" will be utilized to signal the call for a replay. Before the final two minutes, the head coach will buzz the referee and replay booth that he challenges a play and wants a review. Within the final two minutes, the booth will buzz the referee, calling for a replay. The head coaches will wear a belt pack containing a buzzer. When pressed, the buzzer will simultaneously signal the referee, umpire and replay booth that a replay is being requested.

There will be three replay monitors at field level in open-air stadiums. Two will be positioned at opposite 20-yard lines near the sideline wall. A third will be in a runway, for use if there is inclement weather. Two monitors will be used in domed stadiums.

As the referee approaches the monitor, his first replay will await him. His 90 seconds for a decision begins when he puts on the headphones that put him in contact with the replay booth.

1999 RULES OF REPLAY

COACHES CHALLENGE

Outside the final two minutes of each half, each team will be permitted two challenges per game that will initiate referee reviews. Each challenge will cost a team a time-out. If a challenge is upheld, the time-out will be restored, but the challenge will not. No challenges will be recognized from a team that has exhausted its time-outs.

FINAL TWO MINUTES OF EACH HALF

After the two-minute warning of each half, and throughout any overtime period, any referee review will be initiated by the replay assistant in the replay booth in the press box. He can initiate as many review requests as he thinks necessary, no matter how many time-outs the teams may have. No time-out will be charged for a review initiated from the replay booth.

REFEREE REVIEW

All replay reviews will be conducted by the referee on a field-level monitor after consultation with the other covering officials on the play. A decision will be reversed only when the referee has indisputable visual evidence that the call should be changed. The referee cannot initiate a replay in any instance.

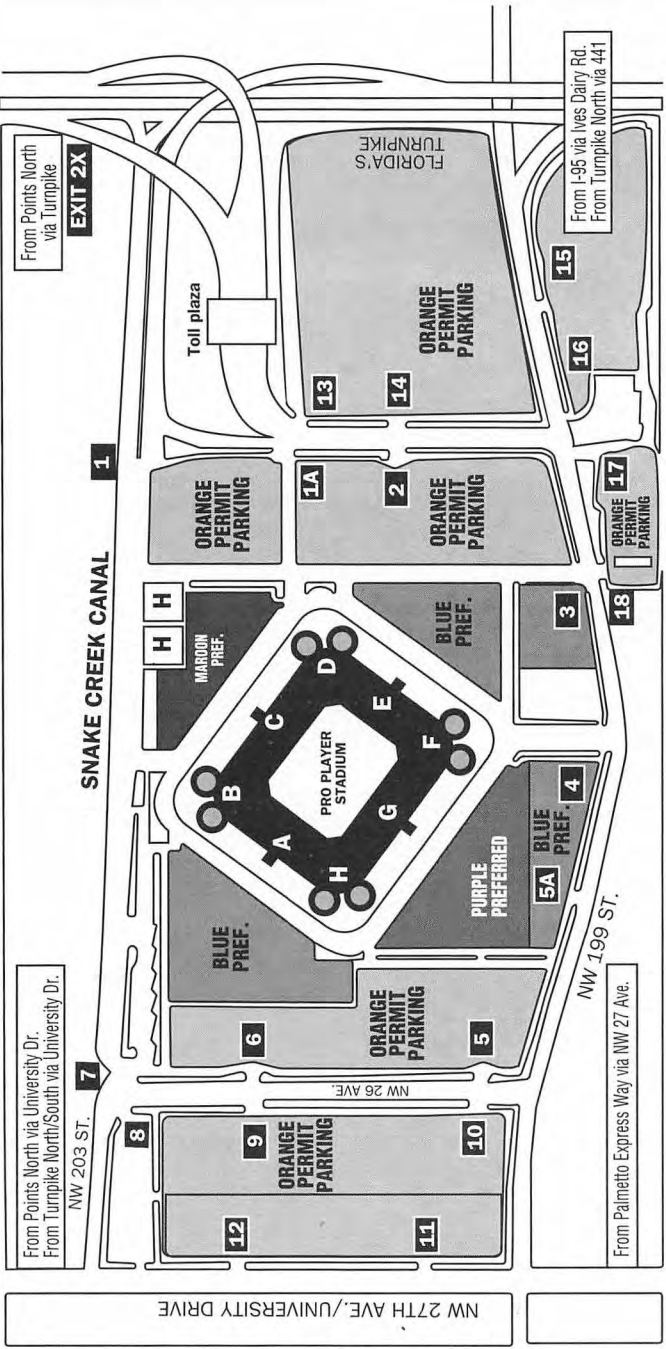

TIME LIMIT

Reviews will be a maximum of 90 seconds, timed from when the referee puts on the headphones to the replay booth.

REVIEWABLE PLAYS

The instant replay system will cover a variety of plays in three main areas – 1) sideline, goal line, end zone, and end-line plays; 2) passing plays; and 3) other detectable infractions, such as a runner ruled down not by defensive contact, and the number of players on the field.
